

Victorious Roosevelt Expected To Resign as Governor

The South's Standard Newspaper

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Largest Total City and Largest Total Daily Circulation of Any Atlanta Newspaper (By ABC Audit)

A. P. Service
United Press
N. A. N. A.

VOL. LXV., No. 133.

ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA

ATLANTA, GA., MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1932.

Entered at Atlanta Postoffice
As Second-Class Mail Matter.

Single Copies: Daily, 5c; Sunday, 10c.
Daily and Sunday: Weekly 25c; Monthly 90c.

25,000 ATLANTANS GREET ROOSEVELT HERE; NOMINEE'S ADDRESS TO BE HIGHLIGHT TODAY

BRILLIANT PARADE PLANNED IN HONOR OF PARTY LEADER

Military Units and City Departments To Take Part; Roosevelt Will Speak at Party Rally at Auditorium Tonight.

BY L. A. FARRELL.

Atlanta today will see to Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of the state of New York and democratic presidential nominee, the greatest tribute this city ever accorded a man in public life.

From the seats of the mighty down to the schoolroom seats of its humblest, the city will rise en masse to cheer Georgia's most illustrious adopted son on his way to undying fame.

Not to be outdone by her smaller sister downstate, Warm Springs, the city of Atlanta will accord to Governor Roosevelt a reception that will forever live in his memory and be cherished as long as time by his fellow Georgians, their children and their children's children.

From 10 o'clock this morning, when the governor will be given a motor tour of the city which will take him past every school within the city limits, until sometime after 10 o'clock tonight when his special train pulls out from the Terminal station for Raleigh the city will pay him homage.

In between these great events there will be crowded a monster parade which will take its place among the greatest outbursts of public enthusiasm in the south's history, a luncheon attended not only by more than 500 of the state's most distinguished

Continued in Page 5, Column 1.

As Cheering Thousands of Atlantans Welcomed Franklin D. Roosevelt to Georgia

NEXT PRESIDENT MADE WELCOME BY VAST THROG

Expresses Appreciation for Georgia's Welcome, Delight at Returning to
'Other Home,' 'First Lady' Flies to Newark.

BY HERMAN D. HANCOCK.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, conquering hero of the democratic party and the next president of the United States, Sunday swept into Atlanta to the wildest demonstration Georgia ever accorded any man.

Twenty-five thousand Atlantans massed at the Union station to pay tribute to Georgia's favorite son, and roared a tumultuous welcome as Georgia Tech and American Legion bands blared.

Police were forced to open an aisle in the human mass in order that the official cars bearing the nominee could reach the microphone through which his voice reached the attentive ears of a waiting nation.

Mrs. Roosevelt quit the Roosevelt special at Kennesaw, a few miles above Marietta, at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning and took an airplane from Candler field for New York to keep a speaking engagement, but the remainder of the party continued to Atlanta. An address by the governor at the auditorium tonight will be the highlight of Atlanta's program for "Roosevelt Day."

About 300 persons gathered at the Marietta station, despite the early hour, and Roosevelt spoke briefly to them as the train pulled to a stop.

Roosevelt's visit to this state and his swing into the south indicate his appreciation of Georgia, Georgians and the "solid south," which, it is

Continued in Page 4, Column 1.

ROOSEVELT TO QUIT GOVERNOR'S PLACE AFTER ELECTION

Victorious Candidate Will Relinquish State Post
To Seek Relaxation and Map Plans for National Administration.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

(Copyright, 1932, by the United Press.)
Expectation that Franklin D. Roosevelt will resign as governor of New York if he is elected president, so that he can devote himself entirely to preparation for his new duties, developed in his party tonight after the candidate told friends he expects to return to Warm Springs, Ga., shortly.

This would place Lieutenant Governor Lehman in the governor's chair at Albany and permit Roosevelt to retire into the quiet seclusion of Warm Springs to select his cabinet and lay out the major legislative program which he expects to drive through congress in the early stages of his administration.

Governor Roosevelt already has promised that he will motor over to Knoxville, Tenn., from Warm Springs sometime after election. He will inspect the Muscle Shoals and Cove Creek power sites in preparation for recommending important changes in federal water power policy.

Some of his advisers feel it would be unwise for Governor Roosevelt to attempt to continue his state duties at Albany until the expiration of his term January 1. He would be unable to give his complete attention to either state or presidential matters during

Continued in Page 5, Column 7.

Atlanta's unprecedented welcome for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, when he visited the city Sunday morning to be greeted by thousands. At top is shown the mammoth crowd as it pressed around the official car bearing the democratic nominee. The smaller photos at top, left to right, show members of the Old Guard in uniform, Hugh Howell, chairman of the Georgia democratic executive committee; Governor Roosevelt, Clark Howell, editor of The Constitution, before the microphone, and the governor and his escort, Mayor James L. Key and James Roosevelt, son of the candidate. Side pictures show, at left, above, Mrs. Roosevelt leaving the train at Kennesaw, below Governor Roosevelt surveying the welcoming throng. Right, above, Mrs. Roosevelt receiving a gift of flowers as she boarded an airplane to return to New York, and below, Governor Roosevelt speaking to the crowd. Pictures by Constitution staff photographers, Kenneth Rogers, Bill Mason and George Cornett.

1933 Chest Campaign Opens Today; 1,500 Workers To Raise $500,000

With $500,000 as its goal, the 1933 Community Chest campaign will get under way today with hundreds of cannvassers devoting their entire time in an effort to obtain pledges and subscriptions to that 45,000 needy and worthy persons may not go hungry and unclothed during the coming winter.

Never before in the history of Atlanta has the need been greater, leaders of the Chest point out, and although the turning point in the depression has been reached and economic conditions already are showing appreciable improvement, nevertheless these 45,000 persons are entirely dependent upon the willingness of those more fortunate.

The goal of $500,000 was set after every needless expense of the campaign was obliterated and after every one of the 38 agencies of the Chest had scrutinized their present needs and listed the anticipations of necessary relief during the coming winter.

That the 1932-33 winter will be the crucial test in America is the opinion of many of the nation's most profound thinkers. Chest leaders who

Today in Atlanta WITH GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT

10:00 A. M.—Governor Roosevelt begins tour of schools.
11:30 A. M.—Parade in honor of Governor Roosevelt moves through downtown Atlanta.
1:00 P. M.—Governor Roosevelt is guest of honor at luncheon at Atlanta Biltmore hotel.
2:30 P. M.—Roosevelt rally begins at the city auditorium.
9:15 P. M.—Governor Roosevelt addresses rally at auditorium.

AMUSEMENTS AND ART

ERLANGER: Opens tonight at 8:30 with Atlanta Permanent Players in "Death Takes a Holiday."
FOX: "Thirteen Women," motion picture.
GEORGIA: "Six Hours to Live," motion picture.
GRAND: "Rain," motion picture.
PARAMOUNT: "The Big
Broadcast," motion picture.
RIALTO: "That's My Boy," motion picture.
HIGH MUSEUM OF ART: Exhibition of Kress collection of famous paintings.

ALL MERIWETHER GREET NOMINEE AT WARM SPRINGS

10,000 Friends and Neighbors Gather at Rousing Celebration at New York
Governor's Georgia
Home; Crowd Tearful.

BY L. A. FARRELL.

Staff Correspondent.

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Oct. 24.—
As more than 10,000 friends and neighbors from the surrounding territory cheered mightily, Warm Springs today gave its adopted son and most illustrious citizen, Franklin
D. Roosevelt, to the nation.

It was a joyous yet sorrowful occasion and was cheered only by the fact that the little cottage near the foundation here will be vacant only when the White House at Washington is occupied, for the governor of the state of New York, who is certain to be elevated to the presidency on November 8, assured his fellow patients and thousands of friends here that he will return after the election for his usual fall vacation and will make frequent visits after his inauguration next March.

Practically every section of west and middle Georgia was represented at the farewell which, though it started as a jubilee, almost became a mournful procession. As the nominee's car steamed out toward Atlanta there was many a tear in the eyes of Warm Springs' best-known citizens and the governor himself was not ex-

Continued in Page 5, Column 2.

This Is Greater Atlanta Day--Ride Incoming Street Cars Free, 9 to 10 A. M. See Story in page 3

More Headlines Tell the Story Of Accidents and Suffering

On the front page of Saturday's Atlanta Constitution was an account of a former well-known Atlanta who was killed near Albemarle, N. C., and his wife seriously and possibly badly injured.

These headlines also appeared: "Three persons hurt in motor accident." "Atlanta girl injured in crash on highway."

This supplies an insight into the horror and suffering incident to the ever-widening progress of the national accident wave.

Have you ever paused to reflect on your own chances of being killed or maimed in a traffic crash? How many persons whose names appear on the casualty list would have believed five minutes prior to the accident that they were to be singled out by disaster? You can't avoid the physical suffering of the accident that may befall you at any moment, but you can protect your family—the loves ones dependent on you for comfort and happiness—against the financial want that follows accidents.

Insure yourself! Insure yourself!

cheaply and efficiently under the terms of The Atlanta Constitution's offer to its subscribers.

The Constitution offers you the famous travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago. This insurance is offered to subscriber and immediate dependent member of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 69, on the one subscription going into that home at the small registration fee of $1 each per policy, per year.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of some ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from the accidents set forth in the policy. All for only $1 registration fee—just about 2 cents a week.

The policy is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill. The reliability of this concern is proved by the fact that it has more than $150,000 in cash has been paid on claims to Constitution policyholders.

This insurance is offered to old and new subscribers alike. One who is now taking the daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for it through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Paid-in-advance mail subscribers can also have this insurance by paying the small registration fee of $1 in addition to the subscription price.

Those living in Atlanta and suburbs finding it inconvenient to pay the $1 registration fee in advance can pay 20 cents registration fee with the application and 20 cents for five consecutive weeks thereafter in addition to the subscription price.

In sending application for insurance the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and if beneficiary is desired, the full Christian name of the beneficiary must be given and relationship to the insured.

MEDALLIONS TO AID DRIVE TO BE SOLD IN ATLANTA TODAY

Atlanta girls, ranging from school misses to young society matrons, will sell the official medallion of the democratic campaign on downtown streets during Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's presence in the city today.

It was announced by Edgar Watkins Jr., chairman of the Shareholders in America, an organization sponsoring the sale of the medallions, which will be worn in the lapel and which will sell for $1 each.

Booths will be established in hotels and other places and young women will station themselves on the busier corners to procure wearers of the medallion. Each person purchasing a medallion will be given a certificate identifying him as a member of the Shareholders in America.

We Continue Our

All Thru This Week With a New List of Money-Saving Values

All during our gigantic offering of low price items last week, we could not help but overhear the many exclamations of delight and surprise from our customers when they came into our stores and really saw what enormous values we were offering.

In appreciation of our customers' generous acceptance of this sale we have decided to continue our 73rd Anniversary Sale for still another week with a new but equally as good list of specially priced bargains! These prices effective for Atlanta and vicinity thru Thursday.

NEW LOW PRICE
JESSUP & ANTRIM'S
"Foremost" Grade A

MILK
PT. 5c QT. 9c

Jessup & Antrim's
BUTTERMILK

QUART 5c

Sunnyfield
fancy whole grain
uncoated Rice, packaged for your convenience

Sparkle Rice
5 BOXES 19c 2 BOXES 9c

A&P TUB BUTTER LB. 25c
SILVERBROOK PRINT LB. 27c

"From the Nation's Finest Dairylands!"

Prunes 70 TO 80 SIZE LB. 5c
Iona Peas NO. 2 CAN 10c
Oats SUNNYFIELD GIANT 55-OZ. CTN. 12c
Cornflakes Sunnyfield 2 PKGS. 13c
Black-Eye Peas POUND 5c
Rice Fancy Whole Grain 5 LBS. 15c

Vegetables & Fruits
For Monday and Tuesday Only

Finest Canadian Rutabagas LB. 2c Large Yellow Onions POUND 2c
Big Bunch Green Collards BUNCH 5c Green Fresh Tops Turnips BUNCH 5c

At A&P Meat Markets

LAMB OR VEAL

Patties LB. 17c

Meat Loaf LB. 15c Lamb Chops LB. 23c
Smoked Link Sausage LB. 19c Veal Cutlets LB. 23c
Lamb Stew Meat LB. 9c Beef Liver LB. 18c
Spare Ribs LB. 10c Copeland's Sausage LB. 29c

R. C. MIZELL PRAISES ACTIVITIES OF CHEST

R. C. Mizell, president of the Taxpayers' League, and an Atlanta realtor, says that the value of the Community Chest is proved by the services it has rendered and is rendering every day.

R. C. MIZELL.

"Everybody in Atlanta must surely have encountered at least one, probably many hundreds, of human services performed in the last few months of dire emergency—services that have been effective in averting disaster, Mr. Mizell said.

"The certainly that these services were part of the program of helpfulness of which the Community Chest is the directing center. No one has failed to see the value of that program. No one who conceivably could find it in his heart to refuse contribution to the community's plan of helpful services if he pauses to consider its intelligent basis, its record of performance, its sympathy and its readiness to meet every emergency.

"The Chest has quietly and competently done a great service in the past two years. It deserves a better support than ever, and I don't see how any one can fail to support it—in fact it is the only thing to do."

SEVERAL ARE HURT IN SUNDAY CRASHES

Several persons were injured slightly as the result of a series of automobile accidents Sunday, according to reports at Grady hospital. J. B. Williamson, 23, of 619 Ashby street, S. W., received cuts and abrasions when his car collided with a truck driven by M. Skelton at Donnelly avenue and Beecher street. J. E. Shaw, 23, of a Graham avenue address, and J. H. McEwen, of 889 Oak street, also received cuts and bruises. No arrest was made.

Bill Hall, 23, of College Park, was slightly hurt when his automobile was forced off the road near College Park. Others treated at emergency clinic of Grady hospital for accidental injuries were:

James Miller, 18, 195 Forrest avenue, right arm hurt, auto accident.

Bud Bagley, 20, of 111 Montgomery avenue, right arm hurt, auto accident.

F. M. Vandegriff, 19, of 1 Leslie street, right arm hurt, auto accident.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jones, 186 Beecher street, slightly hurt in auto accident.

Yancy Yon, 18, of College Park, was treated for poisoning.

Herman Cornwell, 17, of 359 Simmons street, cuts and bruises.

Fred Sabo, 17, and his brother, Ed Sabo, 16, 335 Luman street, treated for cuts and abrasions.

Mrs. E. B. Pittman, 51, of 379 Inman street, right jaw dislocated.

Quenton Eskew, 8, of 425 Harden avenue, broken left arm.

KEY CLASS HEARS DR. ASHBY JONES; BROOKS RENAMED

Dr. M. Ashby Jones, outstanding figure in the Baptist denomination and for several years pastor of the Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church, filled Mayor Key's place as teacher of the James L. Key Bible class at the Georgia theater Sunday morning, using the international Bible lesson thesis on "Home" to round out a stirring appeal for support of the Community Chest campaign.

"Of course we must not allow anyone to die from starvation," said Dr. Jones, "but that isn't satisfying the condition that confronts us today. We must keep the homes of our people intact."

Dr. D. Witherspoon Dodge, pastor of Atlanta's Church of the Air, presided as head of the class during annual election of officers. Ben L. Brooks being elected president for a third term. Installation was conducted by Dr. Dodge. Other officers elected were: C. A. Thomas, first vice president; Oliver C. Hancock, second vice president; Mrs. Wilbur Swinford, secretary; L. E. Lavender, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Suttles, soloist; Mrs. Ruth Godwin, pianist, and Mrs. Fred Wilson, organist.

Dr. Ashby Jones was added to the class faculty, the teaching staff now being composed of Mayor James L. Key, Methodist; Dr. D. Witherspoon Dodge, Congregationalist, and Dr. Jones, Baptist.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

LIBBY'S CANNED FOOD SALE
EFFECTIVE ALL THIS WEEK

NO. 2 CAN LIBBY'S CRUSHED OR SLICED

PINEAPPLE EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S FLAT PINEAPPLE EA. 7½c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 SLICED PEACHES EA. 8½c

LIBBY'S 8-OZ. CAN FRUIT FOR SALAD EA. 8½c

LIBBY'S 8-OZ. CAN BARTLETT PEARS EA. 7½c

LIBBY'S 2½ CAN BARTLETT PEARS EA. 19c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN ROYAL ANNE CHERRIES EA. 15c

LIBBY'S PICNIC ASPARAGUS TIPS EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S SQUARE CANS ASPARAGUS TIPS EA. 25c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 PUMPKIN 3 FOR 25c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CUT BEETS EA. 7½c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN CARROTS & PEAS EA. 15c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN FANCY GREEN LIMAS EA. 19c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN

TOMATO JUICE 3 FOR 19c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN COUNTRY G.

CORN EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN SWEET

CORN EA. 10c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN HAPPY VALE

CORN 3 FOR 25c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN

SPINACH EA. 15c

LIBBY'S NO. 2½ CAN

SPINACH EA. 17c

LIBBY'S TALL CANS

MILK 3 FOR 13c

LIBBY'S SMALL SIZE

MILK 6 FOR 13c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN TINY

PEAS EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN TINY

PEAS EA. 17c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN ROSEDALE

PEAS EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S NO. 2 CAN HAPPY VALE

PEAS EA. 10c

LIBBY'S ½'S FLAT PINK

SALMON EA. 5c

LIBBY'S 4-OZ.

MUSTARD EA. 8½c

LIBBY'S 5-OZ. SWEET

RELISH EA. 10c

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
PRICES EFFECTIVE MON. TUES. AND WED.

ORANGES JUICY AND SWEET, DOZ. 17c

BUNCH CARROTS EA. 6c

SEEDLESS GRAPES LB. 7c

WHITE OR YELLOW ONIONS 2 LBS. 5c

YORK APPLES DOZ. 10c

LUSCIOUS DEWS EA. 25c

LIBBY'S POTTED

MEAT 3 FOR 10c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN

TRIPE 10c

LIBBY'S

VEAL LOAF CAN 15c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN

BRAINS EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S 2½-OZ. DRIED

BEEF EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S 1-LB. CAN CORNED

BEEF EA. 15c

LIBBY'S ½'S CORNED BEEF

HASH EA. 7½c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN CORNED

BEEF HASH EA. 12½c

LIBBY'S 1-LB. CAN ROAST

BEEF EA. 17c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN CHILI

CON CARNE EA. 8½c

LIBBY'S NO. 1 CAN DEVILED

HAM EA. 10c

LIBBY'S ½'S CAN

LUNCH TONGUE EA. 12½c

IN OUR MEAT MARKETS

HAMS WHOLE OR HALF LB. 12½c

SLICED HAM CENTER CUTS LB. 23c

PORK STEAK SLICED SHOULDER LB. 12½c

CHEESE NEW YORK STATE SHARP AND SNAPPY LB. 20c

VEAL STEAK SLICED SHOULDER LB. 20c

CALVES' LIVER SLICED LB. 29c

PORK ROAST PICNIC STYLE LB. 8½c

COTTAGE CHEESE RED ROSE (1-LB. PKG.) 1 LB. 15c

PEANUT BUTTER BULK LB. 15c

PIG LIVER SLICED LB. 10c

STEAK FANCY CHUCK LB. 20c

ROGERS
QUALITY FOOD SHOPS

Fresh Vegetables

TURNIP SALAD LB. 5c

FRESH GREEN TOP TURNIPS 3 BUNCHES FOR 10c

CANADIAN RUTABAGAS LB. 2½c

GREEN HARD HEAD CABBAGE LB. 2½c

WHITE OR YELLOW ONIONS LB. 2½c

Best Foods or Hellmann's

SALAD DRESSING

QUART 21c PINT 12½c

Best Foods or Hellmann's

MAYONNAISE
(OR RELISH)

PINT 27c 8-OZ. JAR 15c

Best Foods

BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

2 15-OZ. JARS 27c

Best Foods

HORSERADISH AND MUSTARD

JAR 9c

Best Foods

NUCOA

2 LBS. FOR 27c

Best Foods

FRENCH DRESSING

8-OZ. BOTTLE 10c

Campbell's or Libby's

TOMATO JUICE 2 CANS 15c

Jersey CORN FLAKES PKG. 5c

Oysters Are in Season

OYSTERS 2 CANS 15c

Foster's LUNCH TONGUE CAN 15c

Foster's SAUSAGE MEAT 3 NO. 1 CANS 25c

In Rogers Markets

Beef Round or Loin

Steak LB. 28c

STAR WIENERS LB. 15c

SPARE RIBS LB. 10c

PIG LIVER LB. 8c

PIG BRAINS LB. 12½c

PORK SAUSAGE (BULK) LB. 15c

LAMB PATTIES LB. 17c

SAUSAGE UNCLE BUD'S LB. 29c

PORK LOIN ROAST LB. 13½c

SLICED BACON LB. 17c

CRIME INCREASES DURING WEEK-END

Yeggs, Bandits, Burglars Keep Police Busy Early Sunday Morning.

Safe-blowing, holdups, burglaries and window-smashings dotted the police blotter Sunday after a sporadic outbreak of crime Saturday night and early Sunday morning. While robbery of a laundromat drops, automobile "pick-ups" and the ordinary device of hide-and-seek also were reported. The killing of a negro was the highlight in the week-end underworld activities.

Cracksmen apparently unskilled in the use of "saw," or nitroglycerine, used enough of the explosive to wreck a Piggy-Wiggy store at 1028 Boulevard N. E. early Sunday morning. A safe was practically demolished, canned goods ruined, the refrigerator and ten blown out and merchandise turned topsy-turvy by the blast. The Yeggs got away with $177.

Two men picked up by E. P. Outler, of Jacksonville, at Macon Saturday night, drove him to Atlanta and gave him several drinks of whisky which contained knockout drops. He awoke early Sunday and found he was in a room at 1028 Boulevard N. E. He told police, Samuel Mercer, 961 Lee street, reported three men picked him up in an automobile at Broad and Alabama streets, told him to get into a quiet neighborhood and robbed him of $18. Mrs. J. D. Jones, 941 Fern street, S. E., said two white youths knocked on her back door, held her up with a pistol and robbed her of $3. L. H. Cole, 278 Ivy street, said a negro held him up at Courtland and Baker streets and robbed him of $6. W. R. Hammond, manager, Gulf Refining station at Central avenue and Hunter street, said three white men held him up and took $7.

A burglar hid in the store of J. T. Gordon, 912 Wylie street, Saturday night, stole a quantity of cigars and other merchandise and broke his way out with the loot. A cafe at 603 Larcum street was entered and cigars, candy and tobacco stolen, while burglars stole two miniature pool tables from a cafe at 248 Currier street.

Joseph Shicks, 27, negro, was shot to death in a negro brawl in front of 507 Connally street early Sunday morning. Residents of the vicinity told of hearing loud arguments followed by several shots.

W. W. Moody, proprietor of a small cafe at 194 Ivy street, reported to police Sunday night that two negroes held him up at his place of business and robbed him of $26 and a pistol.

T. R. Blencoe, manager of the East Side Animal hospital, 257 Edgewood avenue, reported that two negroes entered the hospital and held him up, robbing him of $5.

Miss Opal Sutley, 341 Venable street, reported her purse was snatched at Forrest avenue and Bedford place Sunday night by a small negro boy.

LABOR CHIEF APPEALS FOR RELIEF OF NEEDY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—An appeal for all who can contribute generously to relief of the needy was made in a radio address tonight by President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

Green's plea followed publication in "Labor" organized railroad employees' publication, of an article in which he asked persons of wealth to open their strong-boxes if necessary for relief of a growing number of unemployed.

Warning that "an increasing number of people have reached the end of their material resources," the labor head said in his radio address as made public by the federation, that "because I am in a position to comprehend, in a very large way, the serious consequences which may follow the failure of the individual to do his full duty at this time, I appeal to all to give as they have never given before."

WARREN'S
195 Edgewood—JA. 1503 2829 Peachtree—CH. 9189
839 Gordon St.—RA. 9253 20 Ashby St.—No Phone

BUEHLER BROS.
135-137 W. ALABAMA ST. WA. 2483-2484
ACROSS THE STREET FROM RICH'S

SPECIALS FOR MONDAY

PURE LARD	5 1/2c LB.
NUT OLEO	8 1/2c LB.
PORK ROAST	7 1/2c LB.
SLICED PORK	HAM 15c LB.
TENDER STEAK	10c LB.
SMOKED LINKS	7c LB.

Large Audience Amazed At Krishnamurti's Teaching

BY ROY ROBERT.

Do not follow any one man or thing, even Jesus of Nazareth, was the advice Jiddu Krishnamurti, East Indian who became a world figure with his teaching, gave an audience of 2,500 people at the Paramount theater Sunday afternoon.

"Nor may you be a disciple of any creed, belief, man or anything, if you will find truth," he said. Amazing as it was interesting to present civilization, Krishnamurti's lecture held the tense attention of his audience for 45 minutes. Then followed 45 minutes of questions and answers in which the "spiritual voice of the age" expounded further his theory that truth, "which is the only ecstasy, can be found only in complete and perfect detachment from creed, prejudice, possession and conflict."

Describing himself and his teachings as neither the opponent of any person or belief, nor a proponent of any creed, including his own, so far as the individual is concerned, the dark young man from the east said he was neither oriental nor occidental.

Why Men Seek God.
He said that the desire to know God springs from the same basic cause as the desire to possess material things.

"You desire to possess God to escape from the conflict around you," he said, "the conflict which swirls around you because you are bound by prejudice and ideals."

"Anyone can find the ecstasy of truth if he or she will give all for it. Call it truth, life, God or any other name—it is all the same. The name does not matter."

But the method of gaining truth was not the method of gaining truth awakened, and the knowledge must include a differentiation between false and true values. Truth is not a matter of mere learning, but, rather, is the supreme intelligence."

Find Truth Through Doubt.
Bolstering the theory of present-day "free thinkers," Krishnamurti said the only way to truth is through a doubting mind, and that unless one questions all traditions, teachings, creeds and thought, truth cannot be found.

"The search," he said, "to find out what God is and the secret of eternal life is useless. Your search for God is merely a vain endeavor to escape from the present into the future. The cause of suffering is more important than to understand what or who God is."

As he talked, Krishnamurti became intense in his speech and used many gestures, especially where subtlety of thought was expressed. From a calm beginning, he progressed more and more intense, with eyes flashing and his muscles at times working in paroxysms.

Painstaking in Manner.
Somewhat repetitive in character, it was apparent that he doubted the ability of the audience to grasp the significance of his reasoning by hearing only a straight discourse. As a matter of fact, his remarks made during 45 minutes no doubt could have been spoken to one who has studied his theory in one-tenth that time.

Painstakingly and deliberately he explained each point over and over, though with his words and phrases altered.

Declaring that people are merely cogs in a machine in organized religious groups, he said that following any belief as given "by teachers who have no way of knowing, is imitative, conformative and insincere."

"In order to know truth there must be absolute spiritual freedom—no belief in sects, no acceptance of any theory. Slow stagnation and death follow in the wake of subscribing to any man's teaching."

About Immortality.
He repeated over several times his early remark that the desire to escape the conflict around people caused them to seek wealth, power, influence and knowledge of the after-life.

"The desire for immortality," he said, "as taught by religious organizations is merely another kind of selfishness and the desire to escape the conflict which rages within you. You must abandon selfishness or unselfishness, you must become absolute."

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

IL DUCE URGES U. S. BRITAIN'S HUNGRY MARCH ON LONDON

Mussolini Tells 500,000 Italians That Germany Has Right To Arm.

TURIN, Italy, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini appealed to the United States to cancel or reduce the European war debts in an open-air address today, carried by loud speakers to about a half-million Italians jammed in three public squares of Turin.

He declared Germany's armament parity demand was "fully justified," deplored the ineffectiveness of the League of Nations but said Italy would remain a member of what he described as the "ship of debts" and money inflation.

Without mentioning France by name, he made what was interpreted as a challenge to that nation—whose frontier is only 40 miles west of here—in his statement that "Turin has never been afraid of war."

Elaborate precautions were taken for protection of the premier in his first visit to this industrial center, long the hot-bed of anti-fascism, in nine years.

He made a promise to Turin citizens that "hereafter contacts between us will be close and frequent."

The premier appealed to United States in the matter of what he described as "the ship of debts" and money inflation.

"I hope the people of the great starved state will not reject this vessel which carries a cargo of hope and anxiety of so many people."

Shouts of "no" came from the crowd. He said that your "no" could be heard on the other side of the ocean and touch the heart of that great people, the premier added.

His speech was part of a celebration of the tenth anniversary of the fascist regime and he announced as the motto for the next decade: "Advance, work and, if and when necessary, fight."

He pledged better co-operation between classes. He said he knew the physical pain of families in want "because I have endured it."

"Germany's demand for juridical parity of armaments is fully justified," he said. "It must be recognized and the sooner, the better. But at the same time, Germany must not ask armament in any way as long as the disarmament conference endures."

"Once the conference fails," he added, "Germany cannot remain in the League of Nations."

He envisaged a four-power conference with Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy—as recently proposed by the British government—as a possible solution to European troubles.

"Will Remain in League."
"But we want no hegemony in Europe," he added, without mentioning any specific country as threatening domination of others. "We would be against the establishment of any hegemony, especially if it creates a situation of obvious injustice."

The action of the grand council of fascism aroused the interest of all countries," he continued, recalling the council's proposal last May to re-examine Italy's status in the League of Nations.

"I declare again we still will remain in the League—especially now that it is extraordinarily 'sick,' we must not abandon it," he said. "The League is too universal, its advice loses efficacy with distance. It may have benefited some European regions but in the far east, and South America its words remain words without sense, without significance."

"There have been efforts to disentangle the League from this too universal system," he said. "I think if tomorrow there could be reached, on the basis of justice, recognition of our sacred rights . . . and the necessary adequate premises for collaboration of the four great western powers, Europe would be tranquilized in a political way and perhaps the economic crisis would weaken and approach its end."

"Italy For Peace."
The premier proclaimed "for all to hear" that Italy follows a policy of peace—"true peace designed to restore the equilibrium of Europe, peace that is in the heart, like hope and faith."

His face distorted and arms swinging, he characterized anti-fascists abroad and Masonic exiles of Italy as "idle dreamers who would not forgive fascist Italy for surviving."

He derided the dote as solving nothing and said "we are against all indirect measures and all suggestions to alter the value of money which I consider the untouchable banner of the nation. Where this has been done, conditions of the people have not been improved."

"Even now as we gather in this plaza, masses of unemployed are marching from many parts of Britain upon London," he added.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

During his reading and answering of questions he was alternately annoyed and amused by the nature of the questions written down on paper and handed to him. When one person inquired whether or not he should get married, his sarcastic reference caused a titter to run through the crowd. Other questions he dismissed as impertinent and "beside the point" from those who evidently had considered Krishnamurti something of a mystic.

Carfare Free on Cars, Busses Coming to Town, 9 to 10 A. M.

Believe it or not, today, from 9 to 10 o'clock, you may ride any income tax street car or bus free.

The Georgia Power Company, in celebration of Governor Roosevelt's presence in Atlanta, will charge no fares for passengers coming downtown. This will enable everyone to take part in the Greater Atlanta Day celebration, and incidentally to take advantage of the many bargains offered today by the Atlanta stores.

Conductors and motormen on the street will start tomorrow for High Wycombe.

Thirty-eight women marchers, who had expected this evening to reach Leighton Buzzard from Wolverton, were stormbound at Bletchley. Only two of this group reached their objective. The others, after plodding several hours through torrential rain, halted at Bletchley and were given refuge in the workhouse. They will push on to Luton tomorrow.

Another contingent arrived tonight at Braintree, Essex, after a march from Colchester. The Braintree Labor Club distributed dry clothes among them and a local co-operative society provided food and some cash.

Various lines have their instructions to take no fares from passengers in the hour designated, so don't offer to pay. No explanation is required. You simply board the car.

This arrangement will enable everyone, regardless of his or her circumstances, to come downtown today, and take part in one of the most momentous celebrations in the history of the town.

Special Sizes in Gladstone Bags 18-inch to 28-inch W. Z. Turner Luggage Co. 219 Peachtree St.

"Welcome to Atlanta, Our Mr. Roosevelt"

Our city is congested at this time with Georgia's and neighboring states' populace to greet our next President, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Please extend every automobile courtesy at this particular time and save lives . . . and vote for our Mr. Roosevelt and "SAVE AMERICA!"

Why is the letter "R" the most important letter in the alphabet? It is the most important letter for the reason that it indicates the "ENDING OF HOOVER" and the "BEGINNING OF ROOSEVELT!"

Contributed by GEORGE B. KORNEGAY, President Kornegay Furniture Co., Inc. 102 Pryor St., S. W.

"Better Values for Less Money" Proprietor B. W. Wiggins Furniture Company, 320-322 Peters St., S. W.

"Out of the High Rent District"

MATTHEWS MARKET 83 Broad St.

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE....30c

25 Pounds DOMINO SUGAR CLOTH BAGS $1.15

100 Pounds Ballard's CHICKEN FEED $1.69

100 Pounds Ballard's LAYING MASH $1.99

FRESH PORK CHOPS LB. 10c

LAMB SHOULDER ROAST 10c

ROUND and LOIN STEAK LB. 13c

They Satisfy... all you could ask for!

THERE'S romance in a Chesterfield—the romance of fine tobaccos from all over the world. The search begins in far-off Turkey where Chesterfield buyers visit every important tobacco-growing section . . . and continues throughout our own Southland. Year in and year out Chesterfield gives to its smokers the "pick" of all these fields.

Chesterfield

© 1932, LORRETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

25,000 ATLANTANS GREET ROOSEVELT

Cheering Throng Packs Union Station Plaza as Nominee Arrives.

Continued from First Page.

certain, will cast an undivided ballot for the nominee.

He expressed that appreciation in the two speeches Sunday morning—at Marietta and Atlanta—as a chorus of thousands of voices joined in commendation. After the demonstration here, Governor Roosevelt paid a visit to his "other home" at Warm Springs and returned to Atlanta at about 6:45 o'clock Sunday night. He went at once to the Blairmore, where he will rest in preparation for today's program.

Vigorous and Smiling. Roosevelt, despite the fact that he is completing a 12,000-mile swing throughout the nation to ascertain the needs of the country and to meet the people of the nation as much as is humanly possible, never looked better than when he smilingly faced the battery of microphones and newspaper cameras here Sunday. His voice was vigorous and tempered with good humor and friendliness. If there was one voter in the vast throng who might have wavered at the ballot box, that one was converted by the magnetic smile of the democratic standard bearer.

Following his presentation by Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., senator-designate of Georgia, Roosevelt launched into his address.

"I am honored and flattered at this fine demonstration by my fellow Georgians," he said. "This is a real welcome to my other home. I do not have to make a political speech in Georgia. (Here he was interrupted as the assembly raised its approval.)

"This is Sunday and I shall not make a political speech today. I have, however, always had one superstition. That is, I would not chance hats in the midst of a political campaign. (Here again he was interrupted by the wild cheering of the large and appreciative audience.)

"Happy Days Are Here." "I am glad the hands played 'Dixie' and 'Happy Days Are Here Again.' I read that they played 'Smile, Dear You, Smile' at a rally in Detroit last night. They won't have to play that when we are in the White House. We will just smile anyway. (Another interruption while the crowds did more cheering.)

"I am glad to be here. I came to Georgia about 10 years ago for the first time, and have been honored to be one of you. I shall see you again soon."

Loud speakers conveyed his message to other thousands, who, unable to get close to the nominee, saw him from points of vantage in windows of office buildings and fire escapes. The crowd extended for several blocks in each direction from the plaza in front of the Union station, from which the speech was made.

Howell, Key, Russell. Hugh Howell, chairman of the state democratic executive committee and chairman of the reception committee in charge of arrangements in Atlanta, introduced Mayor James L. Key, who presented Governor Russell, who, in turn, introduced Roosevelt.

"I want to present Mayor Key, whom everybody in this audience knows and who is a valiant democrat, who will present Governor Russell," Howell said.

"Mr. Roosevelt is in the hearts of Georgians as no other man in recent times has been." Key told the assembly. "The heart of Georgia is happier today than it has been since the Hoover depression opened. Mr. Roosevelt is Georgia's favorite son; he is a statesman who understands not only national but international problems. He is a Georgian. But I am not here to introduce him to you. I am here to present to you your own Governor Russell, who will introduce Mr. Roosevelt, who will be the next occupant of the White House as our president."

"The American people are imbued with a new hope and see the dawn of a new day with a new president in affairs," Governor Russell asserted. "He is America's foremost citizen. He is Georgia's favorite son and first citizen. His kind heart and his hand have carried for him a place among the immortals of the nation."

"I have traveled with him from St. Louis, and he has been received with a spontaneous enthusiasm never before accorded any public man. I am honored to present him to you. I am proud of the privilege. Mr. Roosevelt, the next president of the United States."

State Leaders Introduced. While the crowd was waiting for the arrival of the Roosevelt special, which pulled into the station on time at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, Hugh Howell was introduced. Eugene Talmadge also was presented, and the following others said a few words:

Charles B. Shelton, state chairman of the Roosevelt campaign; J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; J. E. Williams, of the Marietta fire department, and A. V. Dodd, of Atlanta's fire department, boarded the train at Warm Springs. They acted as a special committee and rode with the governor to Atlanta.

Governor Russell presented Governor Roosevelt at Marietta, where a special stoppage for about five minutes.

Hoover gave little to Georgia and Georgians. He told about 500 persons gathered at the station about 8:45 o'clock, when the train pulled into the station. "We are grateful to Governor Roosevelt for his frank and candid way of looking at the situation," he said. "He will restore confidence."

"I have accompanied the governor from St. Louis, and although in the past I have been somewhat critical of a one-party system in the state, I find the people of the nation cemented into one party—to support Mr. Roosevelt. There will be a rejuvenation of the nation under democratic leadership after March 4, next year. He is received with acclaim and tumultuous throngs everywhere. He will be our next president."

"I just had to come back to Georgia, my adopted home," Governor Roosevelt told the present and the future. "This is a real homecoming for me, and I am coming again in November."

"That will be after you are elected," someone called out.

Says People Want Change. "That's right," Roosevelt smilingly said. "I'm going to be, because the people of America want a change."

"I don't see what you are coming down here for, because you are for a man," the same man said, interrupting again.

"I'll tell you why," Roosevelt countered. "I want to see a very section of the nation, to see just what the various needs are. We do not want sectional prosperity, while other divisions of the nation are suffering. We want a general prosperity over the entire country. That is our reason."

"The other is, I just wanted to come back home—to my other home—and tell the people of Georgia and the south that I appreciate their confidence and their loyal support. They deserved to see me, and I am here."

At that juncture, the train began moving, and Roosevelt waved goodbye amid the cheers of the audience.

Coach Meets Helen At Rumanian Border

BUCHAREST, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Reversing his previous refusal, the government today sent a royal railway coach to the border to meet former Queen Helen, divorced wife of King Carol. The coach was waiting at the boundary when she entered the country.

In some political circles it was said that Premier J. I. Maniu, leader of the national peasant party, had a hand in forestalling the slight to Helen. The former queen is popular with the peasants.

She has been in London, where her son, Prince Michael, visited her briefly, the visit being terminated by Carol, reportedly because he objected to the publicity resulting from it.

HERRIOT APPEALS FOR WORLD PEACE

French Premier Defends Principles of Proposed Disarmament Plan.

LENS, France, Oct. 23.—(AP)—In the heart of the old war zone, Premier Edouard Herriot today appealed for world peace, referring to 75,000 German graves in the near-by Meuse-Blanche cemetery, which he asserted "France cares for with respect."

The premier said the forthcoming disarmament security plan, which France will submit to the disarmament conference called for November 3, "binds nations to a renunciation of arms by the growing forces of right."

He expressed the belief the German soldiers buried here were also in that immense majority of men who doubtless wished to work in peace. France would like to be seconded by all peoples from whom she asks, as I asked in 1924, an end of mortal hatreds.

After asserting that France pursued the aims of the 1924 protocol at Lausanne in 1932, the premier said "France knows how to be generous when only her material interests are concerned."

France, he said, "asks only to pursue this work" and in order that its disarmament plan "may succeed, all peoples must be as reasonable as herself." The premier met yesterday with a special committee of the National Defense Council which is studying the French plan for disarmament and security. The superior war council must approve the plan later.

"The government is pursuing this task daily, without regard to violent and enthusiastic manifestations," the premier said.

FRANCE NOT TO BE DUPED. LABOUR MINISTER DECLARES.

TOULOUSE, France, Oct. 23.—(AP) Albert Daladier, minister of labor, in an address before industrialists here today, asserted "France offers disarmament" to the world "but refuses to be duped."

He referred to the French disarmament plan to be presented at the next disarmament conference and appealed to all nations to give their disinterested co-operation in the present "crisis."

The labor minister said France wishes perpetual peace but does not wish to live in "perpetual anxiety."

HEAVY GALES SWEEP SOUTHERN ENGLAND

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Typical autumn gales accompanied by heavy rain swept southern England today, blowing many rivers, stopping traffic and inundating the ground floors of buildings.

Small craft on the English channel were sent scurrying for shelter from wild seas. Passenger steamers kept up service, but they had rough crossings.

Some of the main London streets were inches deep in water.

Professor Raymond Moley, Senator James P. Murray, Senator Kenneth McKellar, Tennessee; Judge Robert Marx, James Hagerly, New York; Eugene C. Dwyer, New York; Harold Brayman, New York Evening Post; Lou Ruppel, New York Daily News; John Botkin, Chicago Tribune; John T. Wright, Buffalo News; Bascom Timmons, Cleveland News; Robert Allen, Philadelphia Record; Ullrich Bell, Louisville Courier-Journal; Walker Buel, Cleveland Plain Dealer; Edward Gableman, Cincinnati Inquirer; Frank Waltham, Baltimore Sun; J. H. Murray, Evening Telegraph; Joseph McCauley, Western Union; George A. Glendon Jr., Ben Seigel, Arthur Mullen and Robert Baruch.

Assistant Chief W. A. Fain and Lieutenant J. H. Cornett, of the Atlanta fire department; J. Austin Dillon, Atlanta funeral director; R. S. Hicks, chief of the Marietta fire department; Judge W. Callaway, of the first division of the recorder's court, Atlanta; Maya Ward, Marietta; Cecil E. Ebbell, of the Marietta fire department, and A. V. Dodd, of Atlanta's fire department, boarded the train at Warm Springs. They acted as a special committee and rode with the governor to Atlanta.

Governor Russell presented Governor Roosevelt at Marietta, where a special stoppage for about five minutes.

Hoover gave little to Georgia and Georgians. He told about 500 persons gathered at the station about 8:45 o'clock, when the train pulled into the station. "We are grateful to Governor Roosevelt for his frank and candid way of looking at the situation," he said. "He will restore confidence."

"I have accompanied the governor from St. Louis, and although in the past I have been somewhat critical of a one-party system in the state, I find the people of the nation cemented into one party—to support Mr. Roosevelt. There will be a rejuvenation of the nation under democratic leadership after March 4, next year. He is received with acclaim and tumultuous throngs everywhere. He will be our next president."

"I just had to come back to Georgia, my adopted home," Governor Roosevelt told the present and the future. "This is a real homecoming for me, and I am coming again in November."

"That will be after you are elected," someone called out.

Says People Want Change. "That's right," Roosevelt smilingly said. "I'm going to be, because the people of America want a change."

"I don't see what you are coming down here for, because you are for a man," the same man said, interrupting again.

"I'll tell you why," Roosevelt countered. "I want to see a very section of the nation, to see just what the various needs are. We do not want sectional prosperity, while other divisions of the nation are suffering. We want a general prosperity over the entire country. That is our reason."

"The other is, I just wanted to come back home—to my other home—and tell the people of Georgia and the south that I appreciate their confidence and their loyal support. They deserved to see me, and I am here."

At that juncture, the train began moving, and Roosevelt waved goodbye amid the cheers of the audience.

Scene at Union Station as Crowd Welcomed Next President

Thousands of Atlantans and Georgians gathered at the Union station Sunday morning waiting for the arrival of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, democratic nominee for the presidency, to visit his adopted state for two days. In the background, near the station can be seen the speakers' stand where microphones were stationed for speeches of greeting to the nominee. Staff photo.

WET CANDIDATES OUTNUMBER DRYS

Poll Indicates Ratio Is 11 to 1 Among Congressional Nominees.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform reported today that in a poll it is conducting, "wet candidates for the seventy-third congress exceed drys eleven to one."

An announcement issued by Mrs. William B. Mason, chairman of the District of Columbia division, which is national legislative department of the organization, tabulated replies of 607 candidates from 45 states.

The organization classified 533 of those replying as "wet" and 54 "dry." The "wet" classification included 474 candidates who were listed as supporting a resolution for straight repeal and 70 "for either repeal or submission with qualifications."

"Democratic candidates are still leading republicans more than two to one for straight repeal in the poll, which already covers over 50 per cent of the candidates, and which will be continued right up to election day," Mrs. Mason said.

"The arrival of a militant wet group in the new congress after March 4 is definitely forecast. Wets have reason to be jubilant. These latest returns of the congressional poll spell defeat for the drys, and a new spell for prohibition reform advocates is on the horizon."

A summary of the poll was given as follows:

Democrats ..... 322
Republicans ..... 135
Repub.-Dem. .... 56
Minor parties ..... 10

The republican-democratic designation covers members of either party who have obtained nomination from both.

"I think it is particularly interesting that 322 democrats are standing on their national plank while 135 republicans, avowed repealists, have parted company with the republican restrictive plank," Mrs. Mason said.

The second column figures included candidates which the organization designated as: For submission; For republican platform; Evasive; For repeal; For qualified submission; For repeal or submission with qualifications.

It added, will you support a resolution for the straight repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the ratification to each state of its power to regulate the manufacture, sale and transportation of intoxicating beverages within its own limits? Such resolutions, to be submitted to conventions in the several states for ratification or rejection.

Summarized by states, major party candidates, on the basis of their organization as follows:

Alabama ..... 10
Arizona ..... 2
Arkansas ..... 1
California ..... 13
Colorado ..... 2
Connecticut ..... 1
Delaware ..... 1
Florida ..... 12
Georgia ..... 12
Idaho ..... 2
Illinois ..... 15
Indiana ..... 4
Iowa ..... 1
Kansas ..... 1
Kentucky ..... 10
Louisiana ..... 1
Maine ..... 1
Maryland ..... 1
Massachusetts ..... 11
Michigan ..... 10
Minnesota ..... 3
Mississippi ..... 1
Missouri ..... 1
Montana ..... 1
Nebraska ..... 1
Nevada ..... 1
New Hampshire ..... 1
New Jersey ..... 1
New Mexico ..... 1
New York ..... 1
North Carolina ..... 1
North Dakota ..... 1
Ohio ..... 20
Oklahoma ..... 1
Oregon ..... 1
Pennsylvania ..... 17
Rhode Island ..... 1
South Carolina ..... 1
South Dakota ..... 1
Tennessee ..... 1
Texas ..... 1
Utah ..... 1
Vermont ..... 1
Virginia ..... 1
Washington ..... 1
West Virginia ..... 1
Wisconsin ..... 1
Wyoming ..... 1

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Against Repeal.

For Repeal or Submission With Qualifications.

Roosevelt Grets Little Patients at Warm Springs

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt takes time out from the monster celebration at Warm Springs Sunday to greet the foundation's little patients. Here he is receiving the best wishes of one of his small admirers. Staff photo.

In Charge of Broadcast

WGST will act as key station for Columbia's Dixie network from 9:15 to 10 p. m. tonight, broadcasting the speech of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt. This regional address of the campaign will originate in the auditorium, Atlanta, and will be relayed to the Dixie network stations. Jack Stapp, of WGST announcing staff (right above), has been appointed network announcer, and Buck Akerman, WGST's chief engineer, will be in charge of the technical pickup. Governor Roosevelt's speech will be heard over 12 basic Dixie network stations.

Bishop Cannon Assails Roosevelt, Mouzon Asserts Legion Is Menace

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon asserted here it "is utterly impossible for me to vote for Mr. Roosevelt," but added, "I think I shall vote."

Denouncing the democratic presidential candidate before the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, the bishop said, however, if he votes for Hoover it will be with the understanding that "I utterly disagree with certain statements in his acceptance speech, and because I believe he is more sincere and more sympathetic toward the prohibition cause."

The bishop's assertions came in discussing what he termed continued opposition to temperance and social reform. The G. A. R. he said, "are a mere handful compared with the World War bonus seekers. These beggars, these robbers of the public treasury, who ask for flat money, which is worse than a dime."

Returning to his discussion of the wet-dry issue, the bishop said "We don't get anywhere concealing facts. I have an idea a majority of the young men and women today would vote for repeal. They don't know what they are voting for, because they did not live through the old saloon days. They'll know better if we have repeal."

Terminating the Association Opposed to Prohibition "the most highly financed, best organized and the most powerful" in the country, Bishop Cannon asserted that this organization "bought Raabok or he bought them."

Saying that "the future of the Methodist church is not bound up in them,"

ROOSEVELT ASSAILED AS TAMMANY 'TRADER'

Socialist Nominee Scores Governor's Record of New York Service.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for president, said tonight that Governor Roosevelt "was more obedient to Tammany than any other governor in recent years—until he discovered that the country would not take him with the Tammany label."

In an address before a socialist rally, he said that "now with the city investigation smothered by Walker's convenient resignation, Roosevelt is again doing business with Tammany."

"He is trading his endorsement of a Tammany man who will give the city another Walker administration without the annoying saxophone accompaniment, for machine support at the polls."

Thomas asserted "the amazing number of so-called 'progressive' leaders who are again misleading their followers and throwing away not only their votes but the chance of saving political action from that degradation which means fascism, compels me to examine Governor Roosevelt's record and his close associates."

He added that the democratic nominee for president "has proved himself unable or unwilling either to regulate banking or to curb Wall Street, yet he now promises to do for the nation what he did not do as governor of New York."

After reviewing Roosevelt's record, Thomas said:

"What is still worse is the political company Governor Roosevelt keeps. I do not refer to the ramshackle condition of his party; the outrageous lack of democracy it displays in the south, or its passion for plunder. I mean individuals. Here are a few:

"1. Vincent Astor, leading landlord and chief contributor to Mr. Roosevelt's campaign."

"2. William Randolph Hearst, leading promoter of the Spanish war, former owner of trouble with Mexico, advocate of the sales tax, Jewish extraordinary and the dictator of Roosevelt's foreign policy."

"3. Such diverse political bosses and unprincipled demagogues as Frank Hague, of New Jersey; John Nance Garner, of Uvalde, Texas, and Huey Long."

"Such supposedly enlightened capitalists as Owen D. Young, I say 'supposedly' because from a reliable source I have information which should be investigated concerning two companies largely controlled by Mr. Young which illustrate capitalism at its worst, and make a mockery of Mr. Roosevelt's pledge, in such company, to make Wall Street behave."

Thomas said he believed "the operation of the Radio-Keith-Orpheum and Radio Corporation of America set-up should be investigated."

Hoover Urged To Act For Tariff Revision

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Condemning the Hawley-Smoot tariff act of 1930, a total of 388 American economists, representing 98 colleges, have signed a petition urging President Hoover to use his power to revise its rates and "end the tariff war by negotiating with other nations."

The majority of the group were also signers of the petition addressed to the president by more than 1,000 economists on May 4, 1930, warning that the bill, then pending in congress, would cause retaliation and prolong the depression.

"These conclusions have been confirmed by events," the present petition states.

TEXAS CANDIDATE OFFERS TO QUIT

Bullington Will Withdraw, However, Only If Mrs. Ferguson Is Ousted

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Her opponents combined in an attempt to prevent her from serving a second term as governor of Texas. Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson pressed her fight as the democratic nominee today in the name of party regularity.

"It is the duty of every good democrat," she said, taking cognizance of an intra-party bolt, "to lay aside the discussion of personal ambitions and personal platforms and declare his or her allegiance to the party principles and the party nominees, from president to constable."

Orville Bullington, republican gubernatorial nominee who yesterday was pledged the support of Governor Ross S. Sterling, democrat, offered to quit the race if a democratic withdrawal drew Mrs. Ferguson and offered instead "an outstanding man."

"A republican, but a Texas first," Bullington said, he was "ready to make any personal sacrifice to save Texas from Fergusonism."

He announced he would support the Roosevelt-Garner national democratic ticket if Mrs. Ferguson was withdrawn.

Governor Sterling, whom Mrs. Ferguson defeated by about 3,000 votes in the off primary, said "it would make the democrats of the nation hang their heads in shame for the democratic hosts of grand old Texas."

James A. Ferguson, husband of the democratic nominee, was impeached and removed from office during his second term as governor in 1917. Mrs. Ferguson's opponents of both parties charge that he would control the governor's office if she were elected.

Lauds Roosevelt. Governor Sterling said in announcing his support of Bullington, "I rejoice in the growing prospects of the election of a democratic president and vice president of the United States."

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

TORRID REPLY TO OFFER MADE BY 'A' FERGUSON

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 23.—(AP)—James A. "Ferguson" was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of Bullington-Garner Clubs by business and professional men who they have previously voted the democratic ticket straight.

In 1924, Mrs. Ferguson was elected for her first term on a platform calling for "vindication" of her husband. George Rutte, the republican nominee, trailed by 127,000.

Ferguson asserts his wife will get 600,000 votes to 75,000 for the republican nominee November 8.

Leaders of the Ferguson group, however, have expressed concern over the organization of

Friends, Familiar Surroundings Welcome Governor Roosevelt on His Triumphant Return to Warm Springs

BRILLIANT PARADE TO HONOR NOMINEE

Immense Throng Expected To Hear Roosevelt in Speech Today.

Continued from First Page.

democrats but by democracy's chiefs, states, conferences with the political leaders of the area and a score of private meetings and exchanges of greetings.

Today being both Roosevelt Day and Greater Atlanta day, a record number of upstate and downstate visitors are expected to join with the capital city of the Empire state of the south in the south's greatest outpouring of joy for a fellowman.

Rested from his arduous day here, at Warm Springs and at the cities between, the governor is expected to arise early and be prepared for the escort which is to take him to the schools at 10 o'clock.

Then he will be escorted to Peachtree and Baker streets, where he and the members of his party, together with the other distinguished visitors, will fall in at the end of the great parade at 11:30 o'clock and move to the city hall for the official municipal welcome from Mayor James L. Key and thence to the capitol where Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. will extend the official welcome of the commonwealth.

Roosevelt to Speak. In responding to Governor Russell's welcome, will make his first public utterance of the day. It is certain that he will be brief, probably no more than an acknowledgment of the greeting. Then the nominee and his party will be escorted back to their headquarters at the Atlanta Biltmore to be honored guests at the luncheon, attended by the 500 Georgians and the out-of-state notables.

This luncheon, which will get under way at about 1 o'clock, will be given by Senator John S. Cohen, democratic national committeeman, Georgia, and chairman of the national committee.

To this affair have been invited as honor guests not only the governors, senators, congressmen and senators-elect of North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee, but also the national committeemen, national committeewomen, chairmen of the state executive committees and other party leaders in these states.

Southern Leaders Here. The following southern state officials who arrived Sunday for conferences Sunday night with Governor Roosevelt and his party are: Governor Walter F. George and Governor-elect Eugene Talmadge.

North Carolina: Governor O. Max Graham, Senators Joseph W. Bailey and Cameron Morrison, Senator-elect Robert R. Reynolds and Governor-elect John C. B. Ehringhaus.

South Carolina: Governor Ibra C. Blackwood and Senators E. D. Smith and James F. Byrnes.

Florida group: Governor Doyle E. Carlton, Senators Park Trammell and Duncan T. Fletcher and Governor-elect Dave Scholz.

Alabama: Governor Benjamin M. Miller and Senators Hugo Black and John H. Bankhead.

In addition, the notables present will include Arthur Mullen, of Lincoln, Neb., floor manager of the Roosevelt forces at the Chicago convention which nominated the New York governor; Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada, also a vice chairman of the national committee; Dr. Raymond Moley, of Columbia University, and Judge Robert Marx, ex-governor's economic adviser; Breckinridge Long, assistant secretary of state at the time of Governor Roosevelt's tenure as assistant secretary of the navy and a longtime personal friend and adviser of the nominee; the governor's son, James Roosevelt; his daughter, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dill; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Roosevelt; and other members of the party, including a corps of leading American newspapermen.

After the luncheon, the governor will retire to his Biltmore suite to rest and complete his address for tonight at the capitol.

Great Rally Tonight. The great rally at the auditorium will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will be the most gala in Atlanta's history. Every seat is expected to be filled and arrangements have been made to take care of an overflow crowd in the streets outside. Amplifiers have been placed about the hall and along the street in order that all will hear the address of the nominee.

Hugh Howell, chairman of the state democratic executive committee and chairman of the Roosevelt reception committee, will preside over the meeting. He will introduce Governor Roosevelt who, in turn, will introduce the nominee.

The general program will begin at 8:30 o'clock with Governor Roosevelt's address at 9:15 and

Straw Ballot Survey Gives Roosevelt Edge

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The democratic national committee announced today that with over 3,500,000 ballots tabulated from various straw votes reported to that headquarters, a 60-40 split in the popular vote was indicated.

The announcement added that the "split," if followed out at the polls November 8, "would give Franklin D. Roosevelt a popular majority in excess of 7,500,000 votes."

MERIWETHER COUNTY ACCLAIMS ROOSEVELT

Nominee's Georgia Neighbors Turn Out En Masse To Greet Friend.

Continued from First Page.

tirely dry-eyed, though he managed manfully to continue smiling.

It was a great day for Governor Roosevelt, a great day for Georgia and a great day for Warm Springs. As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

But at Warm Springs there was a ceremony that will never be forgotten by the residents of this little place and the patients at the foundation and doubtless will live forever in the mind of Governor Roosevelt.

As the city was near the highway, the governor and his official party swung into Meriwether county shortly before noon it was easily seen that Marietta, Atlanta and other Georgia cities which had previously had an opportunity to cheer the Governor, were not to be outdone.

At Greenville, the county seat, crowds lined the highway and, though a stop was not scheduled, it was impossible not to tarry a minute or two for the cheers of the residents of the upper county and their neighbors from Grantville, Hogansville, LaGrange and other nearby places.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic nominee for president, shown on the way to and in Warm Springs Sunday for a visit of several hours after his reception in Atlanta. Top left shows the governor eating lunch in Warm Springs. In the center the crowd greeting the resort's famous adopted son, and at right the car bearing Governor Roosevelt, Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., of Georgia, and James Roosevelt, son of the nominee. Below, at left, Governor Roosevelt.

we all love each other too much for that."

Then the governor was completely surrounded by hand-shaking well-wishers and it was with great difficulty that he made his way to the residence of A. E. Carpenter, the resident trustee, where he was guest at lunch, and later to his own cottage, presided over a meeting of the trustees of the Warm Springs Foundation.

Though an effort was made to keep the crowd at a distance from the meeting, more than a thousand hovered around the cottage and were present to bid him good-bye.

After the meeting of the trustees, the nominee eluded the great crowd and for half an hour had a swim in the new Warm Springs pool. Later, accompanied by several intimate friends, he made a brief visit to his farm about four miles south of the resort.

At the farm the nominee was greeted by about 20 employees, who, although they do not vote, assured him of their support.

Tells Roosevelt Story. The best story of the day, and one which proved the most enjoyable to the large crowd which milled about the Warm Springs hotel all afternoon, was told by Breckinridge Long, former assistant secretary of state and a close personal friend and adviser of Governor Roosevelt.

Mr. Long related a few remarks made by Governor Roosevelt to the crowd which greeted his train at Sanford, Tenn., Saturday night.

"I met a hitch-hiker the other day who crossed the continent in 10 days," Governor Roosevelt told the crowd. "I asked him the secret of his success and he said he was a sign on his back. 'If you don't pick me up I'll vote for Hoover.' Everyone picked him up."

Move to Extend Highway. A movement to extend the Franklin D. Roosevelt highway, over which the nominee and his party traveled today between Atlanta and Warm Springs, to Washington was launched here this afternoon at a meeting of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Highway Association, in presenting a resolution, thanking the heads of the Meriwether county Roosevelt reception committee, revealed the highway under way to have the highway linked with another north of Atlanta to Washington in order that the nominee, when he becomes president, may travel over a road named for him all the way from the White House to the summer White House.

Mrs. Terrell personally placed the marker along the present Franklin D. Roosevelt highway which leads from Atlanta to Columbus.

Text of Resolution. Her resolution, approved by the Meriwether county citizens present at today's gathering, follows:

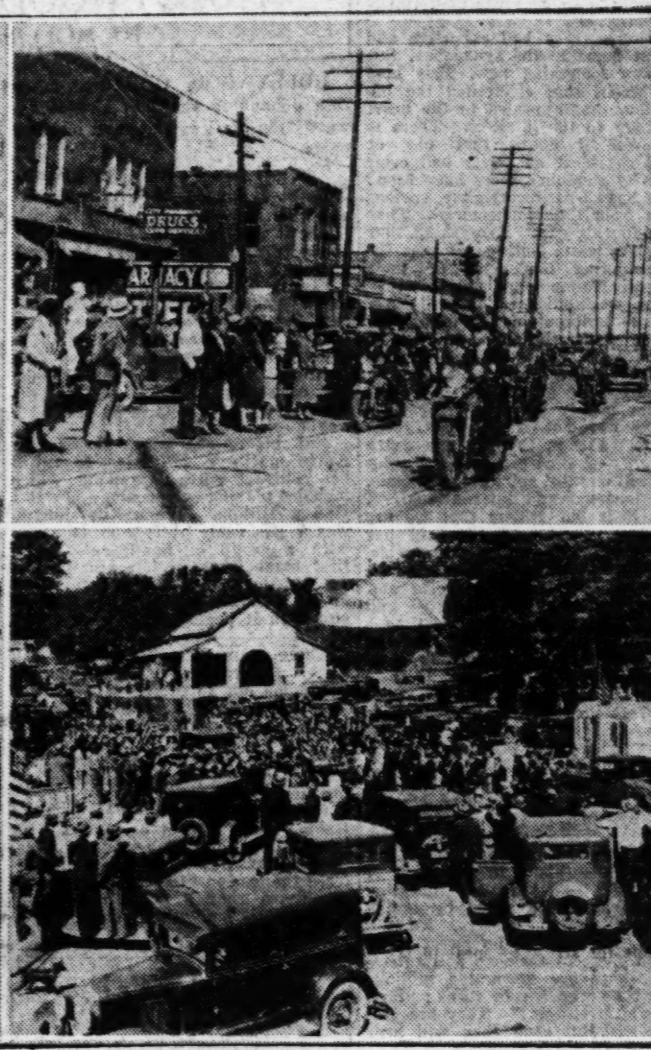

"Whereas, the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, the next president of the United States, is a visitor in our midst at his Georgia home, and

"Whereas, the pleasure of this happy occasion has been augmented by the hospitality of the people of Meriwether county,

"Be it resolved, that we extend expressions of gratitude to Dr. Gilbert H. Whaley and all others who have contributed to the joy of this occasion.

"Be it further resolved, that the people of Meriwether county commend to the nation the sterling worth of the democratic nominee."

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic nominee for president, shown on the way to and in Warm Springs Sunday for a visit of several hours after his reception in Atlanta. Top left shows the governor eating lunch in Warm Springs. In the center the crowd greeting the resort's famous adopted son, and at right the car bearing Governor Roosevelt, Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., of Georgia, and James Roosevelt, son of the nominee. Below, at left, Governor Roosevelt.

we all love each other too much for that."

Then the governor was completely surrounded by hand-shaking well-wishers and it was with great difficulty that he made his way to the residence of A. E. Carpenter, the resident trustee, where he was guest at lunch, and later to his own cottage, presided over a meeting of the trustees of the Warm Springs Foundation.

Though an effort was made to keep the crowd at a distance from the meeting, more than a thousand hovered around the cottage and were present to bid him good-bye.

After the meeting of the trustees, the nominee eluded the great crowd and for half an hour had a swim in the new Warm Springs pool. Later, accompanied by several intimate friends, he made a brief visit to his farm about four miles south of the resort.

At the farm the nominee was greeted by about 20 employees, who, although they do not vote, assured him of their support.

Tells Roosevelt Story. The best story of the day, and one which proved the most enjoyable to the large crowd which milled about the Warm Springs hotel all afternoon, was told by Breckinridge Long, former assistant secretary of state and a close personal friend and adviser of Governor Roosevelt.

Mr. Long related a few remarks made by Governor Roosevelt to the crowd which greeted his train at Sanford, Tenn., Saturday night.

"I met a hitch-hiker the other day who crossed the continent in 10 days," Governor Roosevelt told the crowd. "I asked him the secret of his success and he said he was a sign on his back. 'If you don't pick me up I'll vote for Hoover.' Everyone picked him up."

Move to Extend Highway. A movement to extend the Franklin D. Roosevelt highway, over which the nominee and his party traveled today between Atlanta and Warm Springs, to Washington was launched here this afternoon at a meeting of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Highway Association, in presenting a resolution, thanking the heads of the Meriwether county Roosevelt reception committee, revealed the highway under way to have the highway linked with another north of Atlanta to Washington in order that the nominee, when he becomes president, may travel over a road named for him all the way from the White House to the summer White House.

Mrs. Terrell personally placed the marker along the present Franklin D. Roosevelt highway which leads from Atlanta to Columbus.

Text of Resolution. Her resolution, approved by the Meriwether county citizens present at today's gathering, follows:

"Whereas, the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, the next president of the United States, is a visitor in our midst at his Georgia home, and

"Whereas, the pleasure of this happy occasion has been augmented by the hospitality of the people of Meriwether county,

"Be it resolved, that we extend expressions of gratitude to Dr. Gilbert H. Whaley and all others who have contributed to the joy of this occasion.

"Be it further resolved, that the people of Meriwether county commend to the nation the sterling worth of the democratic nominee."

Creditors' Benefactor Loses Home and Store

RYERSON STATION, Pa., Oct. 23.—(P)—Edward McCracken, the village storekeeper here who started the year 1932 by wiping from his books nearly $10,000 owed him by farmers, lost his home, his store and filling station by fire today. McCracken said he let fire insurance policies covering his property lapse last week.

ROOSEVELT TO RESIGN STATE GOVERNORSHIP

After Election to Presidency New Yorker Will Resign State Post.

Continued from First Page.

that period. One strongly persuasive factor in the situation is the fact that Governor Roosevelt could resign and still be sure of an uninterrupted carrying-on of the present policies, because the governor would then be his own close associate.

Lieutenant Governor Lehman, who has Roosevelt's strong endorsement, is the democratic candidate for governor of New York. In this connection, Roosevelt told friends at Warm Springs today he would be back soon after election.

Immediately upon his return to Albany, Roosevelt will consult with state leaders as to whether a special session of the legislature will be called immediately after election to vote relief funds. Even should it be called, it would probably last only a few days and should not interfere with Roosevelt's plans to leave Albany.

There was a touching scene at Warm Springs today when Governor Roosevelt came back to the place where he was when, four years ago, he finally consented to ignore his own physical condition and be Alfred E. Smith's running mate for governor of New York. It seemed to him then a sacrifice, and he consented only after many long-distance telephone calls from Albany, but actually, it was a turning point which started Roosevelt on the open road toward the White House.

Wheel chairs were clustered around a shady spot on the lawn near the White House, where he has helped establish and to which he has made out $500,000 of his life insurance.

Members of the party were deeply touched at the upturned faces in those wheel chairs when they sang with more feeling than harmony, their home-made songs of welcome to the most noted victim of the terrifying disease which had brought them all to the peaceful hills around Warm Springs.

Roosevelt himself seemed to grope for words under the emotion of the moment. For there, where he first came and found that after all he was not doomed to an empty life, where four years ago he made the decision between risking his recovery, then well under way, and now returned firm in the conviction that two weeks from Tuesday he will be chosen as the next president of the United States.

No one present could fail to feel the stir of achievement as he stood chatting among his fellow victims. He had defied tradition, made his fight against ignorant whisperings until he demonstrated before the eyes of the nation the truth of Alfred E. Smith's comment that a man does not have to be an acrobat to make a good public official.

He was leaning on the arm of his son, James, as he left his automobile and stood before the circle of wheelchairs, with their lighted faces watching him intently. Each of them knew that this man had really done—an achievement that others present do not comprehend.

Roosevelt's vigor in the face of a strenuous campaign drew comment at every stop. He seemed exceptionally fresh Sunday morning, after his trip south through Kentucky and Tennessee.

2 Cubans Slain. HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Two government opponents were slain today in Oriente province. Rural guards said they resisted arrest.

PANIC PLOT CHARGED IN SANTOS COFFEE MART. RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The national coffee council was charged by the newspaper Diario Popular today with causing a panic in the Santos market "by attempting to lower the price of fine types in order to enable buyers to accept quotations now in vigor."

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

Mr. Shelton has called a state-wide conference of all campaign workers to meet at league headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging a program of the league's part in the ceremonies to be held at city auditorium tonight. At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the lobby of the Henley building, Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will act as auctioneer in selling Georgia's first 1932 bale of cotton to the highest bidder, the proceeds of the sale to be turned over to the state Roosevelt campaign fund.

GIGANTIC PARADE TO START AT 11:30

Procession Will Be One of Features of "Roosevelt Day."

The parade honoring Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic presidential nominee, will move from Peachtree and Baker streets promptly at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

The parade will move down Peachtree to Five Points and then up Marietta to Henry W. Grady square. There it will pause while the governor pays a tribute to the south's most famous editor and author, and his daughter, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dill, acting for her father, places a wreath on the monument.

The procession then turns down Forsyth street and moves to Alabama. Then it moves to the city hall and the state capitol, where Mayor James L. Key and Governor Russell will pay the official respects of the city and state.

The following is the make-up of the procession and the line of march as announced by Hugh Howell, chairman of the Roosevelt reception committee and Adjutant General Charles H. Marshall of the day:

First division, forming at Baker on the west side of Peachtree, Colonel G. P. West, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Second division, along Baker street, Peachtree, Major O. H. Long, chief, Georgia Military Academy cadets, Riverdale Military Academy cadets, Marietta College cadets and the R. O. T. C. of Tech High, Boys' High, Fulton High and Russell.

Third division, forming on Baker street, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Fourth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Fifth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Sixth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Seventh division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Eighth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Ninth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Tenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Eleventh division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Twelfth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Thirteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Fourteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Fifteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Sixteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Seventeenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Eighteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Nineteenth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Twentieth division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Twenty-first division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Twenty-second division, forming on the east side of Peachtree, Peachtree, State Commander Scott Candler, 1224 Infantry, machine gun troops, cavalry, United States naval reserve.

Georgia Masons to Convoke Grand Lodge on Tuesday

Six Hundred Lodges Send Representatives to Macon for Annual Gathering of Order.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 23.—(P)—Delegates from 600 Masonic lodges in Georgia will meet here this week for the annual convocation of the grand lodge of Georgia.

The grand lodge itself will not meet until Tuesday, but the trustees of the Masonic lodge will meet at that institution tomorrow. Each lodge is entitled to one representative in the grand lodge session.

Activities of the past year will be reported and tentative plans will be laid for the next 12 months.

Zach Arnold, of Fort Gaines, is chairman of the board of the Masonic lodge, Raymond Daniel, of Atlanta, past grand master, is vice chairman. Joe A. Moore, of Milledgeville, most worshipful grand master of the grand lodge, will attend the board meeting, as will Harrison Daugherty, superintendent of the home.

The grand master will present his annual report at the opening session of the grand lodge at 10 a. m. Tuesday, at which time reports will be received from the various lodges. E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Other officers of the lodge are: Joe A. Moore, grand master; William E. Clarke, deputy grand master; Guy G. Lunsford, of Milledgeville, grand warden; F. C. Jones, of Thomasville, grand treasurer; Frank F. Baker, of Macon, grand secretary; E. S. C. Baker, of Conway, S. C., grand master of South Carolina, and O. Frank Hart, of Columbia, secretary-treasurer of the South Carolina lodge, are expected to be among the guests.

Final business will be transacted at a morning session Wednesday. Grand officers of the coming year will be elected at that time. In the regular order of succession, to which the grand lodge usually adheres, William E. Clarke, of Savannah, deputy grand master, would be elevated to the office of grand master.

Sharp Eyes of Judge Spot Prison Truant

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 23.—J. P. Anderson, police court officer, wishes the eyes of Judge Mercer Jordan, of the recorder's court, were not so keen.

Anderson was given a sentence of 90 days on the charge of being a truant from the court. He made an inquiry and found that Anderson had escaped from the range after being there less than a day.

The judge tipped the police to come and get him before he left the range of his office. He got an extra 90 days for escaping.

The Week in Gainesville

BY MRS. H. D. CASTLEBERRY. GAINESVILLE, Ga., Oct. 23.—The local Girl Scout troop recently organized through the youth activities department of the American Legion Auxiliary held its first meeting on Friday afternoon at the community house.

Mrs. Howard Ashford, former Girl Scout executive of Jacksonville, was made troop captain, with Mrs. W. H. Miller as her lieutenant. Twenty-one children responded to the invitation to join.

Mrs. G. T. Langford was elected president of the Gainesville Branch of the Alumnae Club at the fall meeting which took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James T. Chamberlain on East Washington street.

Other officers named included Mrs. Owen A. McDermid, vice president; Mrs. Hayne Palmour Jr., secretary; Mrs. Lucile Castleberry, treasurer, and Mrs. Harold D. Castleberry, press reporter.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds, national alumnae secretary, gave an interesting resume of the work done through her office, and outlined a tentative plan of activities for the near future.

Mrs. J. G. Collins, president, Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Lane, city welfare worker, described conditions in this section and told of the vast amount of work already done. Addresses were made by Henry H. Estes, local Red Cross chairman; R. W. Smith, Louis Allen and Mrs. Downey.

A citywide campaign will be launched on Tuesday and committees were appointed to conduct the drive.

A joint committee of representatives from Brenau College and the town met at the chapel of Simons Memorial building on the campus on Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for the hospitality of the approaching state convention of the League of Women Voters, which will convene at Brenau College on November 2 and 3.

Miss E. B. Mason and Miss Ella DeT. Winfield, of the faculty, presided as co-chairmen. Mrs. W. R. Gier was made chairman of hospitality and will be assisted by Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. James T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Albert S. Hays, Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sidney O. Smith and Mrs. Ed Fish.

Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Lane, city welfare worker, described conditions in this section and told of the vast amount of work already done. Addresses were made by Henry H. Estes, local Red Cross chairman; R. W. Smith, Louis Allen and Mrs. Downey.

A citywide campaign will be launched on Tuesday and committees were appointed to conduct the drive.

A joint committee of representatives from Brenau College and the town met at the chapel of Simons Memorial building on the campus on Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for the hospitality of the approaching state convention of the League of Women Voters, which will convene at Brenau College on November 2 and 3.

Miss E. B. Mason and Miss Ella DeT. Winfield, of the faculty, presided as co-chairmen. Mrs. W. R. Gier was made chairman of hospitality and will be assisted by Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. James T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Albert S. Hays, Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sidney O. Smith and Mrs. Ed Fish.

Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Lane, city welfare worker, described conditions in this section and told of the vast amount of work already done. Addresses were made by Henry H. Estes, local Red Cross chairman; R. W. Smith, Louis Allen and Mrs. Downey.

A citywide campaign will be launched on Tuesday and committees were appointed to conduct the drive.

A joint committee of representatives from Brenau College and the town met at the chapel of Simons Memorial building on the campus on Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for the hospitality of the approaching state convention of the League of Women Voters, which will convene at Brenau College on November 2 and 3.

Miss E. B. Mason and Miss Ella DeT. Winfield, of the faculty, presided as co-chairmen. Mrs. W. R. Gier was made chairman of hospitality and will be assisted by Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. James T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Albert S. Hays, Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sidney O. Smith and Mrs. Ed Fish.

Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Lane, city welfare worker, described conditions in this section and told of the vast amount of work already done. Addresses were made by Henry H. Estes, local Red Cross chairman; R. W. Smith, Louis Allen and Mrs. Downey.

A citywide campaign will be launched on Tuesday and committees were appointed to conduct the drive.

A joint committee of representatives from Brenau College and the town met at the chapel of Simons Memorial building on the campus on Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for the hospitality of the approaching state convention of the League of Women Voters, which will convene at Brenau College on November 2 and 3.

Miss E. B. Mason and Miss Ella DeT. Winfield, of the faculty, presided as co-chairmen. Mrs. W. R. Gier was made chairman of hospitality and will be assisted by Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. James T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Albert S. Hays, Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sidney O. Smith and Mrs. Ed Fish.

Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Lane, city welfare worker, described conditions in this section and told of the vast amount of work already done. Addresses were made by Henry H. Estes, local Red Cross chairman; R. W. Smith, Louis Allen and Mrs. Downey.

A citywide campaign will be launched on Tuesday and committees were appointed to conduct the drive.

A joint committee of representatives from Brenau College and the town met at the chapel of Simons Memorial building on the campus on Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for the hospitality of the approaching state convention of the League of Women Voters, which will convene at Brenau College on November 2 and 3.

Miss E. B. Mason and Miss Ella DeT. Winfield, of the faculty, presided as co-chairmen. Mrs. W. R. Gier was made chairman of hospitality and will be assisted by Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. James T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Albert S. Hays, Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sidney O. Smith and Mrs. Ed Fish.

Dr. J. W. Jacobs was made president and Mrs. J. H. Downey, secretary and treasurer of the local Community Chest, at a meeting of relief organizations held in the city hall on Thursday evening.

News of the Week From Toccoa

BY JAMES D. PRATHER.

TOCOCA, Ga., Oct. 23.—In a hearing before Justice of the Peace E. L. McConnell this week, Luther Massey was bound over to the Toccoa superior court, which convenes here next week, on a technical charge of receiving stolen goods.

Four negroes also were held in the county jail pending the regular term of court. The negroes are charged with burglarizing the Carter Grocery Company, wholesale house, late Saturday night of approximately $700 worth of merchandise.

The negroes were each placed under $500 bond. Eighty thousand cigarettes and candy comprised a portion of the loot taken. The stolen goods have not yet been recovered.

Gleaners' Report. Tabulation of the card report shows that there were 270 bales of cotton, counting round and half bales, ginned in Stephens county the crop of 1932 prior to October 1, 1932, as compared with 647 bales ginned to October 1, 1931.

Adams Here. G. C. Adams, Covington, successful candidate in the recent primary for commissioner of agriculture, was a visitor here Thursday.

Mr. Adams stated that his mission to Toccoa was to renew old friendships and to meet the people in the county.

Auxiliary Meeting. The October meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held in the hall with Mrs. J. E. D. Isbell and

Mrs. Fred Stowe in charge. Plans for the new year's work were made and discussed. The Toccoa unit hopes to hold the silver loving cup which was won at the Macon convention last summer.

Committee chairmen gave their reports and other business was transacted. Mrs. Fred Stowe was appointed delegate to the ninth district American Legion Auxiliary convention, held in Winder. Mrs. W. L. Murrow was appointed alternate.

Candler Speaks. Scott Candler, of Decatur, state commander of the American Legion, and W. A. Simon, department adjutant of the Legion, were the principal speakers at a public meeting here Thursday night.

The meeting was presided over by Thomas G. Walters, commander of the Stephens county post. Mrs. J. E. D. Isbell, president of the Stephens County Auxiliary, introduced Mr. Candler.

Mr. Candler made a welcome address. Colonel Clyde McClure, ninth district commander, introduced Mr. Candler who used "Americanism" as the subject for his address.

Paul J. Ridgeway, past commander, introduced Mr. Simon, who spoke on current Legion problems and explained the Legion's stand in regard to the B. E. F. question. After the address Mr. Candler presented Frank D. Gabele, of Clarksville, past ninth district commander, with a silver loving cup for having the largest district representation at the state convention last summer.

Ware Voters Urged To Vote Party Ticket. WAYCROSS, Ga., Oct. 23.—"Party loyalty and party honesty demand of democrats of Georgia and Ware county that they preserve in all its purity the white primary system which has been in operation since 1890," D. M. Parker, member of the state democratic executive committee, said before a joint meeting of the Waycross democratic executive committee and the Ware county democratic executive committee, and a crowded auditorium of spectators at a public rally here in the interest of democratic nominees.

In the general election on November 8 the democratic nominees in Ware county will be faced by opposition by both republican and independent candidates.

J. D. Mitchell, incumbent and democratic nominee for clerk of superior court, will be opposed by King Ponsell, independent, and D. A. Warrick, incumbent and democratic nominee for county commissioner, will be opposed by J. J. Murray, independent.

Dr. H. J. Carswell, of Waycross, republican, is a candidate for congress from the eighth district, opposing Branswell Deen, of Alma, democratic nominee. C. M. Hart, republican, is a candidate for the state legislature from Ware county. The democratic nominees are C. V. Stanton and Russell Twitty.

Mr. Parker gave the historic background of the white primary system in Georgia, urging that "there is nothing so important in our political life, as Georgia's adherence to the system which is based on the primary election law passed in 1890, for the purpose of insuring political power to white voters of the state."

Notations From Henry County. BY HENRIETTA L. TURNER. McDONOUGH, Ga., Oct. 23.—Tombs Mobley, coach; D. T. Carmichael and J. E. Hooten, were appointed a committee to investigate the cost of building an indoor basketball court for the local high school at the regular meeting of the McDonough Civic Club, on Friday evening.

This organization voted to offer a medal to the graduating student showing the greatest improvement during the year and to give medals to the winners in the cotton and corn projects of the 4-H Club boys of Henry county. The new officers, J. E. Hooten, president; S. C. McWilliams, vice president; E. M. Copeland, secretary, and John J. Fisher, were installed.

G. W. Owen, P. M. Owen and P. Rivers, highway employees, have been assigned the care of the county roads. With the removal of the local headquarters to Jackson, two stretches of state highway through Henry county, route 81, to Covington, and route 42, southward to the Butts county line, are said to be liable to suffer because of inadequate force to properly manage them.

It is understood that the supply of gasoline has been reduced and a number of other changes to effect economy undertaken.

George C. Alexander has been named chairman of the Georgia bicentennial celebration in Henry county. Mrs. E. M. Copeland is compiling a history of the county as a part of the state-wide celebration.

The Planters Warehouse & Lumber Co., is constructing an additional building this week to care for the surplus cotton. The new structure has a capacity of 500 bales and all the warehouse space has been bonded, it is announced by George C. Alexander, manager. Cotton warehouse receipts will be accepted in settlement of seed loans, according to the state-mandated issue by R. H. Taylor, local representative, and all local warehouses are said to be full of cotton.

The regular annual business meeting of the Henry County Mutual Fire Insurance Company was held on Saturday afternoon and fees for the ensuing year were fixed at $6 per thousand. Heretofore $5 per thousand has been the average rate of the assessment on policy holders. The officers elected include George C. Alexander, president; W. J. Green, vice president; H. J. Turner, treasurer; W. A. Simpson, secretary. Directors are J. H. Chaffin, G. C. Clark, B. C. Bright, Gus Owen, L. E. Turner, J. E. Jeffares, J. F. Tingle and J. B. Rowan.

4 BIRMINGHAM TRAINS TO BE DISCONTINUED. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 23.—(P)—The Louisville & Nashville railroad has been authorized by the Alabama public service commission to discontinue four passenger trains serving Birmingham.

Two of the trains, Nos. 41 and 42, operate between Birmingham and Yonah, while the other two, Nos. 101 and 102, run between Birmingham and Tusculoo. The order becomes effective November 1.

In its petition the railroad claimed that operating expenses exceeded revenue on both lines. Operation of the two trains between Birmingham and Tusculoo has resulted in an annual deficit of $15,120, the railroad stated.

Mrs. Fred Stowe in charge. Plans for the new year's work were made and discussed. The Toccoa unit hopes to hold the silver loving cup which was won at the Macon convention last summer.

Committee chairmen gave their reports and other business was transacted. Mrs. Fred Stowe was appointed delegate to the ninth district American Legion Auxiliary convention, held in Winder. Mrs. W. L. Murrow was appointed alternate.

Candler Speaks. Scott Candler, of Decatur, state commander of the American Legion, and W. A. Simon, department adjutant of the Legion, were the principal speakers at a public meeting here Thursday night.

The meeting was presided over by Thomas G. Walters, commander of the Stephens county post. Mrs. J. E. D. Isbell, president of the Stephens County Auxiliary, introduced Mr. Candler.

Mr. Candler made a welcome address. Colonel Clyde McClure, ninth district commander, introduced Mr. Candler who used "Americanism" as the subject for his address.

Paul J. Ridgeway, past commander, introduced Mr. Simon, who spoke on current Legion problems and explained the Legion's

ZIEGFELD MOTHER DIES IN CHICAGO

84-Year-Old Woman Passes Ignorant of Death of Famous Son.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(P)—Mrs. Rosalie Ziegfeld, 84, died today, ignorant of the fact that her famous producer son, Florenz Ziegfeld, Broadway showman, preceded her in death. The son died July 25 while his mother was in a coma as a result of the illness that proved fatal about 1 a. m. today. She rallied to consciousness a few times after her death, but relatives refused to tell her that "Flo" was dead, fearful that the shock might hasten her end.

An invalid for months, Mrs. Ziegfeld was the widow of Florenz Ziegfeld, founder of the Chicago Musical College. Of her five children, all are dead with the exception of Mrs. Louise Beuhl.

DR. RICARDO H. GUALRAL.
PARIS, Oct. 23.—(P)—Dr. Ricardo Herrera Gualral, Cuban minister to France, died this afternoon in his apartment in the Bassano. He was 66 years old.

Senora Herrera was at the deathbed. The minister had arrived in Paris only a month ago.

ARTHUR POSADOWSKY-WERNER.
NAUMBURG, Germany, Oct. 23.—(P)—Count Arthur Posadowsky-Werner, a prominent member of the old imperial regime, died today at the age of 87.

He had served as minister of interior and from 1897 to 1907 he was deputy chancellor, resigning as a result of a quarrel with Prince von Buelow.

SIDNEY HANDLER.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—Sidney Handler, 25, assistant counsel to Samuel Seabury in the legislative investigation of New York city, died in a hospital today after a six-month illness.

Handler had been associated since 1928 with the prosecution of corruption charges in the courts and city departments.

Last year Seabury sent him to Mexico City to serve a subpoena on Russell T. Sherwood, missive financial agent, wanted for questioning before the legislative committee. He and his companion, Philip Haberman, found Sherwood in a hotel lobby and served him with the papers, but Sherwood denied the validity of the service and disappeared again.

GEORGE WESTON.
WESTON, N. J., Oct. 23.—(UP)—George Weston, vice president and treasurer of the American Express Company, suffered a fatal heart attack while playing golf today at the Echo Lake Country Club. He was 56 years old.

Weston, who was connected with the American Express Company for 40 years, was with a friend, Robert L. Rooke, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, when the fatal attack took place while playing golf today at the Echo Lake Country Club. He was 56 years old.

Weston was a native of Ohio. He joined the American Express Company at the age of 16 and had been with it since, serving in executive capacities in San Francisco and in South America before he was appointed to his present position with offices in New York.

RICHARD CLAIBORNE.
PARIS, Oct. 23.—(P)—Richard Claiborne, of Texas, who served a quarter of a century in the United States army and the marines, died in the American hospital today after a long illness. He was 63 years old.

Claiborne saw military service in the Philippines and in France. He was the first printer engaged by the Stars and Stripes, the famous A. E. F. newspaper.

S. E. J. COX RETURNED TO U. S. FROM MEXICO

LAREDO, Texas, Oct. 23.—(P)—S. E. J. Cox, oil promoter and ex-conservator, free under $25,000 bond pending appeal of a sentence to ten years' imprisonment for mail fraud, landed in the arms of a deputy United States marshal upon his deportation by Mexican authorities late today.

"Where's the guy who is going to arrest me?" Cox asked on reaching the American side of the Rio Grande.

Deputy Marshal Henry Keene introduced himself. He said the promoter would be held in jail pending "further instructions." Postal inspectors were silent on the reason for the arrest.

Cox, under sentence to the Leavenworth (Kan.) federal prison in connection with operations of the Universal Oil & Gas Company at Oklahoma City, asserted he was deported at the request of the American government and not because he was doing business in Mexico while holding only a tourist passport, as reported from Mexico City.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Don't Neglect Kidney and Bladder Irregularities

If bothered with bladder irregularities, getting up at night and nagging backache, heed promptly these symptoms. They may warn of some disordered kidney or bladder condition. For 50 years grateful users have relied upon Doan's Pills. Praised the country over. Sold by all druggists.

Doan's Pills

A Diuretic for the Kidneys

Wine Congress Hopes For Big U. S. Wet Vote

ROME, Oct. 23.—(P)—Wine-makers of 26 nations met today to begin a week's international congress which they hope will revive their business. Italian Minister of Agriculture Baron Acerbo, presided. The United States was in the thoughts of many delegates. One of the subjects for discussion was "a project for dividing consumers' markets by reciprocal agreements among producing countries and for conquering new markets where wine has been hitherto unknown or obtainable with difficulty."

An "exaltation" of wine will be held Tuesday night, with recitals and declamations in honor of the grape.

At the end of this week, delegates will visit Italian wine centers at Marino, Frascati, Florence, Turin and Venice.

This is the first international wine-makers congress held since the Barcelona meeting in 1920.

WEDELL SMASHES DOOLITTLE'S MARK

Makes Flight From Ot- tawa to Mexico City in 11 Hours, 54 Minutes.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 23.—(P)—Jimmy Wedell, New Orleans speed pilot, set a new record today, flying from Ottawa to Mexico City in 11 hours, 54 minutes.

He calculated his elapsed time as 11 hours, 54 minutes. Doolittle made the flight just a year ago in 12 hours, 36 minutes.

The Louisiana flyer was dog-tired but considerably set up by his accomplishment.

At 4:49 p. m. (central standard time) when he landed, (According to Ottawa dispatches, this made his elapsed time 11 hours, 50 minutes, five minutes more than the flyer's own reckoning. Ottawa dispatches said he left there at 4:50 a. m., central standard time.)

On the way down Wedell stopped at Washington and at Patterson, La., his home town. He said his average flight speed was about 250 miles an hour.

Between Ottawa and Washington the flyer encountered headwinds all the way, as well as fog.

When he left Patterson, he struck out across the Gulf of Mexico, hitting Mexico near Tampico. Then he came direct to the capital. He circled the landing field once at high speed and made a perfect landing.

Wedell announced he would return to the United States in two or three days. He said he was planning to attempt to establish any more speed records on his return.

PRODIGAL SCHOOL HEAD IS FORGIVEN BY WIFE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(P)—Redondo Beach's prodigal school superintendent, 36-year-old Elliott R. Thomas, disappeared from public ken today. This time he was accompanied into seclusion by his forgiving wife, Olive.

They said they needed a rest. Returning to their home yesterday from a flight to Washington—a fugitive trip based on a complicated attempt to make it appear he had been discharged from the school and the confessed purpose of changing his identity and marrying Miss Sylvia Wilson of Seattle—Thomas appeared in the Los Angeles office, where he was freed by his attorney, George Penney, would let him.

Charles Pierpont, clerk of the Redondo Beach school board, revealed the board had secretly adopted a resolution just before Thomas' return, holding up his salary as superintendent and "investigation" of his disappearance.

Pierpont said he was informed Thomas would submit his resignation to the board tomorrow.

In the sheriff's office, where it was stated no charge would be pressed against Thomas, his endeavor to drop the accustomed routine of life for a fresh start as a new person was set down as the fortunate failure of a too intricate scheme.

"I say it is fortunate," commented Captain Norris Stensland, "because had Thomas simply gone away without leaving behind him such a mass of glaring clues, he might have concealed his long absence and then to have married Miss Wilson, he had taken out the marriage license at Kelso."

The captain quoted Thomas as saying he met Miss Wilson last July at Portland, Ore., that he created the fictitious character of "E. T. Sherwood" by registering a motor car under that name in Los Angeles, that he faked a burglary to remove his clothing from his home, that he threw his office into confusion last Monday to give an impression he had been attacked there by burglars, and that he then drove the "Sherwood" car to Seattle.

Thomas expressed surprise, Stensland said, that the authorities had so quickly identified him as the false Sherwood.

In the sheriff's office, Mrs. Thomas parted her husband's arm when he dropped under the questioning and said he wanted to "make amends."

"It's all right, old boy," she assured him. "We'll carry on again."

BRITAIN'S TARIFF PLAN
RECOMMENDED TO U. S.

HAVANA, Oct. 23.—(P)—Senator Vinito Gutierrez, president of the National Sugar Institute, today urged the United States to adopt a tariff policy similar to Great Britain's, which he said would be beneficial to the sugar industry.

He defined his suggested tariff policy as moderate protection for colonies and national producers; additional protection for national producers in the form of a subsidy.

In a lengthy statement, the senator asserted that the United States tariff on Cuban sugar was excessive and that colonial producers had been favored too greatly.

YEAR'S FARM IMPORTS DROP TO LOW LEVEL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Agricultural imports for the fiscal year 1932 were $385,400,000, the lowest point since 1910, the agriculture department announced today.

The value of farm imports, the department said, has registered a continuous decline since 1925, the total for the past fiscal year being 28 per cent below the unusually small figure of 1930-31.

Of the total imports during 1931-32, 48 per cent were agricultural, exclusive of forest products, it was announced. The figure compares with a five-year average from 1916 to 1931 of 52 per cent.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER TAKES Toll of 19 as Bus Falls From Natchez Ferry.

The plunge of a bus into the Mississippi river at Natchez with the loss of 19 lives sent the accident death toll soaring in the south this week-end to a total of 28.

This compared with the unusual number last week-end, when 29 persons were killed, 17 on highways made treacherous by incessant rains. In addition to the tragic dive at Natchez, automobiles figured in seven of the nine other deaths by accident this Saturday and Sunday.

With Mississippi's total completed in the river drownings, South Carolina reported three deaths, Georgia and North Carolina, two each, and Louisiana and Alabama, one each.

The deaths list follows by state: Mississippi—Joseph Bowman, 27, of Mosselle, Miss., and 18 negroes of Waterproof, La., who drowned as a bus fell from a ferry.

South Carolina—J. O. Schmitt, 24, of New York, killed by an automobile at Anderson, S. C.; W. A. Deau, of Greenville, killed by an automobile in a collision with a train at Columbia, and Louis Lowry, 17, of Columbia, as he fell under the wheels as he was boarding a freight train.

Georgia—Berry Floyd, prominent farmer of Bryan county, died in Savannah Sunday from injuries sustained Saturday when struck by an automobile; John Kennedy, 15, succumbed Sunday to injuries received in a dive into a shallow pool at Dub City, Ga., three months ago.

North Carolina—Mrs. Fred Lake, 38, Statesville, and Grayson Elmore, 28, Granite Falls, were injured fatally in an automobile accident at Statesville.

Alabama—Elmer Lawrence, 26, killed when struck by an automobile while he was walking along a highway near Selma.

Louisiana—Ervin Waldon, 30, Sabine parish farmer, was killed in the crash of a truck near Mansfield.

19 PASSENGERS DROWNED
AS BUS PLUNGES OFF FERRY

NATCHEZ, Miss., Oct. 23.—(P)—Joseph Bowman, 27, of Mosselle, Miss., and 18 negroes of Waterproof, La., were drowned here Saturday night when a school bus driven by Alma Elizey, white, of Waterproof, crashed through the guard rails of the dock of the Loya ferry.

Company and went into the Mississippi river. Elizey, Duke Cooley, 18, of Waterproof, and a 14-year-old white and negro girl were the only passengers rescued from the bus. The others were trapped in the submerged machine.

Cooley was saved by James Bernard, negro youth employed on the dock; Elizey by Junior Scott, another dock employee, and a white girl by George Lee Trindle, a white youth.

The bus had been chartered by the dock of the Loya ferry company and was on its return trip when the tragedy occurred.

Elizey said he could not see far ahead, but that as he approached the landing he heard someone say, "Come aboard."

He said he took this to mean that the ferry had docked and was ready for the truck to move aboard. He started the bus down the dock.

He said that as he reached the gate of the ferry landing he discovered that it was not open, but when he tried to stop the automobile he could not do it.

The ferryboat, the George Prince, operated by the Royal Route Company, had left the Mississippi river and was approaching the Natchez bank when the bus crashed through the gate of the landing.

NATION'S LEADERSHIP DEMANDED BY HITLER

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—(P)—Adolf Hitler, in one of several campaign addresses today by party leaders, asserted he would take nothing less than full leadership of the German government after the reichstag elections on November 6.

The national socialist leaders, speaking at Zwickau, declared they had refused to co-operate with Chancellor von Papen on August 13 because he knew "von Papen's doom was sealed."

Prior to the dissolution of September of the last reichstag, Hitler had demanded the chancellorship for himself and refused to take any lesser post.

Dr. Alfred Hugenberg spoke optimistically of the chances of the nationalist party, which he leads, of winning a majority in the Reichstag election. He spoke at Bielefeld.

Adam Stegerwald, member of the Brünnig committee which preceded that of von Papen, predicted the defeat in an address at Hindenburg, Silesia.

(He previously predicted the election would not materially change the political situation and that no party would have a clear majority.)

Stegerwald declared von Papen had planned his hopes on a swing which was unlikely to materialize.

NOTED GEM THIEF CAPTURED, QUIZZED IN LINDBERGH CASE

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 23.—(P)—Arthur Barry, the debonair dealer in jewelry thieves, captured late last night in the secluded Sussex county hideout where he had spent most of his time since his sensational escape from Auburn prison, New York, three years ago, freely answered reporters' questions at police headquarters tonight, but had an amused smile when asked if he had any connection with the Lindbergh case.

"It's about time they got around to pinning that on me," he remarked to Chief McCall, when he was subjected to the routine questioning which police now subject every criminal in the Lindbergh kidnapping.

"Everything that has been big and worthwhile in the last 10 years has been pinned on me," Barry said. "It's about time I got credit for the Lindbergh case."

Police, in making public the results of questioning of Barry, said that the state police planned to question him further in connection with the famous kidnapping. The questioning, he explained, was merely part of the practice that every criminal is a suspect until eliminated.

Atlanta Permanent Players Open at Erlanger Tonight

Miss Doris Packer and Frederic Tozere, leading lady and leading man of the Atlanta Permanent Players, stock organization which opens the Erlanger theater tonight with an elaborate production of "Death Takes a Holiday." Staff photo by Bill Mason.

End of Atlanta's theatrical drought is scheduled for 8:30 tonight, when the curtain at the Erlanger theater rises on the first performance by the new stock organization, the Atlanta Permanent Players. The play is "Death Takes a Holiday," one of the biggest successes of recent New York seasons.

Director Rowland G. Edwards has announced that the play will be given in the performance of Frederic Tozere, leading man, in the dual role of "Death" and "Prince Siriki." Few have had such a performance.

Manager Lewis Hase, of the Erlanger, stated last night that there are still a number of good seats for the play. He said the play is a polished production and that the central character in the play is a polished character in the play.

Director Edwards has announced that there will be no preliminary formalities prior to the first curtain.

Reviewing the Shows

Warner Baxter Star
In 'Six Hours to Live'

What a man does, and how he feels, knowing he has only six hours more to live, is the unusual theme of "Six Hours to Live," the picture at the Georgia theater this week.

Warner Baxter, in the title role, is murdered and brought back to life by a German scientist who is warned that his resurrection can last but six hours. The film is an adaptation from the German play, "Auf Wiedersehen," and a splendid one.

The hero of the picture is a politician who is winning success, but is also a murderer. Incidentally, he falls in love with a woman whom his best friend also loves. Although he vacillates between his love and his loyalty he succumbs to the charms of the lady.

Then he is assassinated, not, as one would expect, by his friend, but by a political foe. He is given up for dead. A German scientist declares that he can bring the man back to life. He cites his successful experiments on animals as proof, and finally is allowed to make a supreme test of the dead statesman.

The latter comes to, but is assured that his recovery is only temporary. He goes to his friend, but him and situation, and assures him that death will take him out. The friend may then marry the girl.

Then the picture is unusual and tragic, European in its atmosphere and treatment.

A comedy and a Pathe news feature complete an extremely entertaining offering.

Reviewer Praises
'Thirteen Women'

With its new manager, Enrico Leone, the picture at the Paramount theater and with a thrilling screen production of one of the biggest sensations among novels of recent years, "Thirteen Women," is a picture that is a gem.

It is a picture that is a gem. It is a picture that is a gem. It is a picture that is a gem.

The screen feature is Tiffany Thayer's "Thirteen Women," done into a picture as good as to surprise those who had read the book. Not that the novel is not great itself, but it is of the type that apparently would be difficult to make into a picture. Inasmuch as practically everybody has read the book, there was general curiosity to see it upon the screen.

The sensational story of murder by mental suggestion develops into a real thriller as a picture. It holds the audience in keen suspense and portrays, most delightfully, the shuddery mystery of the story as well as its many passages of warm human charm.

The cast is remarkable for the way in which every member suits the character assigned. It seems impossible to conceive of any other actress than Myrna Loy interpreting the weird, exotic Ursula Grogan. Irene Dunne as Laura is the ideal calm, level-headed matron, while Ricardo Cortez

McEaddy Surprised His Leaving Is News

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(P)—Landing in this ancient walled city from the liner Cameroun with four children, including his 8-month-old son, James McEaddy, retired Brooklyn (N. Y.) street car conductor, was astonished to learn his leaving-taking had caused some excitement in New York.

He asserted his wife there was fully aware of his plans, that his departure was not the least bit mysterious and that he even had bought her a ticket but she refused to come along "because she didn't like Ireland."

McEaddy plans to run a farm which he said he and his wife purchased two years ago in County Mayo.

"Street car conducting got on my nerves," McEaddy declared. "He said he wanted his wife to join him here."

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ingram, each about 70 years old, and the unidentified man were found by neighbors attracted to the home by a fire. The bodies of Ingram and his wife, known as recidivists and said to have been drawn approximately $8,000 from a bank, were side by side in the bedroom. Beside them was a pistol from which one shot had been fired.

In another room, in front of an open door leading into the bedroom, the body of the other man, and a pistol also was found beside him and authorities said two shots had been fired from it. All three of the victims had been shot in the head.

Herbert Hold, a newspaper carrier, discovered the fire shortly before daylight. A neighbor woman and Hold reached the four-story frame home about the same time, but were unable to enter because of the flames. They summoned aid, and after the fire died down, the bodies were taken from the building.

Sheriff W. D. Wootton and his deputies immediately began an investigation and sought occupants of a large automobile said by neighbors to have been parked in front of the Ingram home about 1 a. m.

All three bodies were brought here. The body of the unidentified man was so badly burned that officers said it probably would be buried without identification.

MOTHER ASKS DEATH
AFTER TRIPLE KILLING

MATTOON, Ill., Oct. 23.—(UP)—Mrs. Inez Carroll, who chose death for herself and her three children because she was destitute, woke up in a hospital today to face a charge of murder.

She drugged the children, drowned them in a bath tub and put their bodies in a cold storage locker, then she drugged and collapsed as she staggered toward the tub to drown herself.

She begged physicians to let her die. A deputy was placed at her hospital bed to prevent her committing suicide, while Coroner Steven Schilling, who declared her case.

Mrs. Carroll, a pretty, 29-year-old widow, recently lost her position as secretary to a Chicago broker. She said she was desperate and that Friday night specifically to kill them.

A coroner's jury will weigh the circumstances that drove her to desperation. Dr. Schilling said. He indicated she might possibly escape a murder trial, even though she confessed her crime.

When her husband died four years ago, she obtained a position as secretary to R. E. Wiley, investment broker. She invested all her savings and $5,000 insurance money in stocks of Samuel Insull, fugitive utilities magnate.

After the stock market crash, she found herself without a job, with her children dependent upon her, and with her safe deposit box filled with worthless stocks.

"I just too much for me," she sobbed. "I killed my babies because I couldn't stand to see them hungry. I want to kill myself so I can be with them."

PARAGUAYANS CAPTURE
BOLIVIAN FORTRESS

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The war department announced tonight that Fort Arce, in the Gran Chaco, had been captured by the Paraguayan army.

The Bolivian troops fled toward Liguata after Paraguayans shattered all their positions, the announcement said.

Fort Arce was one of the best strongholds Bolivia held in the disputed territory. It was the site of the sector. Its capture was considered the greatest loss Bolivia has suffered in the Gran Chaco warfare.

GEWINNER RELEASED AND HEARING ORDERED

Holt J. Gwiner, of 2211 Sutton street, former adjutant general of the Black Shirts, was released from the DeKalb county jail Sunday afternoon after a hearing by Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., after he had been arrested Saturday by Decatur Police Chief A. W. Lilly on a warrant from Chas. E. Lewis, charging Gwiner with passing an alleged worthless check. Governor Russell ruled that he would hold an extradition hearing.

Gwiner denied the check charge and said he would fight extradition. He claimed the check involved was for $50 and was drawn last March.

Richard B. Russell, Jr., president of the Black Shirts, he said Norton telegraphed him at Chattanooga to draw the draft and then failed to honor it.

made with a story that is entrancing in its study of the development of youthful character. It proves so enthralling to its audience that audible cheers, as that wonderful climax is reached, are the rule in the theater rather than the exception. It is rare for anyone to see it without it forcing some demonstration of emotion, tears or cheers or applause, before they leave the theater.

The picture was made by Columbia Pictures Corporation and is shown as part of the special "Prosperity Month" program they are presenting now at the Rialto.

While at the Rialto this month have been above the average in entertainment this one alone is sufficient to justify the special attention for the month for which the picture is being shown.

Mac Marsh gives another of those delightful "mother" portrayals for which she is fast gaining a new fame. The story deals with both sides of the college football question. It shows the glories of football, hero worship and it shows its tragedies. It asks the pertinent question of why a college should profit sufficiently on the popularity of one star player to build a million-dollar stadium from gate receipts, while the boy in question gets nothing and even sees his chances for education lost in favor of adulation from a hero worshiping nation.

More of the excellent short subjects for which the Rialto theater is notable complete the program, which will be shown through Friday.

—GEORGE HATCHER.

McEaddy Surprised His Leaving Is News

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(P)—Landing in this ancient walled city from the liner Cameroun with four children, including his 8-month-old son, James McEaddy, retired Brooklyn (N. Y.) street car conductor, was astonished to learn his leaving-taking had caused some excitement in New York.

He asserted his wife there was fully aware of his plans, that his departure was not the least bit mysterious and that he even had bought her a ticket but she refused to come along "because she didn't like Ireland."

McEaddy plans to run a farm which he said he and his wife purchased two years ago in County Mayo.

"Street car conducting got on my nerves," McEaddy declared. "He said he wanted his wife to join him here."

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ingram, each about 70 years old, and the unidentified man were found by neighbors attracted to the home by a fire. The bodies of Ingram and his wife, known as recidivists and said to have been drawn approximately $8,000 from a bank, were side by side in the bedroom. Beside them was a pistol from which one shot had been fired.

In another room, in front of an open door leading into the bedroom, the body of the other man, and a pistol also was found beside him and authorities said two shots had been fired from it. All three of the victims had been shot in the head.

Herbert Hold, a newspaper carrier, discovered the fire shortly before daylight. A neighbor woman and Hold reached the four-story frame home about the same time, but were unable to enter because of the flames. They summoned aid, and after the fire died down, the bodies were taken from the building.

Sheriff W. D. Wootton and his deputies immediately began an investigation and sought occupants of a large automobile said by neighbors to have been parked in front of the Ingram home about 1 a. m.

All three bodies were brought here. The body of the unidentified man was so badly burned that officers said it probably would be buried without identification.

MOTHER ASKS DEATH
AFTER TRIPLE KILLING

MATTOON, Ill., Oct. 23.—(UP)—Mrs. Inez Carroll, who chose death for herself and her three children because she was destitute, woke up in a hospital today to face a charge of murder.

She drugged the children, drowned them in a bath tub and put their bodies in a cold storage locker, then she drugged and collapsed as she staggered toward the tub to drown herself.

She begged physicians to let her die. A deputy was placed at her hospital bed to prevent her committing suicide, while Coroner Steven Schilling, who declared her case.

Mrs. Carroll, a pretty, 29-year-old widow, recently lost her position as secretary to a Chicago broker. She said she was desperate and that Friday night specifically to kill them.

A coroner's jury will weigh the circumstances that drove her to desperation. Dr. Schilling said. He indicated she might possibly escape a murder trial, even though she confessed her crime.

When her husband died four years ago, she obtained a position as secretary to R. E. Wiley, investment broker. She invested all her savings and $5,000 insurance money in stocks of Samuel Insull, fugitive utilities magnate.

After the stock market crash, she found herself without a job, with her children dependent upon her, and with her safe deposit box filled with worthless stocks.

"I just too much for me," she sobbed. "I killed my babies because I couldn't stand to see them hungry. I want to kill myself so I can be with them."

PARAGUAYANS CAPTURE
BOLIVIAN FORTRESS

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The war department announced tonight that Fort Arce, in the Gran Chaco, had been captured by the Paraguayan army.

The Bolivian troops fled toward Liguata after Paraguayans shattered all their positions, the announcement said.

Fort Arce was one of the best strongholds Bolivia held in the disputed territory. It was the site of the sector. Its capture was considered the greatest loss Bolivia has suffered in the Gran Chaco warfare.

BISHOP FORCES DOOR OF CHURCH

Manning Breaks Into Building To Protest Ban
Against Negroes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Bishop William T. Manning helped force an entrance into All Souls' Protestant Episcopal church, which had been closed to its rector, and delivered a sermon today declaring it the "plain duty" of the church "to minister to the people of the community, white and colored alike."

Despite the statement of some of the vestrymen that anyone who attempted to enter the church today might be arrested for trespass, Bishop Manning appeared at the appointed time, ordered a locksmith to pry off locks and force open doors, and assisted the Rev. Rollin Dodd, rector, in holding services amid scaffolding, shavings and plasterers' canvas.

The church had been closed by the vestrymen and the rector deprived of his keys. Mr. Dodd said the action was taken because he refused to hold separate services for negroes and whites. The majority of the vestrymen said it was because of the necessity of repairs.

Bishop Manning declared in his sermon that the action of the vestrymen was "apparently with the purpose of preventing the rector from continuing this policy of admitting colored people to the services."

"This action," he said, "is not only uncanonical and illegal, it is contrary to the central principles of our religion."

The sermon was delivered under strange circumstances. A police sergeant and ten patrolmen stood outside. Bishop Manning, the rector and a locksmith had made a route of the church, unlocking or forcing open doors.

The rector and the bishop, because of the litter, were forced to stand in the aisle, about a third of the way from the front. The organ was screened with a plasterer's canvas, so the choir sang without accompaniment.

The congregation was part white, part negro, with a scattering of children.

Rector's Right, Purpose Upheld.
"I am here not to assert my rights as bishop, though these exist," said Bishop Manning, "but to give my full support to your rector in his right and Christian purpose to make this church a center of spiritual ministrations to all the people of this neighborhood who wish to attend its services without distinction of race or color."

"Until a few years ago this community and the congregation of this church were made up of white and colored people. In recent years, however, the community has changed more and more to a community of colored people until at the present time the great majority are of the colored race and many of them are members of our own church who wish to attend the services here at All Souls."

"The rector of the parish holds that it is his duty, and the duty of the parish to minister to the people who now live in this neighborhood and to admit them all to the services and ministrations of the church. In this the rector is supported by four members of the vestry and opposed by seven."

"My judgment of the diocese is that it is the plain duty of all white and colored alike, and that the rector has taken the only position that he could take as a faithful minister to the church of God."

Although no attempt was made to interfere with Bishop Manning and the rector today, vestryman Manuel Jesus Rouse said he would consult a lawyer tomorrow to see what steps could be taken to stop services in the future.

WET FEET DRAFTS
RAW WINDS
OVERHEATED ROOMS

won't make you as miserable this winter if your resistance is high!

It isn't that common winter illness often results from a cold, but they're unpleasant while they last. Think of what they cost you in comfort and time. How they cut down on your efficiency!

This winter, why not take precautions to escape these usual ills? Begin now to build up your resistance!

There's a new resistance-builder that's pleasant and easy to take. Squibb Adex Tablets—10 D!

Each tablet contains as much of the factor which promotes good general resistance, Vitamin A, as one-half teaspoonful of Squibb Cod-Liver Oil.

Adex also supply the sunshine vitamin which is so valuable for its toning effect—Vitamin D. There's ten times more Vitamin D in Adex than in standard cod-liver oil.

Their richness in both these factors—Vitamin A and D—is what makes Adex tablets such a fine winter protective.

They are small, chocolate coated, easy to swallow. Start now. Be sure to take them every day! At any reliable drug store.

SPLITTING HEADACHES
Until you learned why she was always miserable—and found out about Tablets (Nature's Remedy). Now she gets along fine with everybody. This safe, dependable, all-vegetable laxative brought quick relief and quiet nerves because it cleared her system of poisonous wastes—made bowel action easy and regular. Thousands take NR daily. It's such a sure, pleasant corrective. Mild, non-habit-forming. No bad after-effects. At your druggist's—25c.

TUMS Quick relief for acid indigestion, heartburn. Only 10c.

Dixie Back in Line to Stay, Assert Democratic Leaders

Above is shown Senator Hubert D. Stephens, of Mississippi, at the left, as he arrived at the Atlanta Biltmore Sunday night to confer with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt. Senator Stephens is shown with Congressman Robert Ramspeck, of fifth (Atlanta) district. Staff photo by Kenneth Rogers.

Hoover cracked the solid south four years ago but this year he hasn't a chance of carrying a single southern state and the border states are hopelessly lost to the republican cause as well. The south is finished with Hoover.

Positive assurance of this pretty generally known fact was brought to Atlanta Sunday by distinguished southern democrats here to confer today with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

From all over Dixie the party chieftains are bringing the nominee the best of reports. The south is back in line, and these leaders say back in line to stay. Four years of Hoover have taught the states that strayed a lesson they will remember for a long, long time.

Among the early arrivals were Senator James F. Byrnes, of South Carolina; Senator Hubert D. Stephens, of Mississippi; and Senator Kenneth McKellar, of Tennessee. Their stories were all the same. It's going to be a grand sweep for Roosevelt.

"South Carolina always has been democratic by about 20 to 1," Senator Byrnes said. "This year it's going to be a hundred to one. Those few who feel they ought to vote for Hoover will even bother to vote."

Senator Stephens was just as equally enthusiastic. "It's a shame during these times for our state to have to go to the expense of holding an election," he said. "Hoover hasn't a look-in and his negro republican committee knows it. The republican job-holders are preparing for their exit next March. It has been all over so long ago that even the shouting has died down. It will be a grand day for America when the electorate turns out Mr. Hoover."

It is natural now for them to be placed in the democratic column. We are sorry we lost the state in '28 but it certainly taught the people of Tennessee a lesson that will stand in their good stead in many years to come."

Senator McKellar said he talked Saturday with Senator Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky, and revealed that the Kentuckian is of the opinion that his state will do democratic without even a fight.

The North Carolina delegation composed of Governor O. Max Gardner, Senators W. Cameron Morrison and Josiah W. Bailey, Senator-elect Robert R. Reynolds and Governor-elect John B. Ehringhaus, will arrive this morning.

A group of leading Floridians composed of Governor Doyle E. Carlton, Senators Park Trammell and Duncan U. Fletcher and Governor-elect Dave Scholz are to arrive this morning while Senator Byrnes will be joined by his South Carolina colleagues, Governor Ibra C. Blackwood and Senator Ellison D. Smith. A delegation of Alabamians composed of Governor Benjamin Meeks Miller and Senators John H. Bankhead and Hugo Black also are expected.

The North and South Carolina groups will accompany Governor Roosevelt on his journey to Raleigh.

President for 10 years and as state president for 13.

The third woman senatorial candidate is Miss Clara Harrigal, republican, out for the democratic seat of Senator Ellison D. Smith in South Carolina. Miss Harrigal is the new republican national committeewoman from her state, the first woman to run for congress from South Carolina and the first republican senatorial candidate there in nearly 50 years.

Among the 28 women candidates for the house are Edith McClure Patterson, republican, and Florence E. Allen, democrat. Mrs. Patterson is a widely traveled educator and lecturer and is now a member of the Dayton school board. Judge Allen is just winding up her second six-year term on the Ohio supreme court bench.

Both Ohio women are running against incumbents. Mrs. Patterson against Honorable B. H. Harrison, republican, democrat, third, and Judge Allen against Representative Chester C. Bolton, twenty-second district.

WASHINGTON CAUSE REACHES WHEELING ON HISTORIC TRIP
WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Cited in colonial dress of revolutionary days, a band of 10 "pioneers" beached their flatboat and birchbark canoe on the Wheeling shore of the Ohio river today.

They are portraying George Washington's voyage down the river in 1770, from East Liverpool, Ohio, to Point Pleasant, W. Va.—a 10-day journey.

"Washington," with Roy W. Lewis, of St. Clairsville, Ohio, a descendant of the first president, playing the role, and his seven venturesome companions and two Indian guides were greeted by a large crowd. The guides were loaned to General Washington by a friendly Mingo chieftain.

Here, the settlement told Washington that "the people of western Virginia have heard of your progress, although news does not arrive here quickly."

The pageant was arranged by a joint state committee of Ohio and West Virginia as part of the bicentennial celebration. The party in the role of re-enactors travels and halts true to the schedule followed by General Washington.

The adventurers will leave tomorrow for Powhatan Point, Ohio, where Washington pitched camp on his third day out of what is now East Liverpool.

Very unpioneer-like, the voyagers slept tonight in a hotel.

3 ADRIFT IN NORTH SEA RESCUED BY STEAMER
ANTWERP, Belgium, Oct. 23.—(AP) After being "tossed helplessly for two and a half days in a small sailing boat during a storm on the North sea, three British naval officers finally were rescued by the steamer Romanby, which brought them here today.

The trio, Lieutenants Colin McMullen, C. E. Keys and G. F. Blaxland, left Havre, France, Wednesday in the "Little Owl," accompanied by a yacht, the "Wallop."

A violent storm separated the boats, the "Wallop" being rescued while the "Little Owl" lost its mast and sails, as well as the officers' instruments, in the tempest. The sturdy shell, however, rode out the gale.

POINCARÉ URGES BRIGHT OUTLOOK

French War Premier Reiterates Confidence in Nation's Policies.

BY RALPH HEINZE.
(Copyright, 1932, by the United Press.)
PARIS, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Warning the world against pessimism in the face of the present crisis, Raymond Poincaré, grand old man of French politics, reiterated his belief in the present French government's policies in an exclusive interview with the United Press today.

The 72-year-old wartime premier has just returned from his retreat at Sampigny, in Lorraine, where last Sunday he was re-elected to the senate.

Sitting at his desk in his Paris residence on the Rue Marbeau, Poincaré declared that he is mindful of the seriousness of the present international situation, and that the constant attention of all true peace devotees should be exerted.

Rather than take his seat in the senate, he said he intends to start for the Riviera in mid-November, where he will spend the entire winter, returning to Sampigny in the spring.

Once the greatest figure on Europe's political horizon, obliged as wartime president to master such bitter animosities as those which separated Clemenceau, Foch and Joffre, Poincaré has lost little of his dash and vigor.

Led French Affairs.
He harked back today to that period when, as peacetime premier, he was charged with the operations of the Versailles treaty. He recalled, likewise, the days in 1926 when, again as premier, the franc reached its lowest value in history and he engineered the battle which culminated in France's bonding of one-third of the world's gold.

Now he is as keenly interested in France's affairs as ever, and his declaration of a visit to the senate is expected to revolutionize Japan's naval fuel supply, was announced today by the South Manchurian railway.

After five years of experimentation, a cheap process of low temperature carbonization, by which one ton of heavy oil can be extracted from two tons of coal, has been perfected. The product is good fuel oil, the railway announced, and it is possible to "crack" it into gasoline.

The navy, which has been seeking new fuel sources independent of American, British and Dutch supplies, assisted in the experiments.

The chief source of the new fuel is expected to be the great Fushun open-pit coal mine in Manchuria, where coal at the pit-head costs less than 50 American cents a ton.

BARONESS, MOTHER OF IMPOSTOR BABY, ACCUSED OF THEFT

NICE, France, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The Baroness De Plessen of Denmark, formerly the dancer Marie Louise St. Denis, of New Orleans, was under arrest today, charged with shoplifting. The alleged theft involved three pairs of gloves.

The baroness already is facing trial at Aix-en-Provence in a unique case involving an alleged fake birth. The trial is to be held early next year.

In 1929, the baroness' mother-in-law, the Baroness Sophie De Plessen, of Copenhagen, accused Marie Louise of having presented a servant girl's baby as her own in order to obtain possession of the De Plessen feudal castle at Copenhagen.

Marie Louise admitted she "bought" the child even before its birth in order to strengthen her position with the De Plessen family.

Legal processes for disowning the child will soon be completed and, under French law, Marie Louise may be charged with the felony of simulating childbirth—a charge that carries a prison penalty.

Baron George De Plessen, a leader of Copenhagen society, obtained a divorce from Marie Louise following revelation of the "fake baby." Their romance began in San Francisco.

DON'T SLEEP ON LEFT SIDE, GAS HURTS HEART

If stomach gas makes you restless and unable to sleep on right side, take Adierka. One dose will rid you of gas or nervousness, and bring sound sleep. Leading druggists.—(adv.)

Roosevelt's 'Board of Strategy' Meets Here

Above are four of the five members of Governor Roosevelt's board of strategy photographed Sunday night at the Atlanta Biltmore. From left to right they are: Breckenridge Long, former assistant secretary of state, close personal and political friend of the nominee; Senator Key Pittman, Nevada, vice chairman of the national democratic committee; Swager Shelley, of Lexington, Ky., and Judge Robert Marx, of Cincinnati, widely-known economist. The fifth member of the "board," Dr. Raymond Molay, of Columbia University, was assisting Governor Roosevelt in preparing tonight's address when this photograph was taken. Staff photo by Kenneth Rogers.

JAPS TO PRODUCE HEAVY FUEL OIL BY CARBONIZATION

TOKYO, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A new method of producing heavy oil, which is expected to revolutionize Japan's naval fuel supply, was announced today by the South Manchurian railway.

After five years of experimentation, a cheap process of low temperature carbonization, by which one ton of heavy oil can be extracted from two tons of coal, has been perfected. The product is good fuel oil, the railway announced, and it is possible to "crack" it into gasoline.

The navy, which has been seeking new fuel sources independent of American, British and Dutch supplies, assisted in the experiments.

The chief source of the new fuel is expected to be the great Fushun open-pit coal mine in Manchuria, where coal at the pit-head costs less than 50 American cents a ton.

BARONESS, MOTHER OF IMPOSTOR BABY, ACCUSED OF THEFT

NICE, France, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The Baroness De Plessen of Denmark, formerly the dancer Marie Louise St. Denis, of New Orleans, was under arrest today, charged with shoplifting. The alleged theft involved three pairs of gloves.

The baroness already is facing trial at Aix-en-Provence in a unique case involving an alleged fake birth. The trial is to be held early next year.

In 1929, the baroness' mother-in-law, the Baroness Sophie De Plessen, of Copenhagen, accused Marie Louise of having presented a servant girl's baby as her own in order to obtain possession of the De Plessen feudal castle at Copenhagen.

Marie Louise admitted she "bought" the child even before its birth in order to strengthen her position with the De Plessen family.

Legal processes for disowning the child will soon be completed and, under French law, Marie Louise may be charged with the felony of simulating childbirth—a charge that carries a prison penalty.

Baron George De Plessen, a leader of Copenhagen society, obtained a divorce from Marie Louise following revelation of the "fake baby." Their romance began in San Francisco.

DON'T SLEEP ON LEFT SIDE, GAS HURTS HEART

If stomach gas makes you restless and unable to sleep on right side, take Adierka. One dose will rid you of gas or nervousness, and bring sound sleep. Leading druggists.—(adv.)

ASSAULT ON JAPS OPENED BY CHANG

Insurgent Leader Attacks Garrison in Manchuria, But Is Repulsed.

MUKDEN, Manchuria (Monday), Oct. 24.—(AP)—General Chang Tien-chu and 1,000 of his insurgent followers made a fierce attack today on the small Japanese garrison at Fushan, the first station on the Chinese Eastern railway west of the Nonni river, which was occupied by the Japanese two weeks ago.

According to Japanese reports, there was a bitter 10-hour battle in which the assailants were repulsed, leaving more than 200 dead behind them. Japanese casualties were three killed and 12 wounded.

General Chang Tien-chu is the chief lieutenant of General Su Fung-chen, the principal insurgent leader in the district. Recent Moscow and Changchun dispatches have reported that General Su was showing a more conciliatory attitude toward the Japanese.

From Moscow news came the other day that General Su had acceded to a soviet suggestion that he permit evacuation to Russia, of all Japanese women, children and male civilians held captive by the insurgents at Manchukuo and Hailar.

Changchun has reported that General Su agreed to confer with peace envoys from the new state of Manchukuo, against which he is in rebellion.

JAPAN SEEKS TO KEEP PEACE IN FAR EAST, SAYS OFFICIAL
TOKYO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Japan has assumed the task of maintaining peace, not only in Manchuria, but throughout the far east, Viscount Makoto Saito, prime minister of Japan, declared today.

The 75-year-old prime minister, interviewed by a Japanese news service, as he rested at his Hayama villa, pleaded for understanding by the League of Nations of what he termed "Japan's sincerity and fairness" in dealing with problems of the orient.

"Direct Sino-Japanese negotiations concerning Manchuria, as recommended by the Lytton report, seem hopeless," he declared. "Unless China can achieve unified and form a responsible government, negotiations can achieve little."

"Because China is not unified, the responsibility for maintaining peace in Manchuria and the far east is upon the shoulders of Japan," he continued. "I believe this will finally be recognized by the League of Nations."

Saito had nothing to say concerning Japan's attitude toward the League.

EVERYBODY IS EATING VICK'S FAMOUS SANDWICH LUNCH

HOT ROAST BEEF, FRESH BAKED HAM OR CORNED BEEF WITH 2 HOT VEG. TABLES.

VICK'S
2 BROAD ST.
AT THE VIADUCT

SALLY SAVER IS GOING TO PUBLISH ANOTHER COOK BOOK

Watch The Constitution Daily for Further Details

P. S.—Over 800 requests for extra copies were received for Sally Saver's first Cook Book.

Glorifying the Spanish Peanut

The curtain is up on the biggest show ever staged for a nickel. The performance is continuous, glorifying the Spanish peanut by wrapping it up in smooth, luscious milk chocolate. Sit in and enjoy yourself at any place where candy bars are sold.

5c
FOODER HASH

The trio, Lieutenants Colin McMullen, C. E. Keys and G. F. Blaxland, left Havre, France, Wednesday in the "Little Owl," accompanied by a yacht, the "Wallop."

A violent storm separated the boats, the "Wallop" being rescued while the "Little Owl" lost its mast and sails, as well as the officers' instruments, in the tempest. The sturdy shell, however, rode out the gale.

On Saturday, the sea was comparatively calm and the three men sighted the Romanby, bound for Antwerp. They fired the last cartridges in a

Gleaned from the Notebook of Women's Division of Atlanta Community Chest

It's just like a great revival, this conversion to the Community Chest idea. One by one they succumb and add their names to the long list that is already threatening Atlanta. So general is the conversion that no longer is heard the former whines: "Oh, she wouldn't give last year," or "If so-and-so couldn't move her, I am sure I can't." The evangelists are the women's committee of the Community Chest and they are not to be swayed from their purpose. Former indifference, former snubbing is having nothing to do with the situation. They know there is a fine line in the nature of all of us, and that it needs particular appeal for particular people.

And one after the other as the would-be converts understand the meaning of the Community Chest, the humanity of it, they have been willing to accept its creed. It isn't new, this unbelief. In the very beginning when the Chest was first organized, prominent people disagreed. One man of great, good word declared, "I tell you, I'll not do it." And now, like Abou Ben Adhem, his name leads all the rest.

The evangelists are also finding that the economy program of the Chest is not fully realized.

"In spite of all our conversation and all our publicity upon the subject, oral and written, do you know that people don't understand that all but 3.7 per cent of their money is put in actual relief?" declared one captain. "It's the truth. I found that today in talking to my own group of workers and I emphasized with them the economic management of the Chest with particular stress upon the economic campaign. Especially in regard to luncheons for the workers that Mr. Bird is going to serve at absolutely no cost to the Chest or the individual, all donated. Not feasts, but then, I ask you, who can swallow caviar when one's next-door neighbor is dying for bread?"

"And, too," chimed in another captain, "they don't realize yet that the usual people in the Chest administrative offices are also doing the work of the campaign with no outside help, that the auditorium is free, and that we are using the same offices of the Chest instead of moving to campaign offices somewhere else."

"It's a great campaign," announced a third enthusiast, "and if we could pass our knowledge and understanding of the spiritual value of the creed of the Community Chest to every man and woman in Atlanta they would indeed, in the language of Sam Jones, 'hit the saw-dust trail.'"

Ormeewood Park W.M.S. Sews for White Cross

Ladies of the W. M. S. of the Ormeewood Park Presbyterian church spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Puckett on Moreland avenue, sewing and making valises for the White Cross work in foreign fields. The members present were Mesdames: J. C. Stubbs, Walter Guy, Frank Stokes, W. A. Hines, J. B. Crane, T. B. Andrews, J. B. Boatright, B. E. Boyd, C. W. Puckett and W. F. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. G. Cates have returned from a month's visit to their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cates, in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. A. H. Rives had as her dinner guests Thursday at her home on Woodland avenue Mesdames A. K. Ellis, S. B. LaSalle, A. A. Jones, Misses Mary Jones, Ollie May Rives and Steve Rives.

Miss Ida Davis, who has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Lumpkin, has recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Garner, of Lithonia, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Leona Garner, at her home 644 Moreland avenue.

J. B. Womack is confined to his home on Delaware avenue with an attack of neuritis.

The Annie E. West P. T. A. meets at the school Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Harriet Gregory, of Blainville, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. A. Granger.

Miss Ruth Ginter and Hugh Hunicutt were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Garner Friday evening at their home, 644 Moreland avenue.

Miss Violet Wilson was hostess at a winter roast at her home on Underwood avenue the past week.

Mrs. L. V. Kennedy entertained at dinner Tuesday at her home, 765 Woodland avenue. The honor guests were Mrs. Charles R. Anderson, of Augusta, and Mrs. Sanford Brand, of Decatur.

H. R. Smith is on a business tour of the state of North Carolina.

Sam Wilson, and Edward Shaft have returned from a hunting trip at Fairburn.

Miss Katherine Twigg, of Scranton, Pa., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. H. D. Twigg, on Mercer street.

Mrs. John L. Hudson is ill at her home on Woodland avenue.

Misses Lila and Ruth Shaft entertained at a winter roast and dance at their home on Alloway place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Porter Enloe and children, of Montgomery, were the weekend-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hansell, at their home on Woodland avenue.

Leonard Gartner, who was injured in an accident recently and has been confined to his home on Gilbert street, has recovered sufficiently to return to school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rowland, of Athens, are the guests of their son and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Crane.

Allen Maxwell Jr. is ill with scarlet fever at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Maxwell, on Moreland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hansell have returned after a two weeks' visit in Philadelphia and New York.

Mrs. W. E. Crane will entertain at a vanishing tea Monday afternoon.

Young People's class of Ormeewood Presbyterian church will have a steak fry on Friday evening for the benefit of the classroom building fund.

Mrs. H. W. Weaver is improving at her home on Woodland avenue from a recent illness.

Mrs. George Murray and Mrs. H. E. Durham entertained at a dinner at their home on Essie avenue Tuesday. Their guests were Mesdames Lester Jenkins, Guy Murray, John Carr and T. H. Cansler.

Merry Workers' Club gave a benefit bridge party at the home of Mrs. J. L. Hunt on Woodland avenue, Wednesday.

Miss Tessie Haden is visiting in Jacksonville as the guest of her uncle, J. W. Haden.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Durham and children, Edward and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Murray motored to Columbus for the weekend-end to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Durham and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hicks.

Liberty-Guinn P. T. A. Plans Fete Oct. 29. Liberty-Guinn P. T. A. met Friday and the president, Mrs. J. T. Eberhart, presided. A Halloween party was planned for Saturday afternoon, October 29. A committee was appointed to arrange the details. The proceeds will be spent for equipment for the cafeteria when the new building is completed. An invitation has been extended to Mr. Walker to speak at the November meeting at the Guinn school. Refreshments were served.

Oyster Supper. Mershon Junior High school P. T. A. will sponsor an oyster supper and a minstrel in the school auditorium, Friday evening, October 28. Halloween idea will be featured and several special attractions will be presented, including blackface presentations of southern negro songs by local talent.

Halloween Carnival. Plans for the Halloween carnival to be given by the James L. Key P. T. A. Friday, October 28, were formulated at the executive board meeting held at the school Monday. Admission will be 10 cents, the proceeds to be used to further the welfare work of the P. T. A.

Daniel W. Hickory Honored at Dinner By Writers' Club

Members of Atlanta Writers' Club honored Daniel Whitehead Hickory at dinner Thursday at the Atlanta Writers' Club, in commemoration of the publication of Mr. Hickory's first book of poems, entitled "Bright Harbor." He was introduced to the membership by Dr. Anderson, Secretary, president of the club, who also presented John M. Graham, a writer of unusual ability, and author of "The Poet's Corner in Georgia," and Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Beeler, well-known and popular Atlantans. Mr. Hickory read his poems, entitled "White Journey," "To a Garden Snail," "Mr. Chinese," "Harbor Song," "Seashore," "To a Persian Rug Weaver," and other sonnets that are to be found in his book of poems. Mr. Hickory has won national recognition through his poetic compositions, but his art is at its best in the poems about the sea and its people. His talent lies in putting a calm or restless ocean and real sea-faring people, and he brings the scene before his readers and listeners in a vivid manner.

Music was furnished by Allen M. Walker's trio, including Edward Greenwell, pianist and vocalist; Allen M. Walker, violinist, and Walter Sheets, violinist. Edward Greenwell rendered "A Ship for Singapore," a poem written by Mr. Hickory, which has been set to music by Guido Negri, and he was accompanied by Mr. Walker and Mr. Sheets. The selection being of pleasing quality and beauty, in point of composition, voice and accompaniment. It is the first poem written by Mr. Hickory to be set to music, and the success of the number is largely due to the singing and quality injected into the poem by Mr. Hickory, and to Mr. Negri's perfect understanding of the fundamentals of music. The Walker trio rendered "The Barcarolle," from Offenbach's opera, "Tales of Hoffman," and "Celeste Aida," from Verdi's opera "Aida." Edward Greenwell sang "Trees," the famous poem by Joyce Kilmer, which is set to music. Miss Annie Laurie Hill proposed a toast to Mr. Hickory's continued success as one of America's leading poets. His poems have been accepted by leading newspapers and magazines in the United States, and Mr. Hickory richly merits the success which has crowned his poetic efforts.

Stunt Night. P. T. A. and faculty of Russell High school will sponsor a stunt night Friday, October 28, at 8 o'clock at East Point auditorium.

Lillian Mae Patterns. Lillian Mae Patterns, 2448, jumper frocks help make wintry school days brighter. . . brighter because of the many gaily colored blouses that may be worn with them. It's the simplicity of the model sketched that makes it appealing to smart juniors. Sheer wool for the jumper and cotton for the youthful blouse will be an ideal combination.

Pattern 2448 may be ordered only in sizes 8 to 18. Size 12 requires 13-8 yards 54-inch fabric and 1-2 yards 36-inch contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Sent fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and state number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Address orders to Lillian Mae Patterns Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

JUMPERS FOR JUNIORS. Pattern 2448.

Jumper frocks help make wintry school days brighter. . . brighter because of the many gaily colored blouses that may be worn with them. It's the simplicity of the model sketched that makes it appealing to smart juniors. Sheer wool for the jumper and cotton for the youthful blouse will be an ideal combination.

Pattern 2448 may be ordered only in sizes 8 to 18. Size 12 requires 13-8 yards 54-inch fabric and 1-2 yards 36-inch contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Sent fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and state number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Address orders to Lillian Mae Patterns Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Safety and Recreation Chairmen To Meet. Mrs. M. Herzberg, safety and recreation chairman for the Atlanta council, Parents and Teachers, requests all safety and recreation chairmen to meet Wednesday morning, October 26, in Rich's school room at 9:30 o'clock. It is important that this meeting is well attended, as there will not be another safety and recreation meeting before Spring. Great enthusiasm is being manifested in the "no-accident" campaign sponsored by committee. A number of associations are competing for the loving cup to be presented by the Kiwanis Club to the school showing the fewest number of days absence from school on account of accident during the present school year.

Invitations Received. Invitations have been received in Atlanta by friends and relatives to the wedding of Miss Amelia Lyon Moore to Charles Ernest Edgar Jr., which takes place November 10 in Christ church in Mobile, Ala.

For Miss Baker. Miss Sara Baker, bride-elect, whose wedding to George Beattie will be solemnized November 19, was honor guest at a luncheon given by a group of her friends Saturday at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Covers were placed for Misses Sara Baker, Helen Farmer, Martha Lamar, Annette Embrey, Tullie Fishback, Dell Carson, Lena Mae Pars, Carroll Murray, and Mrs. George Halpin.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Butterfly Table. There is no high pressure selling in this store. We want you to feel free to come in and look around. Well-informed homefurnishers are here to give you assistance in selections only when desired.

Dinnerware. Special! 31-Piece Luncheon Set. Choice of Green and Ivory. . . . $2.95 32-Piece Decorated Luncheon Set. . . . $2.95 Full Dinner Service. 95-Piece decorated. . . . $19.75 Complete stock of fine imported China. Hand-decorated.

SPECIAL! CARLOAD Late in Arriving Heat Your Home for a Few Cents a Day

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

STERCHI'S BIG LEADER $24.50 Let us demonstrate to you how economically you can circulate healthful warm air through your rooms with this new model. See the Big Special at $19.50 Economical of fuel—radiating warmth to every corner of the house!

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24.

Minerva Garden Club meets at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Strother Fleming on Andrews drive.

Ben Hill Home Demonstration Club meets at 1:30 o'clock.

Lakewood Pre-School Association meets at the home of Mrs. G. V. Moore, 1778 Lakewood avenue, at 2:30 o'clock.

Executive board of James L. Key school meets in the clinic-room at 10 o'clock.

Fulton Chapter No. 181, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock.

Business women's chapter of All Saints' church meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the parish house.

Woman's Auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will hold a special season of prayer at the home of Mrs. W. S. Featherstone, 280 Boulevard, N. E., at 3 o'clock.

Capitol Avenue W. M. S. will observe a day of prayer for home missions, beginning at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Y. W. C. A. board of directors meet at 10:30 o'clock at 37 Auburn avenue.

Finance committee of Business Girls' League, Y. W. C. A., meets at 37 Auburn avenue at 5:30 o'clock.

Rainbow Club, Y. W. C. A., begins a program at 5:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Irene B. Daniel conducting a class on "Personal Problems." Supper is at 6:30 o'clock.

Staff committee, officers' committee and ship Spaulding committee of the Atlanta League of Women Voters meets at league headquarters at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. S. H. Askew begins a Bible class at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock.

Progressive Grove No. 361 of Supreme Forest Woodmen circle, meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the hall of Henry Grady hotel.

Board members of the Atlanta unit of Junior Hadassah meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Henry Grady hotel.

Avondale Community Club Holds Opening

Avondale Community Club held the formal opening Saturday evening, in the clubhouse on Lakeshore drive, Avondale Estates. A Dutch supper was served, after which contract auction were enjoyed. The committee of ladies in charge were Mesdames P. B. Hicks, E. L. Hornbroke, J. A. Harris, Ford, Frost and A. E. Sorrell.

Mrs. P. B. Hicks was hostess Wednesday for the Avondale Contract Club. Luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock after which the game was enjoyed.

Frank T. Whiting, of New York city, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Whiting at their home on Dartmouth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Moore have returned from a visit to New Orleans. Patricia McGovern is ill with diphtheria at the home of her parents on Dartmouth avenue.

Mrs. C. L. Daughtry entertained a few close friends at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Clarendon avenue. Bridge was played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Thurston Hatcher is recuperating at her home on Kensington road, from an extended illness.

Mrs. Lucien Harris is visiting at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Miss Marion Nichols, of Rutland, Vt., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. L. Kinney, on Fairfield plaza.

Mrs. W. M. Stevenson returned Sunday from Columbus, Ga.

Safety and Recreation Chairmen To Meet. Mrs. M. Herzberg, safety and recreation chairman for the Atlanta council, Parents and Teachers, requests all safety and recreation chairmen to meet Wednesday morning, October 26, in Rich's school room at 9:30 o'clock. It is important that this meeting is well attended, as there will not be another safety and recreation meeting before Spring. Great enthusiasm is being manifested in the "no-accident" campaign sponsored by committee. A number of associations are competing for the loving cup to be presented by the Kiwanis Club to the school showing the fewest number of days absence from school on account of accident during the present school year.

Invitations Received. Invitations have been received in Atlanta by friends and relatives to the wedding of Miss Amelia Lyon Moore to Charles Ernest Edgar Jr., which takes place November 10 in Christ church in Mobile, Ala.

For Miss Baker. Miss Sara Baker, bride-elect, whose wedding to George Beattie will be solemnized November 19, was honor guest at a luncheon given by a group of her friends Saturday at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Covers were placed for Misses Sara Baker, Helen Farmer, Martha Lamar, Annette Embrey, Tullie Fishback, Dell Carson, Lena Mae Pars, Carroll Murray, and Mrs. George Halpin.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Halloween Carnival. Maple Grove No. 86, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, will sponsor a Halloween carnival and dance at the hall at the Masonic temple, West End, Thursday evening, October 27. The special committees have completed plan and entertainment will consist of fortune telling, games, and a special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the relief work of the society. A special invitation is extended to Woodmen circle members, families and friends and the members of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World.

Halloween Party. Alonzo Richardson school plans a Halloween party for Friday, October 28, from 2:15 to 8 o'clock. There will be witches, goblins, fortune telling, frolic and fun. All mothers are invited to join the children in their fun.

Women's Division of Community Chest Launches Its Drive for Funds Today

Members of the women's division of the Atlanta Community Chest will fare forth Monday under the leadership of Mrs. Preston S. Arkwright and the co-chairmanship of Mesdames Robert L. Cooney, Louis H. Moss and Floyd McRae Jr., to request Atlanta women to make contributions to the Community Chest. The quota allotted to the women's division for its objective is $50,000, the sum to be applied toward relieving the distress of 7,000 families this winter. It is a matter of sharing and caring, that is to be made foremost in this drive to aid in relieving the suffering, which is occasioned by the economic situation, and Atlanta women will be appealed to by a band of faithful sisters, who enter the field today, in a volunteer service for the worthy cause. Never before in the history of Atlanta have conditions been so richly deserving of relief, and it is hoped that everyone approached will be willing to share because they care to relieve the suffering of less fortunate individuals. Mesdames Trammell Scott, E. V. Carter Jr., Henry Newman and Herman Heyman are the majors of the women's committee.

Mrs. Julian Thomas is captain of Group No. 1, and her committee includes Mesdames R. H. White Jr., K. B. Hancock, Harry Rodgers, Lawrence Willett, Hamilton Hart, William Akers, James L. Wells, Trenton E. Tunnell, Julian Robinson and Pat E. Moll.

Miss Sue Brown Sterne heads Group No. 2, and will be assisted by Mesdames Edward Merritt, Charles Winship, John Jarrell, Stewart Gould, James Walker, Bernard Neal, W. E. Singletary, H. Clay Moore Jr., and Misses Mary Crenshaw and Evelyn Sheffield.

Group No. 3 has Mrs. Chauncey Middlebrooks for its captain, and her committee comprises Mesdames Grover Middlebrooks, Percy Baker, Henry Smith, Norwood Griffin, A. F. Akers, B. T. Carter, George Curry, R. L. Logan, Merritt, and D. F. Rogers. Mrs. John Baldwin is captain of Group No. 4, and will be aided by Mesdames J. M. Harrison, E. C. Powers, Marcus Emmert, H. D. Oliver, T. J. Monroe, Donald McClain, Frank Stevens, Fonville McWhorter, Harrison Atkins and Paul Gregory.

The captain of Group No. 5 is Mrs. Frank Quentin and composing her committee are Mesdames Robert Edmonds, Raymond Johnson, Charles T. Hicks, Fletcher Johnson, Wyndam White, Ed Ansley Jr., Foster Hummer, Harry Cannon, Carl Ramspeck and Miss Pam Johnston.

Group No. 6 has Mrs. Frank Boston for its captain, and her committee comprises Mesdames John Barnett, Carlyle Holleman, James Threlkott, Joe Flach, Harry Holland, Joe Brennan, Harry Thompson, M. E. Kilpatrick, Herbert Reynolds and Miss Harriet Wynne.

Miss Rachel Neely heads Group No. 7, and will be assisted by Mesdames J. G. McDaniel, Albert Anderson, Freeman Strickland, John K. Otley Jr., Everett Richardson, S. A. Black, George Youmans, Ralph Quillian, Misses Frances Spaulding and Lillian Funkhouser. Group No. 8 has for its captain Mrs. Edward A. Peoples, and her committee is composed of Mesdames John McCarty, Hugh Lokey Jr., A. P. Alexander, Norman Coleedge, George McCarty Jr., Philip Alston, Frank Troutman, Carl Vretman and Misses Frances Barnett and Helen Watlington.

Mrs. Henry Newman's committee is composed of Mesdames H. D. Marshall, E. L. Carroll, W. J. Freston, C. E. Broach, T. B. Branch, J. W. Simmons, Jake Sewell, A. B. Fane and L. C. Bryant.

College Park residents assisting in the drive will be Mesdames Oscar Palmour, G. P. Wright, L. O. Lasiter, Robert W. Moore, Chester E. Martin, A. J. Croley, R. R. Thomas, G. M. Dickey, Henry Stakeley, Charles Center, J. E. Escott, Roy Martin and Miss Annie Thornton.

Halloween Carnival. John B. Gordon P. T. A. will sponsor a Halloween carnival Friday evening, October 28, at 7:30 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Admission, 10 cents and 5 cents. The public is invited.

Halloween Carnival. John B. Gordon P. T. A. will sponsor a Halloween carnival Friday evening, October 28, at 7:30 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Admission, 10 cents and 5 cents. The public is invited.

Halloween Carnival. John B. Gordon P. T. A. will sponsor a Halloween carnival Friday evening, October 28, at 7:30 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Admission, 10 cents and 5 cents. The public is invited.

Halloween Carnival. John B. Gordon P. T. A. will sponsor a Halloween carnival Friday evening, October 28, at 7:30 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Admission, 10 cents and

B. and P. W. Club Of Hapeville, Ga., Adopts Student

The Professional and Business Women's Club was entertained by Mrs. W. F. Gilliam Tuesday evening at her home on Stewart avenue in Hapeville. Mrs. Robert Brandon, the newly-elected president, presided over a short business session. Mrs. A. B. Lewis was appointed welfare chairman. Mrs. W. W. Bobo was appointed membership chairman. The club has adopted a girl student, to clothe and send to school this year. Mrs. James E. Wilkins and Miss Laura Campbell were presented birthday gifts, their birthdays occurring during the month. Those present were Mesdames Thomas Lewis, Felix Sibbey, Verita Brown, W. W. Bobo, W. B. Stewart, James E. Wilkins, W. F. Gilliam, Barbara Rollins, Misses Evelyn Smith, Laura Campbell, Louise Tucker and others.

Miss Ruth Lewis left Thursday for New York and New Haven, Conn. She will attend the Yale-Army football game.

Misses Eunice Lee and Louise Stallings have returned from a visit to relatives in Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. W. M. Twigg is visiting her parents in south Georgia.

Miss Minnie Nash and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Raven, of McDonough, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Foster on Whitney avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alderman, of Geneva, Ohio, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burks at their home on Whitney avenue, en route to St. Petersburg to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Nolan, of Spartanburg, S. C., were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Wilson, on Oakdale road.

Dr. Frank Wells will attend the Grand Lodge at Macon next week.

Mrs. B. A. Bishop is planning a benefit bridge party for the Hapeville Club building fund on November 1 at 8 o'clock at the Hapeville auditorium. Tables will be $1 each or 25 cents per person. Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. Bishop at Calhoun 2414 or Mrs. Luther Conline, Calhoun 2859.

Miss Helen Barnett is much improved following a recent operation at Georgia Baptist hospital.

Mrs. B. L. Weinberg is convalescing from a recent tonsil operation.

The marriage of Miss Duxie Morris to James Shumake took place Friday, October 14. They will make their home on Stewart avenue.

Miss Estelle King is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moss, in Decatur, while attending Emory University.

Cecil Travis spent last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rabun Chapman on Central avenue.

J. B. Parham has returned from a fishing trip to St. Marks, Fla.

J. J. Brown, of Miami, Fla., was the guest last week of Mrs. Verita Brown and family.

Personal Intelligence

Miss Betty Matthews, of Thomas, Ga., is spending several days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Nixon at their home on Andrews drive.

Miss Sara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, of Columbus, Ga., arrives November 1 to spend two weeks as the guest of Miss Jean Lucas, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lucas. Miss Brown will be an admired figure at numbers of parties to be given honoring debutantes.

Dr. Ralph E. Wager is attending the annual convention of the Georgia Association of Physicians, in session in Macon, Ga., this week.

Elwin Settle, a student at Riverside Academy in Gainesville, Ga., made a recent visit at his home in West End.

Miss Helen Rusk has enrolled at Maryville College in Maryville, Tenn., for the forthcoming year.

Harry Richmond, of New York city, is spending a few days in the city.

S. E. Kapp, of New York city, is spending several days in the city.

Miss Mary Postell is in Macon, Ga., for a few days.

Paul W. Miller is at the Roosevelt in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rodgers, of 91 Fourteenth street, N. E., will return early this week following a visit in Washington, where they were guests at the Harrington, and to points in North Carolina.

Harry Stoops, Mrs. Josie W. Stoops, Mrs. Arthur Sibold and Mrs. Irene Stoops Garrison motored from Chattanooga to attend the concert of Grace Moore and Richard Crooks. Mr. Stoops and his sister, Mrs. Garrison, returned last week from an extensive sojourn in Italy, where Mr. Stoops prepared for the debut in opera which occurred last month in Italy.

Dance Program

At Hospital 48.

Marion Springer Dancers will give an interesting program of song and dance numbers for veterans at the U. S. Hospital 48 Wednesday evening, October 26, at 7:30 o'clock. The program includes an Indian ensemble, Chinese, Greek, and a high kick, tap, acrobatic, toe, ballet, eccentric and novelty dances.

Those taking part are Patsy McCann, Sara Carpenter, Mrs. Brooks Folger, Catherine Carroll, Sara Wakefield, Margaret Milam, Adele Crawford, Margaret Murrain, Jane Carmichael, Dorothy McConeghy, Lorraine McConneigh, Fay Robinson, Dottie Leming, Sarah Sims, Margaret Hendley, Mary McCord and Andy McNeely.

Mrs. Askew Teaches

Bible Studies.

Mrs. S. H. Askew will teach a Bible class at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock each morning, beginning Friday, October 28. She will teach "Five Bible Studies in the Letter to the Hebrews," taking as her subjects: 1. The argument of the letter; 2. The true humanity of Jesus; 3. The true humanity of Jesus; 4. The true humanity of Jesus; 5. The true humanity of Jesus. "There Remains a Rest for the People of God."

Miss Sharp To Fete

Duo of Debutantes.

Miss Jane Sharp will entertain at tea Sunday afternoon, November 20, from 5 to 7 o'clock at her home on Rive's road, in honor of a duo of the season's debutantes, Misses Sue Burnett and Barbara Lowe. Also a special guest will be Miss Marion Malm, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who will visit her former schoolmate, Miss Burnett, and will be present at a number of the debutante festivities. Mrs. Norman Sharp will assist the hostess in entertaining.

Lovely Mother, Baby Daughter

Mrs. H. Tucker Upshaw pictured with her beautiful young daughter, Julia Ann Upshaw. Photo by Misses A. C. and L. W. Mead.

Y. W. C. A. Announces Meetings And Plans for Week's Activities

Today the Y. W. C. A. calendar includes a staff meeting at 9 o'clock; board of directors 10:30 until 12 o'clock, when the members will attend the Community Chest rally at the city auditorium; a meeting of Commercial High Girl Reserves at 2:45; Business Girls' finance committee meeting at 5:30; and Industrial Girls' supper and club program, beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. Marvin Underwood, president, will conduct the meeting of the directors, when reports from the various chairmen will be heard. Plans for the Community Chest campaign will be discussed and Mrs. W. F. Caldwell, newly appointed chairman of the world fellowship committee, will outline plans for observance of world fellowship week, November 15-19. As one of the leading character-building agencies in the Community Chest, the Y. W. C. A. secures the support of a large group of women from all walks of life who are sympathetic with the Chest and appreciate the splendid work carried on by its agencies.

The "Y" staff will welcome R. L. Ramsay, principal of Fulton High school, as speaker at staff conference this morning. The Commercial Girl Reserves are stressing "personal hygiene" as their chief interest, and Mrs. S. A. Clayton, well-known beautician, lectures and demonstrates approved methods of caring for the skin, hair, nails and imperfections.

Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

The party will be given at Druid Hills Golf Club and details of the entertainment have been worked out by the club hostesses included in the club's membership.

Decorations will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Le Roux, and a list of the other committees is as follows: Tickets, Mrs. William McDougall, Mrs. A. E. McCann and Mrs. R. B. Wilby; prizes, Mrs. Goodloe Yancey; cards, Mrs. Dan Byrd; chairs, Mrs. John Hays; tables, Mrs. R. G. Hodgson; score pads, Mrs. H. G. Voorhis; refreshments, Mrs. S. E. Broadnax and Mrs. W. B. Spann.

Druid Hills Garden Club Makes

Plans for Benefit Bridge Nov. 2

Mrs. Harold Coolidge, general chairman of arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Druid Hills Garden Club on November 2, announces that the hostesses at any table arranged to play either bridge or contract. Each table will have a prize. Among other prizes there will be a silver watch, an electric clock, a necklace, beads, dora, tray covers, wax tapers, a pound of floor wax, theater tickets, Bamboo ginger ale, tea napkins, card table, playing cards, a corsage bouquet, a hat from the millinery store, Buchanan, Inc.; a bronze plaque, three-pound box of candy, a silver compote, silk hose, silver pepper and salt shakers, shoe buckles, stationery and tickets to beauty parlors.

Mrs. E. E. Malcolm To Give Reception At Marietta Club

MARIETTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Ernest E. Malcolm will entertain at a reception Tuesday afternoon at the Marietta Country Club in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lewis Cisco Smith, of Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. Harry N. DuPre, recently elected president of the woman's auxiliary of the Marietta Country Club, inaugurated her year of social activity Saturday afternoon by sponsoring a group of Russian classical dances by advanced pupils of Senia Solomonoff, of Atlanta, famous as a ballet dancer and master. Senia Solomonoff and wife, Lola Menzell, accompanied his pupils.

Rev. Herman L. Turner, pastor of Covenant Presbyterian church, of Atlanta, spoke to the P. T. A. of the Marietta high schools Tuesday afternoon on "Religious Training of Modern Youth."

Mrs. John Boston, chairman of original writers of the seventh district Federated Women's Clubs; Mrs. C. A. Keith, past president of Marietta Woman's Club, and Mrs. Marvin Norton, past secretary and treasurer, will attend the meeting of the seventh district clubs to be held in Rockmart, Ga., Tuesday, October 25.

Mrs. Boston will speak to the assembly on "Journalists of the Seventh District" and Mrs. Keith will respond to the welcome address.

Mrs. Tom Gramling Sr., is visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gramling, in Augusta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aiken, of Cartersville, Ga., were recent guests of Colonel and Mrs. John Boston at their home on Atlanta street.

Mrs. George H. Keeler has returned from an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. John Brantley, in Blackshear, Ga., and was accompanied by Mrs. Brantley, who will be her guest for several weeks.

Misses Marion Keith, Claudia Keith and guests, Misses Bernice Johnson and Ruth Hunt, have returned to G. S. C. W. at Milledgeville, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keith, on Seminole drive.

Miss Amanda Groves was hostess to her contract bridge club Wednesday evening at her home on Cherokee street.

SOCIETY EVENTS

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24.

Miss Marian Wolff entertains at luncheon honoring Miss Marion Hull Smith, a bride-elect of the week.

Julia Peterkin, noted southern author, will be honor guest at a tea given in Rich's bookshop at 3:30 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Mildred Houston and Swanson Lunsford Craig will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride-elect on Church street in Decatur.

Rabun Gap Nacoochee Guild sponsors the opening performance of the Atlanta Civic Permanent Players who present "Death Takes a Holiday" this evening at the Exchange theater.

Mrs. W. D. Williamson will sponsor a benefit bridge party at 2:30 o'clock at the Biltmore hotel to raise funds for the scholarship fund of Tallulah Falls Industrial School.

A bridge party will be given by the Mary Cayce Memorial Circle this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the Shrine mosque.

Miss Eugenia Bridges will entertain at an informal tea at her home on Penn avenue, in compliment to Miss Marion Hull Smith, a bride-elect.

Miss Alma Roberts and Miss Laura Pearce will be hostesses at luncheon at Brookhaven Club, honoring Miss Elinor Smith, debutante.

Dr. George Raffolovich lectures at 10:45 o'clock in the assembly room of St. Luke's church.

Capital City Chapter No. 111, O. E. S., will entertain the worthy matrons, worthy patrons, associated matrons and associate patrons of 1932 this evening.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Vanishing Tea.

Mrs. Leonard Haas and Mrs. Ronald Pentecost will give a bridge-tee at the home of Mrs. Haas on Oakdale road, which will be sponsored by the Atlanta League of Women Voters.

Sell the Parade from

ROOSEVELT

ALABAMA STREET WINDOWS!

BUY Dresses of Brilliant Hues

Values up to $25

Colorful and Gay Woolens. Crepes and Sheers for street and afternoon.

Dresses that bespeak of the individual style of the Specialty Shop.

High necks, voluminous and unusual sleeves—smart contrasting trims of white, metal cloth, velvet and fur.

Sizes 14 to 44

Specialty Shop—Third Floor

BUY Perky Scarfs & Wool Sweaters

$1.59 Silk or Wool

Women's All-Wool

Scarfs

Sweaters

89¢

Gay scarfs of all-silk and silk and wool. Short, stubby lengths in tubular shapes. Striking color-combinations.

All-wool sweaters with long sleeves and high necklines. Lovely fall colors and combinations. Every one a $1.98 value.

Street Floor

BUY Pure Silk Mingtoy Crepe

Guaranteed Washable and 100% Pure Silk

For Monday Only!

Offered at the lowest price in its history! A soft, supple quality in a full range of all colors from white to black. Full 39-in. wide.

84¢

Solid and Printed Silks

$1 to $1.19

$1.19 to $1.48

$1.98 to $2.98

Silks

Plaid silks! Plain chiffons! Flat crepes! Rough crinkle crepes! Canton crepes! Rough novelty suitings!

50¢

75¢

Chiffon velvets! Rough crepes! Shadow check sheers! Satin crepes! Stehl's Tyrol crepe!

$1 yd.

Second Floor

BUY Men's Furnishings

Pre-Shrunk Broadcloth Shirts

Every shirt pre-shrunk—and regularly $1.19! Of strong broadcloth in collar-attached styles. Color-fast greys, tans, blues, greens, white.

Sizes 13½ to 17.

6 for $4.50

79¢

Wool-Mixed Sox

Solid heather or neat patterns. Regular 50c and 75c values.

3 prs.

$1

Broadcloth Pajamas

Regularly $1.35 to $1.95! Color-fast patterns. Sizes A to D.

On the Radio Waves Today

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

7:00 A. M.—Charles Lindsey.
7:15—Sing Melodies.
7:30—Morning Melodies.
7:45—Rogers, Inc.
8:00—Relax and Relax, CBS.
8:15—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.
8:30—Zany Wags "Are You Listening?" CBS.
8:45—Christian Council of Atlanta.
8:50—Radio special: "The Spirit of Christmas."
9:15—Catherine McKenzie entertains, CBS.
9:30—Frank Bennett and orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Vocal Art Trio, CBS.
10:00—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:15—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:30—Academy of Medicine program, CBS.
10:45—Ben Arley, tenor, CBS.
11:00—Buddy Harrod's orchestra, CBS.
11:30—Columbia House, CBS.
12:00 P. M.—George Hall and orchestra, CBS.
12:15—Jimmie Beers at the Fox theater organ.
12:30—Atlantic City Musicale, CBS.
1:00—Chuck Wilson and his rubber band.
1:15—The Captivators, CBS.
1:30—American School of the Air, CBS.
1:45—Elizabeth Barthel, songs, CBS.
2:00—Columbia House, CBS.
2:15—Columbia House, CBS.
2:30—Sam Frazer, pianist, CBS.
2:45—Eton Boys, CBS.
3:00—Frank Westphal's orchestra, CBS.
3:15—News.
3:30—J. E. Priestly, "To a Lowbrow," CBS.
3:45—Columbia Artist Recital, CBS.
4:00—Left and Right, piano team.
4:15—Studio.
4:30—Westbrook Conservatory Players.
4:45—Columbia House, CBS.
5:00—Irene Beasley, CBS.
5:15—Eton and the Bulky Travelers, CBS.
5:30—Vaughn de Leath, CBS.
5:45—The Funsters, CBS.
6:00—Allied Business Men of Atlanta.
6:15—Homer Rodeheaver.
6:30—Bankers Savings and Loan.
6:45—Islam House and orchestra, CBS.
6:55—Musical Album of Popular Classics, CBS.
7:00—News.
7:15—Ann Leaf at the Organ, CBS.
7:30—Rudy Brown's orchestra.
7:45—Studio.
8:00—The Ambassadors, CBS.
8:15—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:30—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:45—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech from the White House.
9:00—Atlanta Constitution and Roy Robert.
9:15—Howard Barlow and Columbia Symphony orchestra, CBS.
9:30—Guy Lombardo's orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Eddie Duchin's orchestra, CBS.
10:00—Harry Harris' orchestra, CBS.
10:15—Chicago, Ill., WGN 720 Kc.

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

7:00 A. M.—Charles Lindsey.
7:15—Sing Melodies.
7:30—Morning Melodies.
7:45—Rogers, Inc.
8:00—Relax and Relax, CBS.
8:15—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.
8:30—Zany Wags "Are You Listening?" CBS.
8:45—Christian Council of Atlanta.
8:50—Radio special: "The Spirit of Christmas."
9:15—Catherine McKenzie entertains, CBS.
9:30—Frank Bennett and orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Vocal Art Trio, CBS.
10:00—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:15—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:30—Academy of Medicine program, CBS.
10:45—Ben Arley, tenor, CBS.
11:00—Buddy Harrod's orchestra, CBS.
11:30—Columbia House, CBS.
12:00 P. M.—George Hall and orchestra, CBS.
12:15—Jimmie Beers at the Fox theater organ.
12:30—Atlantic City Musicale, CBS.
1:00—Chuck Wilson and his rubber band.
1:15—The Captivators, CBS.
1:30—American School of the Air, CBS.
1:45—Elizabeth Barthel, songs, CBS.
2:00—Columbia House, CBS.
2:15—Columbia House, CBS.
2:30—Sam Frazer, pianist, CBS.
2:45—Eton Boys, CBS.
3:00—Frank Westphal's orchestra, CBS.
3:15—News.
3:30—J. E. Priestly, "To a Lowbrow," CBS.
3:45—Columbia Artist Recital, CBS.
4:00—Left and Right, piano team.
4:15—Studio.
4:30—Westbrook Conservatory Players.
4:45—Columbia House, CBS.
5:00—Irene Beasley, CBS.
5:15—Eton and the Bulky Travelers, CBS.
5:30—Vaughn de Leath, CBS.
5:45—The Funsters, CBS.
6:00—Allied Business Men of Atlanta.
6:15—Homer Rodeheaver.
6:30—Bankers Savings and Loan.
6:45—Islam House and orchestra, CBS.
6:55—Musical Album of Popular Classics, CBS.
7:00—News.
7:15—Ann Leaf at the Organ, CBS.
7:30—Rudy Brown's orchestra.
7:45—Studio.
8:00—The Ambassadors, CBS.
8:15—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:30—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:45—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech from the White House.
9:00—Atlanta Constitution and Roy Robert.
9:15—Howard Barlow and Columbia Symphony orchestra, CBS.
9:30—Guy Lombardo's orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Eddie Duchin's orchestra, CBS.
10:00—Harry Harris' orchestra, CBS.
10:15—Chicago, Ill., WGN 720 Kc.

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

7:00 A. M.—Charles Lindsey.
7:15—Sing Melodies.
7:30—Morning Melodies.
7:45—Rogers, Inc.
8:00—Relax and Relax, CBS.
8:15—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.
8:30—Zany Wags "Are You Listening?" CBS.
8:45—Christian Council of Atlanta.
8:50—Radio special: "The Spirit of Christmas."
9:15—Catherine McKenzie entertains, CBS.
9:30—Frank Bennett and orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Vocal Art Trio, CBS.
10:00—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:15—Morning Melodies, CBS.
10:30—Academy of Medicine program, CBS.
10:45—Ben Arley, tenor, CBS.
11:00—Buddy Harrod's orchestra, CBS.
11:30—Columbia House, CBS.
12:00 P. M.—George Hall and orchestra, CBS.
12:15—Jimmie Beers at the Fox theater organ.
12:30—Atlantic City Musicale, CBS.
1:00—Chuck Wilson and his rubber band.
1:15—The Captivators, CBS.
1:30—American School of the Air, CBS.
1:45—Elizabeth Barthel, songs, CBS.
2:00—Columbia House, CBS.
2:15—Columbia House, CBS.
2:30—Sam Frazer, pianist, CBS.
2:45—Eton Boys, CBS.
3:00—Frank Westphal's orchestra, CBS.
3:15—News.
3:30—J. E. Priestly, "To a Lowbrow," CBS.
3:45—Columbia Artist Recital, CBS.
4:00—Left and Right, piano team.
4:15—Studio.
4:30—Westbrook Conservatory Players.
4:45—Columbia House, CBS.
5:00—Irene Beasley, CBS.
5:15—Eton and the Bulky Travelers, CBS.
5:30—Vaughn de Leath, CBS.
5:45—The Funsters, CBS.
6:00—Allied Business Men of Atlanta.
6:15—Homer Rodeheaver.
6:30—Bankers Savings and Loan.
6:45—Islam House and orchestra, CBS.
6:55—Musical Album of Popular Classics, CBS.
7:00—News.
7:15—Ann Leaf at the Organ, CBS.
7:30—Rudy Brown's orchestra.
7:45—Studio.
8:00—The Ambassadors, CBS.
8:15—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:30—Mysteries in Paris, CBS.
8:45—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech from the White House.
9:00—Atlanta Constitution and Roy Robert.
9:15—Howard Barlow and Columbia Symphony orchestra, CBS.
9:30—Guy Lombardo's orchestra, CBS.
9:45—Eddie Duchin's orchestra, CBS.
10:00—Harry Harris' orchestra, CBS.
10:15—Chicago, Ill., WGN 720 Kc.

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

WGST 890 Kc.
Anasley Hotel

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

BY ELY CULBERTSON,

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

Masters of Bridge.

Lieutenant Alfred M. Gruenther, of West Point, is known to Duplicate Contract players, particularly in the East, through his marvelous skill in directing tournaments. It is not as generally known that he is also a very strong Bridge player, with a rather marvelous flair for psychology.

Recently Lieutenant Gruenther, with his family, spent a vacation in his home city of Omaha, Neb. The home town had heard of Lieutenant Gruenther, and a match game between two teams of four was arranged. Lieutenant Gruenther had an assistant, Mrs. Gruenther, and the other members of their team were Messrs. Cyrus P. Mason and Richard Loech. They were pitted against a team representing the Athletic Club—Messrs. Manning Handler, Charles Martin, Harry Perlmutter and Morris Ferrer.

The margin of their victory was accounted for on the following board, in which Lieutenant Gruenther introduced the psychic Third Hand non-vulnerable bid to the metropolis of Nebraska.

North—Dealer.
East and West vulnerable.

♠ 8 3
♥ 7 5
♦ K 8 5
♣ J 9 4 2

♠ K Q 9
♥ 5 4
♦ A K
♣ 7

♠ A 10 7 6
♥ 7
♦ 10 8 4 3
♣ J 10 4 3 2

The Bidding:
(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

South West North East
2NT(1) Dbl.(2) Pass Pass
3♦(3) Dbl.(4) Pass Pass
4♦(5) 4NT(6) Pass Pass(7)
Pass

1—A very daring, but, as it happens, extremely sound bid. South's object, of course, is to play the hand cheaply at diamonds or to prevent his opponents from bidding a Slam, which from his holding may be easily made.

2—Probably West's best bid.

3—Continuing the policy of deceptive surprise.

4—Showing a hand of mammoth proportions, considering the fact that East and West are vulnerable.

5—Continuing the deceptive tactics one step further.

6—West, of course, is fully aware of what South is doing.

7—Unfortunately, East is unable to decode the message.

The result, due to the fact that North decided to open a club, was that West made his contract and 3 overtricks as well. With any other Opening, of course, only 12 tricks could have been made.

At the other table, where Lieutenant Gruenther's team-mates held the East and West cards, a Small Slam in spades was bid and made.

In view of the originality displayed by Lieutenant Gruenther in finding bids with his trickless hand, I am seriously considering sending a very strong recommendation to the War Department that he be appointed as chief of general staff. Certainly, if he applies the same strategy to war as to Bridge, the element of surprise is going to be hard for his opponents to overcome.

TOMORROW'S HAND.
The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow.

South—Dealer.
East and West vulnerable.

♠ A 6
♥ 7 6 4
♦ 6 5 3
♣ A Q J 10 9

♠ 10 5 4
♥ 10 8 5 5
♦ 9 2
♣ 6 5 4 2

♠ Q 8 3
♥ K Q 2
♦ A K 10 4
♣ 8 7

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it, and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.
(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

FRIENDLY COUNSEL
BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I am a brand-new bride, literally intoxicated with love. I have never been so happy and contented. I tell my friends about it they look at each other and smile, as much as to say, "Just wait, it will pass." Please tell me how to keep my happiness.

LILA.

ANSWER:

My dear, you will find married life just like the seasons, changing, always changing: spring, summer, fall, winter. Life, married or unmarried, is just the same way. Each season has its charms and even winter is not bad if one is prepared for it. There are three seasons in which to make this preparation. The first is the first year of marriage, the second is the first year of the honeymoon, the third is the first year of the honeymoon.

Once a noted divorce judge in an interview with a newspaper reporter testified that the tin can and the delicatessen were responsible for many a domestic tragedy. By this he meant that some wives refused to accept their responsibility to prepare good meals for their husbands. The running of a house is no small job. It requires thoughtful planning, good marketing and hard work. It is as much a woman's duty to spend her husband's money wisely and well as it is his duty to provide it. She has no more excuse for the neglect of her household duties than he has for the neglect of his business.

The home is a woman's special province and it should be her first consideration in her married life. Here she creates the atmosphere in which it is easy to have love and thrive. Haven't you often sat in a playhouse and marveled at the manner in which the old jokes about the hard biscuits and the tough steak which the new bride offers her husband go over and get the big laugh? There are always some men who are not happy in their marriages. The old adage that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach has some truth in it.

Oh, I know how young people living in the seventh heaven of delight resent the implication that a thing so ethereal as their love for each other could possibly be influenced by anything so earthly as a biscuit or a piece of beef. They had rather believe that their love is a divine emotion apart from their earthly existence, and so it is in a sense, but in another sense it springs from and is nourished by physical life.

"Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life," says a fine old proverb. Keep the home with all diligence for out of it are the issues of love.

Cultivate friendship one with another. The ties that bind lovers together may be easily broken but the ties of friendship that can exist between a man and a woman who love each other and are married to each other are stronger than any human bond. The woman who has her husband for her best friend and confidant and the husband who has his wife for his best friend and confidant are the happiest people in the world. But the culmination of a divine emotion apart from their earthly existence, and so it is in a sense, but in another sense it springs from and is nourished by physical life.

Have respect, one for the other's privacy; consideration, one for the other's point of view, display common courtesy on all occasions, give gifts on special occasions, express gratitude for the love that is professed and grant forgiveness when offenses have been committed. Don't expect perfection one of the other. Love can't change a man's nature, nor a woman's either. Character is formed when people are older enough to get married. Love may suggest to the lover that he do his utmost to please his wife but he can only go so far as his nature permits him to do. If he is selfish and egotistical, love won't reverse his nature. We have, you know, to extremely sound bid. South's object, of course, is to play the hand cheaply at diamonds or to prevent his opponents from bidding a Slam, which from his holding may be easily made.

2—Probably West's best bid.

3—Continuing the policy of deceptive surprise.

4—Showing a hand of mammoth proportions, considering the fact that East and West are vulnerable.

5—Continuing the deceptive tactics one step further.

6—West, of course, is fully aware of what South is doing.

7—Unfortunately, East is unable to decode the message.

The result, due to the fact that North decided to open a club, was that West made his contract and 3 overtricks as well. With any other Opening, of course, only 12 tricks could have been made.

At the other table, where Lieutenant Gruenther's team-mates held the East and West cards, a Small Slam in spades was bid and made.

In view of the originality displayed by Lieutenant Gruenther in finding bids with his trickless hand, I am seriously considering sending a very strong recommendation to the War Department that he be appointed as chief of general staff. Certainly, if he applies the same strategy to war as to Bridge, the element of surprise is going to be hard for his opponents to overcome.

TOMORROW'S HAND.
The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow.

South—Dealer.
East and West vulnerable.

♠ A 6
♥ 7 6 4
♦ 6 5 3
♣ A Q J 10 9

♠ 10 5 4
♥ 10 8 5 5
♦ 9 2
♣ 6 5 4 2

♠ Q 8 3
♥ K Q 2
♦ A K 10 4
♣ 8 7

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it, and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.
(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

FRIENDLY COUNSEL
BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I am a brand-new bride, literally intoxicated with love. I have never been so happy and contented. I tell my friends about it they look at each other and smile, as much as to say, "Just wait, it will pass." Please tell me how to keep my happiness.

LILA.

ANSWER:

My dear, you will find married life just like the seasons, changing, always changing: spring, summer, fall, winter. Life, married or unmarried, is just the same way. Each season has its charms and even winter is not bad if one is prepared for it. There are three seasons in which to make this preparation. The first is the first year of marriage, the second is the first year of the honeymoon, the third is the first year of the honeymoon.

Once a noted divorce judge in an interview with a newspaper reporter testified that the tin can and the delicatessen were responsible for many a domestic tragedy. By this he meant that some wives refused to accept their responsibility to prepare good meals for their husbands. The running of a house is no small job. It requires thoughtful planning, good marketing and hard work. It is as much a woman's duty to spend her husband's money wisely and well as it is his duty to provide it. She has no more excuse for the neglect of her household duties than he has for the neglect of his business.

The home is a woman's special province and it should be her first consideration in her married life. Here she creates the atmosphere in which it is easy to have love and thrive. Haven't you often sat in a playhouse and marveled at the manner in which the old jokes about the hard biscuits and the tough steak which the new bride offers her husband go over and get the big laugh? There are always some men who are not happy in their marriages. The old adage that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach has some truth in it.

Oh, I know how young people living in the seventh heaven of delight resent the implication that a thing so ethereal as their love for each other could possibly be influenced by anything so earthly as a biscuit or a piece of beef. They had rather believe that their love is a divine emotion apart from their earthly existence, and so it is in a sense, but in another sense it springs from and is nourished by physical life.

"Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life," says a fine old proverb. Keep the home with all diligence for out of it are the issues of love.

Cultivate friendship one with another. The ties that bind lovers together may be easily broken but the ties of friendship that can exist between a man and a woman who love each other and are married to each other are stronger than any human bond. The woman who has her husband for her best friend and confidant and the husband who has his wife for his best friend and confidant are the happiest people in the world. But the culmination of a divine emotion apart from their earthly existence, and so it is in a sense, but in another sense it springs from and is nourished by physical life.

Have respect, one for the other's privacy; consideration, one for the other's point of view, display common courtesy on all occasions, give gifts on special occasions, express gratitude for the love that is professed and grant forgiveness when offenses have been committed. Don't expect perfection one of the other. Love can't change a man's nature, nor a woman's either. Character is formed when people are older enough to get married. Love may suggest to the lover that he do his utmost to please his wife but he can only go so far as his nature permits him to do. If he is selfish and egotistical, love won't reverse his nature. We have, you know, to extremely sound bid. South's object, of course, is to play the hand cheaply at diamonds or to prevent his opponents from bidding a Slam, which from his holding may be easily made.

2—Probably West's best bid.

3—Continuing the policy of deceptive surprise.

4—Showing a hand of mammoth proportions, considering the fact that East and West are vulnerable.

5—Continuing the deceptive tactics one step further.

6—West, of course, is fully aware of what South is doing.

7—Unfortunately, East is unable to decode the message.

The result, due to the fact that North decided to open a club, was that West made his contract and 3 overtricks as well. With any other Opening, of course, only 12 tricks could have been made.

At the other table, where Lieutenant Gruenther's team-mates held the East and West cards, a Small Slam in spades was bid and made.

In view of the originality displayed by Lieutenant Gruenther in finding bids with his trickless hand, I am seriously considering sending a very strong recommendation to the War Department that he be appointed as chief of general staff. Certainly, if he applies the same strategy to war as to Bridge, the element of surprise is going to be hard for his opponents to overcome.

TOMORROW'S HAND.
The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow.

South—Dealer.
East and West vulnerable.

♠ A 6
♥ 7 6 4
♦ 6 5 3
♣ A Q J 10 9

♠ 10 5 4
♥ 10 8 5 5
♦ 9 2
♣ 6 5 4 2

♠ Q 8 3
♥ K Q 2
♦ A K 10 4
♣ 8 7

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it, and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.
(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

and a brand-new De Luxe Chevrolet Sedan

Some one will win the $1,500 CASH and possibly the $800 Automobile for promptness. THAT SOME ONE MAY BE YOU, if YOU will only make the proper effort. To try costs nothing. Simply sign and mail the coupon today. You will receive by return mail full details and instructions. Everything necessary to win a prize in this fascinating game. This will make you eligible to win first prize—$1,500 cash and the automobile for promptness.

This is the automobile you can win for promptness.

Supplied by and on exhibition at the "Old Reliable" John Smith Co., 330 West Peachtree Street, N. W., Atlanta, Ga.

THE FIRST 3
CASH PRIZES are 1st . $1,500
2nd . $750
3rd . $300
25 Cash Prizes!

Have fun playing this NEW LUCKY STAR Game!

Here is a game that yields big cash rewards for play. None of the tedious labor of other contests. You don't even need a dictionary because we furnish you with a word list containing all the words to be formed from the star. Words not in this list will not count. See how much fun it will be, call in the whole family to help, see who can find the most words—they all will enjoy this interesting and educational pastime. Clip the coupon now and send for your FREE copy of the official word list.

This Coupon Brings the Word List
And Everything Necessary for Winning MAIL IT NOW--TODAY

REGISTRATION COUPON

Mail This Coupon Now! It Pays to be Prompt!

Lucky Star Editor,
Atlanta Constitution,
Atlanta, Georgia.

500 POINTS WINS $1,500 CASH.
REGISTER PROMPTLY IN THE "LUCKY STAR" GAME MAKES YOU ELIGIBLE TO WIN $1,500.00 CASH AND AN AUTOMOBILE FOR PROMPTNESS!

Without obligation on my part, please register my name in your "Lucky Star" game and award me 475 points, which I understand makes me eligible to win a cash prize and also the new Chevrolet De Luxe Sedan for promptness and also entitles me to one official word list to be used in this game.

Name .....
Address ..... Phone .....
City ..... State .....

RULES

This contest is open to all residents of Georgia and adjoining states, including Mississippi and the Virginias, with the exception of employees of The Constitution and the Southern Cultivator, immediate members of their families, or persons who have won a prize of $500 or more in any previous contest conducted by The Atlanta Constitution during the past three years. The general and complete rules of the contest and the free official word list will be mailed upon receipt of your signed coupon.

WATCH EACH SUNDAY'S CONSTITUTION FOR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Women Stars Begin Qualifying Rounds in City Tourney Today

STERN RIVALRY SEEN FOR TITLE OF MISS MADDOX

Last Year's Champion Vacates Throne; No Pairings Made.

By Roy White.
First step toward the selection of a new city women's golf champion will be taken this morning on the old East Lake course when the qualifying rounds for the annual tournament will be played over the 18-hole route.

Miss Margaret Maddox, a former southern champion and present state titleholder, will not defend her city crown, but will be among the gallery as the fight for the 1932 title is being waged.

NO PAIRINGS.
Pairings for the qualifying round will not be made and the players can leave the tee at any suitable starting time today. Officials of the Atlanta Women's Golf Association, sponsors of the tournament, will be at the first tee and entries will be received late as time will permit the completion of the 18-hole round.

An entry fee of $1 will be charged members of the association and all other entries will have to pay an additional $1 for an associate membership in order to participate in the week's play.

Match play will start Tuesday morning and the players will be grouped into divisions of 32, provided there are enough entries. Otherwise, there will be flights of 16 each and the defeated players in each flight will form consolation flights.

SPIRITED RIVALRY.
With Miss Maddox in the gallery, this year's tournament promises to be one of the most spirited in recent years. The field is wide open for some newcomer to crash through to a winner's reward and any one of a dozen players have excellent chances to go through undefeated.

Outstanding players in recent events and who will bid high for the crown are Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, runner-up in the 1931 Georgia tourney; Mrs. Charlie Black Jr., Miss Mary Warren, Mrs. Grady Black, Mrs. J. C. Wright, Mrs. Ashby Taylor, Mrs. Forest Fowler, Mrs. Carlyle Fraser, Mrs. Guy Butler and Mrs. Dorothy Kirby, the 12-year-old sensation. Anselmy Park Golf club, who went to the semi-finals in the recent state tourney on the Capital City Club course.

Rexford and Mates Win Dinner Tourney.
Ed Rexford and his "mates" will be guests of D. H. Therrell's team at 7 o'clock tonight at the Standard Club, as a reward for their winning a "losers pay" dinner golf tournament on the Piedmont Park course, sponsored by the members of the Piedmont Park Golf Association.

The tourney was a two-day affair and was completed Sunday, following a postponement from last week due to unfavorable weather conditions. The results of the matches with members of the Rexford team listed first are: Ed Rexford lost three points to D. H. Therrell; Jesse Webb won two points from Lee Strauss; Ben Giles won three points from Jim Evans; Dave Dawson lost two points to Dave Simons; Jim Bramblett won two points from E. A. Brown; Cy Rexford won three points from Harry Zaban and Ben Gonzales won three points from N. R. Glenn.

TEXAS, S. M. U. GAME ATTRACTS

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 23.—(P)—The fact the University of Texas crushed Rice Institute, 18 to 6, in a Southwest conference game and that Southern Methodist dropped an 18-7 non-conference game with Oklahoma yesterday has not erased championship interest in the Texas and Southern Methodist game Saturday at Austin.

Like the Texas and Rice set-to, the Texas and Southern Methodist combat is something the fans have been waiting for.

There will be one other conference game when Baylor invades Ford Worth to play Texas Christian. Other affairs will send M. U. to Shreveport, La., to battle Centenary, while Rice remains at Houston for an inter-sectional game with Creighton. Arkansas is not scheduled.

Texas Christian, with two victories and no defeats, and the University of Texas, with one win and no defeats, are leading the conference championship race.

Southwest conference standing:
TEAM—W. L. T. Pts. Per. Conf.
Texas Christian ..... 2 0 0 10.00 51.12
Texas ..... 1 0 0 10.00 18.6
Rice Institute ..... 1 0 0 10.00 18.6
Arkansas ..... 1 0 0 10.00 32.40
Texas A. & M. ..... 1 0 0 10.00 32.40
Baylor ..... 0 1 1 2.50 6.20
Southern Methodist ..... 0 1 1 2.50 6.20
(The game counts half win and half loss.)

MERCER, FURMAN THRILL SPCATATORS

Continued from First Sport Page.

Two time-outs for injuries. How's that for condition? And both coaches substituted freely without affecting the strength of their teams. Isn't that something?

REAL BATTLE.
"You should have seen it, boys; that game will go down in history. And Mercer still has an excellent chance to win honors in the Dixie conference, in which they are undefeated. The Bears are practically out of the running in the S. I. A. A."

"Maybe you think Mercer's backs weren't up to par, but let me tell you that the whole thing simmers down to the charging line of Furman and the driving backs on the defensive. They have defensive play down to a fine point. So has Mercer."

"Both teams were at it against passes and as a result there were few completed."

"Bill Hutt, the former Tech High player from Atlanta, certainly stamped himself as a great defensive back. His tackles hurt me."

And so on and so on.

Memories will linger on for some time, for Saturday saw an epochal meeting of two great defensive teams of smaller southern schools. Against teams with weaker defenses, their offensive strength will be given a chance to shine. Mercer, unquestionably, has some great running backs in Walden, Zinkowsky, Trommerhauser and Cimperman.

Look out for both Mercer and Furman in their remaining games this season. Lake Russell, Mercer, and Paul McLeod, Furman, have developed a pair of fine football elevens.

Wink Davis Scoring Tech's First Touchdown

Above is the first action picture to reach Atlanta of Georgia Tech's stirring 43-19 triumph over the North Carolina Tarheels Saturday at Chapel Hill. In the photo above, Wink Davis, swift Tech halfback, is shown dashing 68 yards for Tech's first touchdown. Quicker than a "wink" was Davis on getting in the clear on that one. Peterson, No. 29, is just ahead of him, running interference on the play. Coach Alex had just sent in Davis with the second team when the first team failed to score in the opening period. Tech looked very promising in this game.

PACKERS HOLD PRO LEADERSHIP Tech Showed New Found Strength on Saturday

Play of Both First and Second Teams Cheering; Jackets Eager To Get Vandy.

By Jimmy Jones.
And now they're looking at Vanderbilt.

Seriously speaking, the Georgia Tech football team is doing just that. New-found power and confidence are reasons. They're looking toward the results of a task that required many long, dreary afternoons of practice at the Flats.

The Gold and White team of Atlanta demonstrated in its 43-19 defeat of a rugged if not clever North Carolina team Saturday that it has profited by the most patient job of coaching in the Southern conference, if not the best job. And no more will it be said that Tech's players can't go because Tech can't block.

Some of the observers who saw the Engineers smash seven touchdowns in the Tarheels were quick to exclaim after the game that Coach Alex and his staff have at last realized the fruits of a task that required many long, dreary afternoons of practice at the Flats.

This does not mean that Tech is destined to traverse the primrose path from now on. The Jackets will be bumped somewhere down the line, but they also are capable of beating some first rate football teams and there are at least four of these in their remaining five opponents.

THE SCORING.
Get an idea of Tech's versatility of offense Saturday from the following description of how they got their touchdowns:
1. Wink Davis ran 68 yards.
2. Pat Barron ran 62 yards.
3. McArthur passed to Hart, 25 yards (pass and run).
4. McArthur passed to Vireek 58 yards (pass and run).
5. Ben Cherry bucked center 6 yards.
6. Peterson ran 85 yards, intercepted pass.
7. Galloway ran 41 yards.

Everything attests to variety of offense in that brief narrative. At the Flats, Tech has shown a speed and blocking. On every one of those runs, Tech's interferences were quick to sense the trend of the play and get out in front. The back's ability to run the right way and pick their holes was the highly praiseworthy supplement.

In their own minds the Tech players think they can beat Vandy in Nashville next Saturday. That was the chief topic of conversation on the trip home. Their running attack, which gained them 392 yards from snap and an accurate passing game that led directly to two touchdowns gives them a just pride in their performance.

ONE WEAKNESS.
The Jackets were inept in only one phase and that was at kicking the extra point. Tarzan Lackey, who wouldn't have missed it for the world, missed the extra point. The starting quarterback, who was in the game, missed the extra point. The starting quarterback, who was in the game, missed the extra point.

What was most cheering, however, was the demonstration put on by the second team in starting the scoring. It showed that Tech can change teams readily without weakening her chances. The backfield of Gooding, Davis, Peterson and Galloway netted 43 points. The starting quarterback, who was in the game, missed the extra point.

VIRECK TO FRONT.
The superlative game played at right end by George Vireck came as a salvation to Tech, who had lost the capable Jerry Goldsmith at that point. This boy, who comes from a Georgia family, is a fine player. He is a nephew of George Vireck, the noted writer, has substituted for two years and in this his last, seems headed to stardom. He snatched that touchdown pass and ran like a back, even if he did carry the ball under the wrong arm.

Blonde Bob Tharpe, of the Moultrie Tharpes, gave an exhibition of charging and getting down on punts from left tackle that did full credit to the memory of Mack, his big brother, in his heyday. Pat Barron was another kid brother that delivered with Carter Barron watching him. Johnny Pool was an impressive center. Both sets of halfbacks—Hart and Barron and Davis and Galloway—looked good. Dean went in to kick and got off one good punt of 50 yards. It helped Tech match some of the long passes that evolved from the left toe of Henry Burnett, Carolina's new-found sophomore star, who boots them southpaw fashion in a Johnny Cain.

STUDENTS LOYAL.
The team felt that it owed the Tech student body something after that stirring send-off at the Terminal station Friday night. The band was down in force and the students were in on mass. The band played "Sidelwells of New York," the favorite piece of Mike Chambers, the team's popular trainer and great favorite with the students. Mike made them a speech from the platform in the last presidential election. Coach Alex also made a speech. Bobby Dodd was called on, but Bobby was against making speeches before games now. He made his first and only one before the Vandy game of last year and Tech got beat, 49-7, or something like that.

San Francisco U. Triumphs By 16-0
KEZAR STADIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The University of California defeated the Oregon State football team today, 16 to 0. It was the first victory of the season for the Ducks, and the first time they have defeated the Climbmen in eight years.

MANY SURPRISES ON DIXIE GRIDS, TUGGINS STATES

Auburn's Victory Over Tulane Not Expected By Coach.

By Dan E. McGugin.
Head Football Coach, Vanderbilt University.

(Copyright, 1932, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 23.—There were surprises, amounting almost to upsets, in the Southern football conference over the weekend. Auburn's decisive victory over Tulane was the highlight of the day's play. I did not think Auburn could accomplish the feat, because of the charge and power of the Tulane line. As the game was played, the Green Wave did not have a chance to function decisively. Hitchcock, of Auburn, ran 56 yards for a touchdown after intercepting a pass, and another 65 yards to the enemy's goal on a wide end run. These are the things by which a great back proves himself brilliant, scoring in the critical games.

ABLY ASSISTED.
Hitchcock was ably assisted by a great backfield composed, among others, of Talley and Phillips, by great end play and a spirited fighting line. And so, as it must come to all teams, Tulane's long reign is broken. Although the Tulane football machine is composed of a lot of fine sportsmen, nevertheless the defeat found reflection in general satisfaction around the conference because of the m-terrible attitude and wisdom of a vast number of Green Wave supporters.

While Auburn has earned her right to rank with Tennessee at the top of the conference list, Virginia Polytechnic Institute also sits close to the throne.

Kentucky, almost always has an excellent team, but never quite up to conference leadership. This year, Kentucky lost to a Virginia Poly team which has risen to every occasion thus far and must be given serious consideration.

Georgia Tech astonished the conference by her remarkable scoring power against North Carolina. The Georgia Tech team has been the victim of ill luck and a chain of bad breaks, and has suffered much disappointment as a result. It takes a stout-hearted crowd to carry on under such conditions. Georgia Tech will be tough for anybody from now on.

DEACONS LOSE.
Drake won from a strong Wake Forest team in losing to the Carolina State was too good for Florida. We knew Bachman had to rely largely on sophomores, and they are apparently not ready.

Drake showed the wear and tear of her Tennessee game by winning a "pretty close one" from an improving Mississippi team. Virginia suffered disappointment in losing to Virginia Military Institute, and South Carolina got a big kick out of her victory over Clemson.

The Georgia-Vanderbilt contest, in which Vanderbilt was victorious, 12-6, was one of the heart-failure variety. The Vanderbilt-Tulane game a week ago, played in terrific heat, was the hardest I have seen in years, and perhaps the Vanderbilt squad had not entirely recovered.

Nevertheless, Harry Mehre's Sophomore players showed wonderful spirit and speed, a real achievement by the coaches, with so much inexperienced material.

OKLAHOMA TIES WITH NEBRASKA

By Charles Grumich,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 23.—(P)—Oklahoma tied with Nebraska, 10-10, in a game that was a real battle of attrition. The game was a real battle of attrition. The game was a real battle of attrition.

Nebraska's 20-6 victory over the Kansas Jayhawks at Lincoln, was predicted largely on six pass interceptions.

Dana F. Bible, coach of the Nebraskaans, fulfilled his promise to "open the football" by his "rabbit" backs, Chris Mathis and Carlyle Stabb, both scored, the former from midfield after he was shaken loose on a triple lateral and the latter on an 8-yard end sweep.

Missouri and Iowa State hammered at each other without scoring in their game at Columbia.

Only one conference game is programmed for next Saturday, between Kansas State and Nebraska at Lincoln.

Big Six standing:
TEAM—W. L. T. Pts. Per. Conf.
Oklahoma ..... 2 0 0 10.00 41.19
Nebraska ..... 1 0 0 10.00 38.41
Kansas State ..... 1 0 0 10.00 38.41
Missouri ..... 0 1 1 2.50 6.23
Iowa State ..... 0 1 1 2.50 6.23
(Oklahoma games count one half win and one-half loss.)

Grid Results

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—Louis Bush, of Massachusetts State, increased his scoring lead in the race among the stars of eastern football yesterday by adding three touchdowns to his big total and bringing it up to 84 points. He has crossed the opponents' goal line 14 times in five games this season.

His nearest rival, Cliff Montgomery, tallied only twice against Williams, but held second place easily with 10 touchdowns and two extra points for a total of 62 points.

Records of the leading individual scorers follow:

Player and College Pts. G. T. Pts. Per. Conf.
Bush, Mass. State ..... 84 14 0 0 84
Montgomery, Columbia ..... 62 10 0 0 62
Mills, Baltimore ..... 58 9 0 0 58
Greer, Bucknell ..... 58 9 0 0 58
Z. Stark, Syracuse ..... 58 9 0 0 58
Shepherd, W. Maryld. H.S. ..... 43 7 0 0 43
Holler, Pitt ..... 38 6 0 0 38
Schum, Wesleyan ..... 38 6 0 0 38
Cook, Villanova ..... 38 6 0 0 38

BREAK of the DAY

Continued from First Sport Page.

the best halfbacks in the game. He has a tremendous lot of power and runs with such power and speed that he drags tacklers with him.

Vanderbilt's kicking was not especially good. The Commodores are weak there. They will be at a tremendous disadvantage in that respect when they meet their old rivals, Tennessee and Alabama. And Georgia Tech.

Young Star Plays Today

Little Miss Dorothy Kirby (above), 12-year-old Ansley Park Woman's Club champion and a semi-finalist in the recent Georgia state tournament on the Capital City Country Club course, will enter qualifying rounds today on the East Lake course in the annual city women's championship tournament.

Miss Kirby, despite her tender age, is among the favored players to win the crown left vacant by Miss Margaret Maddox, who will be a spectator at the matches.

THE PORTLIGHT

By Hawthorne Rice

The Blue Upset.

What looked earlier to be one of the best Yale teams of many years now finds itself in a startling situation.

This Yale team is facing the possibility, if not the probability, of concluding a season without a victory.

Dartmouth, Princeton and Harvard are good football teams, and they are now Yale's only remaining rivals. Yale at least will have to ramble many kilometers from her present rut to beat any one of these opposing units.

The Army game was the first time I saw Yale play since the Harvard game a year ago and it was something of a shock to see how far the Blue has slipped with Crowley, Lassiter, Parker, Levering, the Williamses, Wilbur, Mallin and others still around. Here seemed to be a good mixture of experience, power and speed, aided and abetted by the high-class kicking of the right foot of Dud Parker.

Something has gone wrong with the fundamentals that Yale carried into battle last November on Harvard turf.

Yale's blocking and tackling were badly done, ragged stuff in too many big moments. The Blue line was out-charged and outplayed by a keen, smart, aggressive Army line that took full charge of the situation through the last three periods. Yale had little to show in the way of an attack that has made no headway since the first game with Bates—Bates, Chicago, Brown and Army with only one Blue touchdown to show through four games.

Yale's team can have an off-against, but an off-against or an off-against is another story with the material Yale has at her command.

Certain Examples.
What seems to be the matter at New Haven? Well, on Saturday, against the Army, Yale's ball carriers had little blocking help—the Yale line could open no holes and there was little deception in the Blue attack.

Then there came Parker's punt to Vidal, who took the ball from around since the Pittsburg game, a step from the sideline. Vidal raced straight down this sideline where almost any sort of tackle or shove or jolt would have crowded him out, but one Blue tackler after another missed the mark. Practically the same thing happened in Buckleburgh later.

Yale still has the manpower to go somewhere, but with the season half over there has been no sign yet of any quick development, although Parker's fine kicking and Crowley's able defensive work are something to start with. Only coolness and a quick eye prevented many of Parker's kicks from being blocked.

The Army Team.
On the other side of the argument the Army team has made a distinct advance since the Pittsburg game.

The Army line and the Army backfield were two alert, co-ordinate units, ably drilled along the lines of both attack and defense.

The Cadets were on top of the job every second. Fields, Vidal, Buckler, Kilday and others turned in a tidy job back of a line that opened up and gave them all the needed protection.

Harvard, Notre Dame and the Navy will find this Cadet squad something to handle before the season ends. It hasn't much in the way of backfield power, but it has speed and smartness and a high spirit of competition. It also has a high-class kicker, passer and ball carrier in Ken Fields, with two of the best ends in the game in Kling and Koppelack.

And no one is going to see many guards this season up to Summerville's caliber.

You can figure from this that

MICHIGAN TEAM READY TO NAIL UP TITLE FLAG

Only Three Teams Stand in Path of Wolverine Triumph.

By Charles Dunkley,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(P)—They are getting ready at Michigan to nail the 1932 title flag to the wall of the Western conference to the old flag pole.

The Wolverines, undefeated and untied, have rolled over Northwestern, Ohio State and Illinois and have only Indiana, Chicago and Minnesota to conquer to have undisputed possession of the title. Followers of the Wolverines proudly argue that Indiana, Chicago and Minnesota have shown nothing to indicate that they might possess enough power to stop them.

Minnesota and Chicago, however, have gathered momentum since the season opened and there is a possibility that one, or the other, might come up with an inspired game to knock the Wolverines over. Michigan must be defeated or tied to permit Purdue, tied by Northwestern yesterday, to get into the championship situation, as it did last year.

PRINCETON NEXT.
Michigan battles Princeton at Ann Arbor next Saturday. Purdue, having defeated three of its toughest foes, gets its first opportunity to relax in meeting New York University, beaten by Colgate yesterday at New York City.

While the Wolverines and Boiler-makers are taking on non-conference opponents, two important games will hold the spotlight in the Big Ten Saturday. Northwestern battled Minnesota at Minneapolis, with Wisconsin meeting Ohio State at Columbus. Old man Stag's Maroons, conquerors of Indiana yesterday, are scheduled to be able of beating the disappointing Illinois eleven at Chicago.

In the other contests, Indiana will play Mississippi State at Bloomington, while Iowa will invade Washington next Friday for a night battle with George Washington University.

PROMISING BATTLE.
Minnesota, gathering speed and power as the season along, will give Northwestern a desperate battle. It is within the realm of possibility that the men from the north might win, but the Wolverines are superior offense, wore down and defeated Iowa, 21 to 6, yesterday.

The Northwestern players came out of their brief hiatus with Purdue in fairly good shape and it is clear that they were able to tie the Boiler-makers in the last dazzling three minutes of play.

Ohio State, after a disastrous start, apparently is ready to go places, judging from its achievement in holding Pittsburg to a scoreless tie.

Like a tornado, Michigan swept over Illinois yesterday to the tune of 32 to 0. The Wolverines marched and marched, while Illinois gave ground until the attackers chipped up five touchdowns.

The standing of the Western conference teams, counting conference games only:

TEAM—W. L. T. Pts. Per. Conf.
Michigan ..... 10 0 0 13 71.000
Purdue ..... 9 0 0 11 71.000
Chicago ..... 8 0 0 11 71.000
Wisconsin ..... 7 0 0 11 71.000
Northwestern ..... 6 1 0 11 71.000
Indiana ..... 5 1 0 11 71.000
Minnesota ..... 4 1 0 11 71.000
Ohio State ..... 3 0 0 11 71.000
Illinois ..... 2 0 0 11 71.000
Iowa ..... 1 0 0 11 71.000

FOX HUNTERS AWAIT CHASE

MACON, Ga., Oct. 23.—(P)—Georgia's fox hunters are sharpening their appetites for their annual outing in search of old Reynard and once again are opening their season.

Members of the time, place and arrangement committee in Monticello, recently made a personal inspection of the camp and site offered as well as the hunting grounds and pronounced it satisfactory.

Members of the association in Monticello have made extensive preparations for visitors, having secured a large brick building with ample space and plenty of windows for comfort after the day's fun is over.

In the last 15 years the association has done great things toward the breeding of better hounds and the protection of fox.

W. H. Holland, Round Oak, Ga., is president; A. J. Hill, Dawson, first vice president; James K. Hogan, Macon, secretary-treasurer; and A. M. Bentley, Macon, second vice president.

Nashville Player Seriously Hurt

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 23.—(P)—Believed to have suffered a fractured skull while tackling an opposing player, F. C. Smith, 20-year-old fullback for Greenbrier, municipal park league, was in an unconscious condition tonight at a hospital.

Smith was hurt as he attempted to tackle Harry Curtis, halfback of the Red Front, in a game between the two teams. Smith was seriously injured while tackling the second half of the game. He dropped to the ground, and spectators who rushed to the field said he was crying. "My head! My head!"

None of the players could say how they thought he was hurt. He was rushed to a hospital and physicians said he had little chance for recovery.

CORNEBEEF

Like You Dream About

TASTY TOASTY

122 Peachtree—53 Forsyth
Next to Piedmont Hotel

THE GUMPS—HERE'S YOUR HAT—WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—NO FOOLING

MOON MULLINS—SHE JUST TUGS AT YOUR HEART STRINGS

SMITTY—TWO-FACED

GASOLINE ALLEY—SURE ENOUGH

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—THE BAIT

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE

Safe—or Not?

By Zane Grey

IF I WERE YOU

By P. G. Wodehouse

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Just after Anthony, Fifth Earl of Drotwich, had been engaged to Violet Drotwich, heiress of Washington's 87 Street and hard-boiled as a fashion plate, Mrs. Price, Tony's old nurse, drank too much—which was not unusual—and babbled a secret. She said that when Tony and her son Syd were babies she switched children; that Tony was her child and Syd was Lord Drotwich. Syd, who had a barber shop in London, insisted upon claiming the title, and Tony's family, which included his brother, the Hon. Freddie Chalk-Marshall, and his uncle and aunt, Sir Herbert and Lady Lydia Bessinger, decided to try to make the cockney barber as uncomfortable while "educating" him as possible. Tony asked for the barber shop keys and left Lady Lydia Bessinger, who had a very serious notion that he would chuck the whole affair, to London. This method of handling Syd had been suggested by Polly Brown, a pretty American girl who was a manicurist in Syd's shop. At the end of two weeks Syd was heard over the radio in love with Polly. At the beginning of a busy Saturday afternoon Tony told Bess, who was in charge of the barber group, to put out the "Shop Closed" sign, as he had gotten sandwiches and a bottle of champagne and he and Miss Brown were going to have lunch. The talk switched to Bess's being engaged to marry. Led on by Tony, the barber detailed how proposed to Tony. "I've never been engaged, sir!" Now go on with the story.

INSTALLMENT XXII.

"Go the other way," continued Syd, "and what 'happens' you drag out the follies by the roots. I had a lad working for me once... a lad I could teach him to follow the grain? Not in a million years. I said to him till I was sick and tired, 'Young Alf, I said, 'will you or will you not...'

The story which would probably have had a very valuable moral, was never completed. For at this moment Lady Lydia's pent up feelings got the better of her, and she expressed them in a monosyllabic ejaculation.

"Well!" said Lady Lydia. As all fair-minded people know, an artist must be judged by his work as a whole, not by his occasional failures. We cannot, therefore, point the finger of censure at Syd Price because on this one occasion he was guilty of nicking a customer's chin. His record as the best shaver west of the Marble Arch still stands.

Nevertheless, this is what he did. The sudden interruption had had a disintegrating effect on him. His practiced razor slipped, and Freddie, bounding from the chair with a howl of anguish, buried his face in a towel and filled the air with bitter reproaches.

Syd scarcely noticed the catastro-

Aunt Het

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Just after Anthony, Fifth Earl of Drotwich, had been engaged to Violet Drotwich, heiress of Washington's 87 Street and hard-boiled as a fashion plate, Mrs. Price, Tony's old nurse, drank too much—which was not unusual—and babbled a secret. She said that when Tony and her son Syd were babies she switched children; that Tony was her child and Syd was Lord Drotwich. Syd, who had a barber shop in London, insisted upon claiming the title, and Tony's family, which included his brother, the Hon. Freddie Chalk-Marshall, and his uncle and aunt, Sir Herbert and Lady Lydia Bessinger, decided to try to make the cockney barber as uncomfortable while "educating" him as possible. Tony asked for the barber shop keys and left Lady Lydia Bessinger, who had a very serious notion that he would chuck the whole affair, to London. This method of handling Syd had been suggested by Polly Brown, a pretty American girl who was a manicurist in Syd's shop. At the end of two weeks Syd was heard over the radio in love with Polly. At the beginning of a busy Saturday afternoon Tony told Bess, who was in charge of the barber group, to put out the "Shop Closed" sign, as he had gotten sandwiches and a bottle of champagne and he and Miss Brown were going to have lunch. The talk switched to Bess's being engaged to marry. Led on by Tony, the barber detailed how proposed to Tony. "I've never been engaged, sir!" Now go on with the story.

"Go the other way," continued Syd, "and what 'happens' you drag out the follies by the roots. I had a lad working for me once... a lad I could teach him to follow the grain? Not in a million years. I said to him till I was sick and tired, 'Young Alf, I said, 'will you or will you not...'

The story which would probably have had a very valuable moral, was never completed. For at this moment Lady Lydia's pent up feelings got the better of her, and she expressed them in a monosyllabic ejaculation.

"Well!" said Lady Lydia. As all fair-minded people know, an artist must be judged by his work as a whole, not by his occasional failures. We cannot, therefore, point the finger of censure at Syd Price because on this one occasion he was guilty of nicking a customer's chin. His record as the best shaver west of the Marble Arch still stands.

Nevertheless, this is what he did. The sudden interruption had had a disintegrating effect on him. His practiced razor slipped, and Freddie, bounding from the chair with a howl of anguish, buried his face in a towel and filled the air with bitter reproaches.

Syd scarcely noticed the catastro-

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Syd's animation died away. Sorely oppressed these last two weeks, he cracked under the strain. He laid the razor down and made a wide gesture of despair.

"Oh, to 'ell with it all!" said Syd.

"I'm fed up," he slouched to the window and looked out, his back the back of one who has suffered enough.

Today's Cross Word Puzzle

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle.

ACROSS: 1 Floating ice. 45 City in Idaho. 8 Voiceless. 48 Zebrahead. 15 French novel. 52 Dutch scholar. 16 Near eastern country. 54 Steelworker. 17 Object. 56 Windflower. 18 Unlabeled. 57 Burdened. 19 Six-Line stanza. 58 Highways. 20 Most reliable. 1 Fields. 21 Ritor vetch. 2 War. 22 American poet. 3 Asteroid. 23 English writer. 4 Small heron. 24 Himalayan wild goats. 5 Oriental. 25 Adjacent. 6 Ruler. 26 City in Algeria. 7 Obtains. 27 Dry. 8 Algonquian. 28 Conjunction. 9 High official. 29 Established value. 10 Intrinsic. 30 Nautical instrument. 11 Close-fitting jacket. 31 English queen. 32 Duet. 12 Small birds. 33 Fish. 13 Direction. 34 Manifest. 22 Forebaw. 35 Cane. 23 Shameless. 36 Able. 24 Theme. 37 Plowed land. 38 Seraglio. 39 Scotch land. 27 County in Arkansas.

DOWN: 1 Floating ice. 45 City in Idaho. 8 Voiceless. 48 Zebrahead. 15 French novel. 52 Dutch scholar. 16 Near eastern country. 54 Steelworker. 17 Object. 56 Windflower. 18 Unlabeled. 57 Burdened. 19 Six-Line stanza. 58 Highways. 20 Most reliable. 1 Fields. 21 Ritor vetch. 2 War. 22 American poet. 3 Asteroid. 23 English writer. 4 Small heron. 24 Himalayan wild goats. 5 Oriental. 25 Adjacent. 6 Ruler. 26 City in Algeria. 7 Obtains. 27 Dry. 8 Algonquian. 28 Conjunction. 9 High official. 29 Established value. 10 Intrinsic. 30 Nautical instrument. 11 Close-fitting jacket. 31 English queen. 32 Duet. 12 Small birds. 33 Fish. 13 Direction. 34 Manifest. 22 Forebaw. 35 Cane. 23 Shameless. 36 Able. 24 Theme. 37 Plowed land. 38 Seraglio. 39 Scotch land. 27 County in Arkansas.

It is much better to be dressed up than dressed down.

JUST NUTS

WHY DO THEY HAVE POLICE AROUND HERE. DON'T THEY TRUST YOU FELLOWS?

CASHIER

28 Asiatic country. 44 Impass. 29 Parts of speech. 45 Actual. 30 Coarse. 46 Roman liquid measure. 31 Blessedness. 47 Compensated. 32 Soldier of antiquity. 48 Brazilian macaws. 33 Ancient warship. 49 Country in Nebraska. 34 French city. 50 Twisted. 35 Industrious animal. 51 War god. 52 Turf.

15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58

ATLANTA BUSINESS

A General Weekly Review of Commerce and Industry Affecting the Greater Atlanta Trade Territory

EDITED BY VICTOR BARRON

ATLANTA IS BEST BUSINESS SPOT IN UNITED STATES

City Welcomes Roosevelt With Business Foundation Draped in Letter "A," Meaning Most Active Section in Country.

BY VICTOR BARRON.

A new dawn on the American business horizon is ahead. Wherever one roams in this section he finds a feeling of more confidence and cheer than has been prevalent in several years—pessimism is spending its last hours.

There is more optimism prevailing today among the masses than at any time since the bottom of the depression was reached. From the laboring man to those high in finance and business there is a growing belief that there will be a change in the administration at Washington—and that decision will be made by the American people before another fortnight.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic presidential nominee, and Georgia's adopted son, as he stands upon Georgia's soil today, will be standing in the heart of the business section in the country. Since the upward trend in business started this summer, the south has led the upward movement.

According to one of the country's leading business and financial magazines, Georgia is given the letter "A" in the territory embracing Atlanta, which rating "is best." Only one other small section of any state in the Union was given the letter "A."

Other parts of Georgia generally are dominated by "B's," the next best, and only a small area classed as "very bad."

Cotton spinning spindles operated in the United States during September numbered 23,883,948, against 22,022,490 in August, according to the department of commerce.

Business Barometer Rises.

Here are some of the highlights in the upward trend of general business:

1. Stock, bond and commodity prices are holding firm, although inactive, which is usual on the eve of a presidential election.

2. Railroad freight carloadings continue to mount.

3. Increased demand noted for structural steel. Decrease in price of steel rails of $3 a ton is expected to accelerate demand from carriers.

4. Consumption of electric power shows increase.

5. The textile and shoe industries are operating generally to capacity.

6. Oil sales are brightening.

7. Demand for spot cotton from mills, exporters and spot interests continues heavy, with farmers inclined to hold the bulk of their crop for higher prices.

8. Farm implement concerns report better demand for supplies.

9. Marked revival is predicted for the lumber industry.

10. Inventories are being satisfactorily reduced before end of the year.

11. Cooler weather has given retail trade a healthy stimulus—evidence of it is noted by larger crowds of shoppers in stores generally.

12. Wholesale and retail hardware volume is better. Many plants, long idle, are again open.

13. Improvement in demand for radios.

14. Fifteen trend noted in many steel lines.

15. Consumers are taking advantage of the lowest price for points in nearly two decades.

It is expected that the unit volume of the forthcoming holiday business will be greater than a year ago.

Business Makes Progress.

A summary of business conditions in Georgia, as prepared by the Georgia Business Review, published by the Bureau of Business Research, School of Commerce, University of Georgia, says, in part:

"Progress was made during the summer months toward laying a foundation for business recovery. Improvement has been registered in security and commodity prices, freight car loadings have shown more than a seasonal increase, and there has been a sharp gain in cotton consumption and textile mill activity."

"Shoe production has also been stepped up. In addition, the amount of money in circulation has decreased, the world's supply of gold is increasing, and the United States is once more importing gold. The number of bank and commercial failures has been reduced. Credit is easy as a result of the federal reserve open market policy and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation activities. Employment during August registered a slight increase."

"Another favorable item is that the efficiency of management and labor has improved during the depression and is now in a position to go forward. Insurance company loans to policy holders are now decreasing—a factor which will ultimately enable insurance companies to re-enter the investment markets."

"Furthermore, sentiment has improved and the country is no longer faced with fear that we are approaching social ruin. Conditions abroad have improved somewhat. Chief among the latter was the Lausanne agreement which wiped out reparations. This was one of the most constructive steps taken to aid business recovery."

Gas Report.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Florida consumed 14,534,319 gallons of gasoline during September, the department of agriculture announced today. Kerosene consumed in that period totaled 1,927,066 gallons and signal oil 430 gallons.

Tungsten, a metallic element, was isolated by the brothers d'Elhuyart in 1783.

Edw. Richardson, O. P. A., W. G. Jackson, O. P. A., L. G. Davis, O. P. A.

RICHARDSON, JACKSON & DAVIS

Certified Public Accountants

MEMBER AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS

1444-50 Cit. & Sou. Nat. Bank Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Fill Cellar With Coal While Delivery Conditions Are Ideal

Local Dealers Point to Value of Storing Supplies Before Cold Wave, When Streets Are Slippery With Snow, Sleet.

You have probably read many interesting articles concerning the ability of the circus to always perform on the date and hour advertised. The big canvas, with train-load of animals and hundreds of employees arrive on time—regardless of heat, rain or storm.

Many obstacles must be overcome. They will be solved. An organization trained for this difficult work prepares the way and, therefore, their slogan, "The show must go on" never fails. But the circus hasn't any monopoly on difficult or dangerous tasks. Coal merchants also live up to a high standard of service; and perform regardless of rain, sleet or snow.

When streets are made slippery with sleet and the trees and houses covered with snow, teams and trucks must continue to deliver fuel as the health of our citizens would otherwise be endangered.

Should the thermometer register 20 or below, with a biting wind blowing from the north—the much needed coal always reaches the homes that need it. "Deliveries must be made."

These faithful and experienced employees of Atlanta's coal industry appreciate the spirit of "service." Without complaint, during the winter, they often work far into the night, whereas their presence in the home on Thanksgiving and Christmas day depends largely upon the condition of the weather.

Why not permit these efficient organizations to serve you now, while delivery conditions are ideal? Liberal stocks of choice grades are at your disposal. Enjoy the satisfaction of possessing a cellar filled with good coal.

Weather Strips Rival Old Adage About the 'Apple'

The traditional adage, "An apple a day will keep the doctor away," has found a true rival in weather strips, according to J. D. Couch, general manager of the Atlanta Tent and Awning Company, with factory and headquarters located at East Point.

"With the approach of cold weather," Mr. Couch strongly urges home and building owners to install weather strips, which eliminate dangerous drafts and saves 20 to 30 per cent on fuel, as well as keeping out rain, dust, dirt and stops window rattles.

"They are needed in summer and winter, and the same applies to awnings," he says.

"While weather permits property owners should not lose any time in ordering their weather strips and awnings. Our experts in both lines are at the disposal of customers."

Mr. Couch declares the saving alone in fuel bills soon will pay for weather strips, which can be installed without removing window or doors, or causing any inconveniences.

Weather strips are continually on the job. Housewives declare that they are one of the finest investments they have ever seen, not only saving them additional work cleaning, etc., but constitute real comfort and prevent sickness from colds during winter months.

The Atlanta Tent and Awning Company are distributors of the Numetal weather strips, which are everlasting, being of spring metal that has been laboratory tested for temper, and they are inexpensive.

Small than is generally imagined, "As against such possible withdrawals," Moody's points out, "the Federal Reserve system possesses over $100,000,000 of potential 'free gold' over and above all reserve requirements while an additional 300 million in gold could possibly be obtained from replacement of part of Federal Reserve notes by national bank notes."

The recent passing weakness in the dollar, which was linked to various disturbing arguments produced by the heat of the election, is needed to allay this nervousness is the assurance that the current treasury deficit will not grow to unmanageable proportions. This assurance will be provided at the next session of congress.

Mr. Horne declares that with stocks of office equipment and other important lines at the lowest ebb in years at both wholesale and manufacturing centers, the market is bound to show a decided upward reaction with the appearance of any heavy buying on the part of business institutions.

"There's a great vacuum to be filled, and when buying starts, prices start ascending, there will be such a rush into the market that manufacturers will find it difficult to satisfy requirements."

Mr. Horne states that he is making satisfactory progress in selling the store fixtures of the former Chamberlain-Johnson-DuBois Company, part of which he is conducting at 122-126 Whitehall street. Storekeepers in many sections are finding some excellent bargains at this sale. The stock is of the highest grade, ranging from general store fixtures, office and restaurant equipment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Demand for steel was irregular last week and generally limited to small-scale consumers, with quietness attributed partly to political uncertainties. Production was maintained at about 19 1/2 per cent of ingot capacity. Buying was reported to be better for steel plates, sheet and bars, while sheets and wire products were less active.

Reduction of $3 per ton in steel rail quotations has decreased the hopefulness of improved buying from railroads. Placement of orders for government-aided structural projects is not expected for several months, generally unchanged. A fair demand for pig iron continued at steady prices.

Copper remained dull as consumers withheld purchases owing to apparent lack of confidence in prices. Tin eased in sympathy with London and only moderate consumer buying interest.

Lead was steady with a moderate inquiry from consumers for prompt delivery. Demand for zinc falling to improve, some sellers accepted concessions toward the close of the week, while other smelters held prices unchanged.

Cosimo Tura, Italian painter of the early Renaissance, was the founder and most important master of the Ferrarese school.

Tungsten, a metallic element, was isolated by the brothers d'Elhuyart in 1783.

Edw. Richardson, O. P. A., W. G. Jackson, O. P. A., L. G. Davis, O. P. A.

RICHARDSON, JACKSON & DAVIS

Certified Public Accountants

MEMBER AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS

1444-50 Cit. & Sou. Nat. Bank Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

SPOT COTTON IN HEAVY DEMAND

Large Spot Interests Buy for Investment; Mills and Exporters in Mart.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Trading in the market for cotton contracts was rather quiet the past week, due to a general tendency of traders to hold off until after the presidential election is out of the way. Prices fluctuated narrowly from day to day and although the general trend was somewhat downward, covering by shorts and a little trade buying and price-fixing combined to absorb the hedge selling and hold declines to very limited proportions.

The extreme spread of prices was slightly under 30 points and the net decline for the week was about 14 to 15 points or about three-quarters of a dollar a bale. Hedge selling contributed most of the selling. Every bulge developed the placing of hedges against the rather large spot transactions.

Active Demand for Spots.

The main feature of the week was the active demand for spots in southern markets, daily sales reported ranging from 70,000 to 80,000 bales. Both the mills and exporters were in the market but the bulk of the buying was said to have come from large spot interests presumably for investment purposes. It was this large buying of spots which kept the contract market under constant pressure from hedging.

The domestic cotton goods market afforded but small encouragement during the week although mills are still reported to be active with a sufficiency of forward orders. The demand for spot goods is reported to be confined to comparatively small orders.

The foreign markets ruled fairly firm and Manchester reported an increasingly broad demand for cotton from India, China, the continent and South America.

Exports Increase.

Export for the week were fairly large and slightly in excess of the corresponding week last year.

The following shows the high, low and closing sales in the New Orleans futures market during the past week compared with a year ago:

	High	Low	Close	Last Year
Oct. ....	6.38	6.12	6.12	6.12
Nov. ....	6.44	6.14	6.14	6.34
Dec. ....	6.48	6.17	6.17	6.95
Jan. ....	6.28	6.27	6.27	7.08
Mar. ....	6.28	6.37	6.37	7.28

May .... 6.66 6.37 6.37 7.28

Cason J. Callaway, Leader in Textiles, Believes in Work

Head of Great Organization, Elected Director of Cotton-Textile Institute, Sets Example for Mills and Farmers.

Cason J. Callaway, president of the Callaway Mills, LaGrange, Ga., who was elected a director of the Cotton Textile Institute for a two-year term at the seventh annual meeting of the institute in New York last week, is one of the most progressive and constructive textile executives in the industry.

Mr. Callaway was formerly president of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association of Georgia. He has taken one of the outstanding parts in the people of the United States, including the late Fuller E. Callaway, Mr. Callaway's upmost thought and effort is to keep his organization humming, thus keeping in activity some 6,000 employees.

Heading the tremendous Callaway organization, the first mill being founded 32 years ago by his father, the late Fuller E. Callaway, Mr. Callaway's upmost thought and effort is to keep his organization humming, thus keeping in activity some 6,000 employees.

The Callaway organization now is producing finished merchandise, ready for sale in the retail stores to the people of the United States, including 100 per cent cotton summer suits, colorful rugs and bath mats and other lines, which are being eagerly bought by merchants throughout the south and country.

Like his own organization, he believes in diversification, and that policy is one which he says, "The people of the United States, including the late Fuller E. Callaway, Mr. Callaway's upmost thought and effort is to keep his organization humming, thus keeping in activity some 6,000 employees."

He has just completed a swing of far western Florida that took him to Pensacola.

It plain today his instructions will permit no manslaughter verdict. The jury of 12 men—Oklahoma law bars women from jury duty—reached a verdict of manslaughter, the judge's instructions and attorney's arguments, the case will be placed in their hands.

NEW YORK STOCK HOUSE, Inc. Wholesale Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Immediate Delivery "Better Values Our Only Salesmen"

176 Pryor St., Atlanta, Ga. Phone WA 1 9098

Whitner & Co. Est. 1865 Insurance—Loans—Bonds Grant Bldg.

Atlanta Tent & Awning Co. Telephone CA 3101 for Representative Office and Factory: East Point, Ga. The South's Largest Awning Builders

ORDER YOUR COAL NOW! From Dealer Members

The Atlanta Coal Merchants Credit Association

Marion Patterson Coal Co. A. Price Coal Co. Satterwhite Coal Co. Stearns Coal Co. York Coal Co. Atlantic Ice & Coal Co.

J. Farmer Co. Full-Ton Coal Co. Gate City Coal Co. W. D. Hardaway Coal Co. T. A. Hinson Coal Co. Jellico Coal Co. McKown Coal Co.

Aycock Bros. Brown Coal Co. Campbell Coal Co. Chiles Coal Co. Davis-Simpson-Horne Coal Co. H. J. Davis Coal Co. Empire Coal Co.

BOND MARKET IN UNCERTAIN TREND

Prices Almost Stationary in Listless Sessions as Investors Ignore News.

BY VICTOR EUBANK, Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The bond market floundered in a sea of uncertainties during the past week with the averages almost stationary in the majority of the listless sessions. Most of the time there was apparently little attention paid to news happenings and occasionally trading was at a standstill. The value of transactions on Monday was the smallest since early last June.

Business reports were fairly favorable. Freight carloadings showed substantially more than seasonal improvement and electric power output and steel production about held their own. While foreign affairs were somewhat mixed, nothing of a very depressing nature was observed in that quarter.

Pound Sterling Buys.

The slump in the British pound sterling was mildly disturbing, but this currency began to recover when the Bank of England control renewed its support. Coincident with the drop in the pound, United States treasury issues became active at fractionally higher prices, some of those loans reaching new highs for 1932. There was a theory, wholly unconfirmed, that the British were buying American government securities, and consequently selling the pound, in order to make advantage of the discount provision in meeting large interest payments due here in December.

Foreign bonds were decidedly irregular. The Austrians, Australians, Argentines and Germans worked lower, but British 5 1/2s advanced to new years' top before easing moderately. French obligations were fairly steady. Uruguayan obligations gained on announcement that debt charges had been arranged for regularity.

The secondary rails and utilities ran along with stocks, gaining or losing as shares bounced up and down. The volatile rails recorded daily advances or declines of fractions of 2 or more points, and some of the utilities, such as International Telephone and American Foreign Power, were particularly erratic.

The higher grade groups were comparatively steady throughout, some of them even showing small gains on the week. Canadian transportation loans were firm, all of the Canadian national, according to new year's peaks. Bonds of American Telephone and Consolidated Gas, Union Pacific, Santa Fe and others of the same calibre improved from time to time and held their infrequent losses to fractions.

Wise is he—who is thrifty—the foundation of independence, happiness, health and success.

The Morris Plan Company pays 5 per cent interest per annum on savings. This rate of 5 per cent means that every dollar deposited with this institution earns 67 per cent more than afforded by a 3 per cent rate and 25 per cent more than a 4 per cent rate, according to Executive Vice President C. T. Greer of the institution, of which George Winship is president.

Mr. Greer said that those who are thrifty inclined and who put to work in their institution their dollars have the additional advantage of earning interest from the date of deposit to any time in the future. Interest payments are made twice a year, January and July. The Morris Plan Company of Georgia has never failed to meet its interest payments since the institution was organized, June 10, 1911.

Borrow To Full Value.

"It is our practice to reduce these certificates upon demand, although, for the protection of the certificateholders themselves we reserve the right to require 30 days' withdrawal or, in an emergency, to limit the withdrawals in any one month to the net receipts of the preceding month," Mr. Greer said, adding the entire history of this company have never put into force these protective clauses, but the very fact they are there insures the integrity of this institution.

Various Denominations.

"Morris Plan certificates are issued in denominations of $50 and multiples thereof, or they may be acquired by installment payments made at any time in any amount. Interest payments on the installment deposits are paid from the first of the month on deposits made before the tenth of the month.

These certificates do not fluctuate in value and are always worth 100 cents on the dollar.

Thus, for the savings depositor who seeks the maximum yield, combined with safety and liquidity, the Morris Plan certificates are an ideal investment."

NEW FINANCING.

Some investment bankers believe that the bulk of new financing to be offered in the next few weeks will be in the municipal and public utility categories, a comparatively light volume of borrowings is expected.

Deputy Sheriff Margaret Johnson, of Tillamook, Ore., is looking for the man who stole her powder puff and rouge from her parked car.

Burford, Hall & Smith American Elevator Service INSPECTION—REPAIRS NEW EQUIPMENT Phone WALnut 8590 140 Edgewood Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

Shut Out Cold Weather Save Fuel Na-WAY WEATHER STRIP

A new strip, made on entirely new principle—pure, all-wool felt, reinforced with bronze. No glue, makes a firm, positive contact around windows and doors. Shut out cold drafts and rain. Stops window rattles.

SOLD AND INSTALLED BY Atlanta Tent & Awning Co. Telephone CA 3101 for Representative Office and Factory: East Point, Ga. The South's Largest Awning Builders

ORDER YOUR COAL NOW! From Dealer Members

The Atlanta Coal Merchants Credit Association

Marion Patterson Coal Co. A. Price Coal Co. Satterwhite Coal Co. Stearns Coal Co. York Coal Co. Atlantic Ice & Coal Co.

J. Farmer Co. Full-Ton Coal Co. Gate City Coal Co. W. D. Hardaway Coal Co. T. A. Hinson Coal Co. Jellico Coal Co. McKown Coal Co.

Aycock Bros. Brown Coal Co. Campbell Coal Co. Chiles Coal Co. Davis-Simpson-Horne Coal Co. H. J. Davis Coal Co. Empire Coal Co.

Cut in Steel Rail Prices Seen as Buying Stimulus

First Reduction in Ten Years; Production Up One-Half Per Cent; Carloadings Increase; Auto Output Decreases.

BY FRANK H. MCCONNELL, Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Business developments of the past week were overshadowed by the effort of the steel industry, through a reduction in rail prices, to stimulate a farflung new buying movement.

Not since 1922 had steel rail quotations been lowered. Economists noted that in 1921, when the steel industry made a similar move, it was followed by the placing of huge rail orders, which in turn furnished a vital spark to the revival of many industries. While conditions today differ considerably from 1921, when the railroads were exceedingly eager with the return of properties from government to private control to make necessary repairs and improvements, there was discernible a note of tempered optimism in reports from the steel trade.

The $3-a-ton reduction, establishing a new basic rail price at $40, was held by many to have come at the proper psychological moment to achieve good results, although it was still apparent that the roads, while attracted by the new bargain attraction, were still cautiously watching their expenditures.

Car Loadings Mount.

The movement in freight, which has held up unusually well this autumn, continued in the past week to maintain a satisfactory volume when measured with shipments of the preceding weeks. Loadings totaled 12 per cent up in the fourth of July 578 cars for the week ended October 15, a gain of 24,942 cars. Ordinarily at this season of the year, the weekly loading figures show considerable inequality. In both 1931 and 1930, the downward curve appeared quite sharply in late September.

Electric power production for the week ended October 15 totaled 1,560,503,000 kilowatt hours, against 1,508,210,000 the week before, an increase that was smaller than in the corresponding week of either 1931 or 1930, but contrasting with a sharp decrease in the same 1929 week.

Output was 9 per cent below the corresponding 1931 level, comparing with a margin of 8.9 per cent decline in the two preceding weeks.

The automobile industry which, in terms of production, is at the lowest point of the year, continued to report fairly satisfactory progress in marking off inventories, in preparation for next year's models. Production was estimated at 11,150 units for the week ended October 15, against 20,600 in the week ended September 24.

Steel Production Gains.

Metal statistics indicated that lead and zinc stocks were gradually being eaten into, but against this improvement there was a slight accumulation of copper prices. Custom smelters reported that stocks were increasing somewhat, and some sales were reported at 6 cents a pound for domestic shipment to clear up the surplus.

Crude oil production for the week ended October 15 averaged 2,130,650 barrels daily against 2,173,000 the week before. Hand in hand with this evidence of progress in curtailment, the gasoline price advances appeared in the northeastern Atlantic states where station prices were marked up 1 cent a gallon.

Steel production, as estimated by Iron Age, reached 19 1/2 per cent of capacity, "Doing the best" this week. This figure had not been reached since the week ended June 7 when output declined sharply from 20 per cent to the year's low point of 12 per cent in the fourth of July 578 cars for the week ended October 15, a gain of 24,942 cars. Ordinarily or, in an emergency, to limit the withdrawals in any one month to the net receipts of the preceding month," Mr. Greer said, adding the entire history of this company have never put into force these protective clauses, but the very fact they are there insures the integrity of this institution.

Various Denominations.

"Morris Plan certificates are issued in denominations of $50 and multiples thereof, or they may be acquired by installment payments made at any time in any amount. Interest payments on the installment deposits are paid from the first of the month on deposits made before the tenth of the month.

These certificates do not fluctuate in value and are always worth 100 cents on the dollar.

Thus, for the savings depositor who seeks the maximum yield, combined with safety and liquidity, the Morris Plan certificates are an ideal investment."

NEW FINANCING.

Some investment bankers believe that the bulk of new financing to be offered in the next few weeks will be in the municipal and public utility categories, a comparatively light volume of borrowings is expected.

Deputy Sheriff Margaret Johnson, of Tillamook, Ore., is looking for the man who stole her powder puff and rouge from her parked car.

Burford, Hall & Smith American Elevator Service INSPECTION—REPAIRS NEW EQUIPMENT Phone WALnut 8590 140 Edgewood Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

Shut Out Cold Weather Save Fuel Na-WAY WEATHER STRIP

A new strip, made on entirely new principle—pure, all-wool felt, reinforced with bronze. No glue, makes a firm, positive contact around windows and doors. Shut out cold drafts and rain. Stops window rattles.

SOLD AND INSTALLED BY Atlanta Tent & Awning Co. Telephone CA 3101 for Representative Office and Factory: East Point, Ga. The South's Largest Awning Builders

ORDER YOUR COAL NOW! From Dealer Members

The Atlanta Coal Merchants Credit Association

Marion Patterson Coal Co. A. Price Coal Co. Satterwhite Coal Co. Stearns Coal Co. York Coal Co. Atlantic Ice & Coal Co.

THE CONSTITUTION

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Information

CLOSING HOURS

Want Ads are accepted up to 9 p. m. for publication the next day. The closing hour for the Sunday edition is 8:30 a. m. Saturday.

CLASSIFIED RATES

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:
One time ..... 20 cents
Three times ..... 15 cents
Seven times ..... 10 cents
Minimum, 3 lines (12 words).

In estimating the space of an ad figure six average words to a line. Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of lines the ad appeared and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Errors in advertisements should be reported immediately. The Constitution will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

All want ads are restricted to their proper classification and the Constitution reserves the right to revise or reject any advertisement.

Ads ordered by telephone are accepted for publication and the Constitution reserves the right to revise or reject any advertisement.

To Phone An Ad
Call Walnut 6565
Ask for an Ad-Taker

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedules Published as Information.

Central Standard Time.

Arrives—A. B. & C. R. R. Leaves

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

5:10 pm. Atlanta. 11:45 pm. 5:45 pm.

TARZAN THE UNTAMED No. 109

With the apes quibbled by Tarzan's declaration that Olga was his "she," and not to be molested, the two humans were allowed to pass unchallenged from the scene of the dum-dum dance. Some hours later Tarzan lifted the girl lightly into a great tree.

The muffled pounding of the apes' dum-dum dance reached her from the distance. She recalled the time in India, long ago, when beating drums drove a tiger toward her elephant, and how her crash from his back had put her near death.

"If I, Patricia Canby," mused Olga, "had been killed that time, there would never have been an Olga Borech, spy for the Reds!" ... Loving care and her own zest for life had pulled her through. Summer found her girlish prettiness blossoming into real beauty.

Her father, Captain Canby, had made exciting plans for her. Lady Cecil, his colonel's wife, invited Pat to spend several months with them in their mountain place. The Captain himself could not leave his post, for an uprising threatened in a native state to the north.

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Personal

8

FURS remodeled; hand cleaned; tailoring; coats, suits, Mrs. Fairbanks, M.A. 6155.

THE Road to Health—High colony irrigation even by graduate nurse, W.A. 2700.

DIPHTHERIA prevention. Take at once, 81. Dr. Geo. Brown, 10 Forsyth Bldg.

Curtains Laundered, fluted, Spec. prices. Mrs. Nelson, 122, 6064.

FREE children's chiropractic clinic until Nov. 1. 8474 Gordon St., R.A. 5517.

SWEDISH scientific massage by graduate nurse, 154 Carnegie Way, 1st floor.

SWEDISH massage, Vapor bath, 214 Conally Bldg., W.A. 2607.

DR. DUNCAN, Dentist—Plates 810; repairs 81. 1354 Whitehall St., A.A. 4357.

Lost and Found 10

REWARD for return of following articles:

taken from automobile in Atlanta: Army officer's blouse, cap, trousers, belt, raincoat, Colonel Fitzhugh Lee, Fort McPherson, R.A. 5515, extension 453 between 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.

BROWN and white-splashed female hound, answers to name "Spot." About 10 yrs. old, teeth in front, lost in Grove Park district. Finder call R.A. 1568. F. S. Brannon.

BLACK AND TAN male hound, answers to name "Lucky," lost on Beecher St. in West End Saturday. Finder call R.A. 1568.

LOST—Black pointed fox for in Paramount theater Sunday afternoon. Reward offered. Call DE. 0105.

LOST—Scottish terrier, black male, "Mick," Highland Park, black. Reward, Alexander, R.A. 2705.

LOST—Platinum wrist watch with eight diamonds Friday morning. Reward, R.A. 1875.

Automotive 11

Automobiles for Sale

LATE MODEL LIGHT CARS.

PRICES RIGHT. EASY TERMS.

JOHN S. FLORENCE

MOTOR COMPANY

Tune in Every Night 8 O'Clock WFTL.

A Bargain New Franklin Standard 1931

6-cyl. 2-door. 1200 cc. 1200 cc. 1200 cc.

under 6000; without license; offered cheap for quick sale. Address or call Lee S. Trimble, Augusta, Ga.

1929 FORD 4-door Sedan. Mechanically perfect. 1200 cc. 1200 cc. 1200 cc.

150 Lincoln sedan, (no trades); tires and body good. 1200 cc. 1200 cc. 1200 cc.

GUARANTEED used model "A" and "B"

Fords, Robert Ingram, Inc., authorized ford dealer, Decatur, Ga. D.R. 0902.

Chevrolet New and used. East Point

Motor Co., 306-308 North

1931 PIERCE-ARROW club sedan, A-1 condition in every way. Private owner. A bargain.

27 RACKARD "C" OLD.

WANT offer, terms or trade. Fine shape every way. 1246 Piedmont Ave.

ERNEST G. HENDRY—Used cars. New cars. 58 North Ave. R.A. 1834.

LATE 30 DODGE "8" ROADSTER; RAC-

EFICE LOWE, RE. 1583-7, LEAVE

NUMBER.

THE BEST place to buy a used car. Atlanta's Pickard Motors, 870 Peachtree St.

CHEVROLET passenger cars and trucks.

John Smith Co., 630-640 W. Peachtree St.

NEW USED FORD—McClain White Motor

Co., Inc., 678 W. White St., W.A. 8121.

DEPENDABLE used cars. Chambers-Rich

Co., Inc., 809 Spring St., W.A. 8121.

LOWEST local, long-distance moving, store rates in south. White, M.A. 1885.

WE guarantee cheaper travel. Private cars.

Accord Travel Bureau, M.A. 0013.

Beauty Aids 2

SPECIAL REDUCED RATES

on complete beauty course. Regular $220 courses for only $90. Cash or will arrange terms.

RYCKLEYS SCHOOL

of Beauty Culture. R.A. 0752

1126 Gordon St.

Permanent Waves, with

Ringlet Ends.

$1.50

ECONOMY BEAUTY SHOP

201 Kinyard Bldg. R.A. 8475

Hollywood Beauty Salon, 405 New

Grand Theater Bldg. offers

$5.00 waves, $2.00 hair, $3.00 complete.

Every wave guaranteed. R.A. 8800.

33 Guaranteed Waves, ringlet ends. No extra charges. Elizabeth Beauty Shop

804 Grand Theater Bldg. R.A. 0600.

33 GUARANTEED 1 1/2 permanent, ringlet ends. No extra charges. Genevieve's Wave

Shop, 508 Grand Theater Bldg. R.A. 0600.

W

